CONSTITUTION

Revised 1981

Article I. NAME

This body shall be known as the Yates Baptist Association of North Carolina.

Article II. PURPOSE

The purpose of this Association shall be to provide a convenient and orderly means for the extension of the ministry of the cooperating Baptist Churches in Durham County and adjacent territories which support the programs of the Baptist State Convention and the Southern Baptist Convention.

Article III. ARTICLES OF FAITH

The confession of faith of this Association shall be the "Baptist Faith and Message" with its five-point statement of the historic Baptist conception of the nature and function of confessions of faith in our religious and denominational life as adopted by the Southern Baptist Convention in 1963 at Kansas City.

(Five-Point Statement from "The Baptist Faith and Message")

(1) That they constitute a concensus of opinion of some Baptist body, large or small, for the general instruction and guidance of our own people and others concerning those articles of the Christian faith which are most surely held among us. They are not intended to add anything to the simple conditions of the salvation revealed in the New Testament, viz., repentance towards God and faith in Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord.

(2) That we do not regard them as complete statements of our faith, having any quality of finality of infallibility. As in the past so in the future Baptists should hold themselves free to revise their statements of faith as may seem to them wise and expedient at any time.

(3) That any group of Baptists, large or small, have the inherent right to draw up for themselves and publish to the world a confession of their faith whenever they may think it advisable to do so.

(4) That the sole authority for faith and practice among Baptists is the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments. Confessions are only guides in interpretation, having no authority over the conscience.

(5) That they are statements of religious convictions, drawn from the Scriptures, and are not to be used to hamper freedom of thought or investigation in other realms of life.

Article IV. MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. This Association in session shall be composed of duly elected messengers from cooperating Baptist churches in Durham County and adjacent territories and the regular elected officers of the Association and members of the Associational Board which are in agreement with the purpose as stated in Article II. When not in session this Association shall be comprised of its member churches which shall elect members to the Associational Board in accordance to Article X.

Section 2. Each church shall be represented at the annual meeting of the Association and at any special meeting during the year by messengers who shall be duly certified in the following ratio:

(1) Three for the first hundred members or fraction thereof, and one for each additional hundred or fraction thereof, provided that the total number of messengers shall not exceed ten.

(2) All pastors of churches of the Association shall be recognized as messengers, in addition to those specified above.

Section 3. Only individuals who are baptized (immersed) believers and members of churches of this Association shall be seated as voting messengers at any Associational meeting.

Section 4. Churches seeking to seat messengers in the Association shall apply to the Missions Committee prior to the annual meeting of the Association, giving evidence of their faith and order and their agreement to be received under watchcare of the Association. Upon recommendation of the committee and the approval of the Association by a two-thirds majority of the members present and voting, the church or churches shall be received under the watchcare of the Association for a period of one year. It is understood that during the period of watchcare of the Association such churches will be accorded all the services of the Association and all its privileges with the exception of the right to seat voting messengers and to voting representation on the Associational Board. Organist — Michael Hester, Organist, Ephesus Church

Rev. Larry Wilson, pastor of the host church, brought greetings and led in prayer.

The Moderator recognized Dr. Wade Armstrong, Director of Missions. Dr. Armstrong recognized new pastors and staff personnel. Cresset, Jerry Collins; Carrboro, Dr. Jesse J. Croom; Gorman, Wayne Schlink; Mt. Pisgah, Joe Zimmerman; Bethesda, Joe Wiggins, Minister of Education; Yates Church, Gay Trotter, Dewey Kerr, Holloway Street.

Rev. Ray Alderson, Director of Music, Calvary Church, presented a video tape of the 1981 annual report to associations from the Baptist State Convention, Part I. It presented the Southern Baptist Convention agencies and the amount received from the associations. It stressed that foreign missions was depending on volume contributions to share the word of Christ in all languages in our communities--the blind, the deaf, families in distress. We have a message to give and a mission to perform, and God calls us to do it His way. Southern Baptists had 368,000 baptisms in 1981. Dr. Randall Lolley, president of Southeastern Seminary, spoke on the Southern Seminary in Louisville, Kentucky, and Southeastern at Wake Forest, N. C.

The hymn, "Stand Up, Stand Up for Jesus" sung by the congregation led by Mrs. Janet Whitaker, Minister of Music, Carrboro Church.

Rev. Tom Jordan, pastor, Red Mountain Church, and Chaplain of the Department of Public Safety. He presented the "New Church Plan" from the committee on new work as directed by the Associational Board on February 19, 1980. A copy of the report was sent to each church for the messengers prior to the annual sessions. (Copy is attached to minutes at Yates Office). After a thorough discussion of the plan, he moved for the adoption of the report; seconded by Wilson Sprouse, Homestead Heights Church. A discussion followed as to agreement with the constitution. Chris Hamlet, Watts Street Church, made a substitute motion that the proposal be referred to the Constitution Committee work with the New Church Plan Committee. Seconded by Fred Williams, pastor, Cedar Fork Church. Motion passed.

The Missions Committee report was given by Rev. Clay Warf, pastor, Temple Church, chairman of the committee. 'Through the work of a summer mission worker, Rev. Ron Benson, a staff member of the Durham Memorial Baptist Church, we have sought to determine the need and the feasibility of starting new work in the Bahama and Leesville Road areas...." The Missions Committee recommended that new churches in the above-named areas be started, and that the other churches assist these churches initially through the 5-1-5 plan--five churches sponsoring one new church for five years. He moved the adoption of the recommendation; seconded by Dr. James Murphy, Hope Valley Church. Adoption passed.

Rev. Warf presented a second recommendation from the Missions Committee. He stated that our constitution provides that any church seeking membership must apply to the Missions Committee. The committee had received two applications for membership: The West Durham Baptist, located at Nixon and Athens Streets, and the Good Samaritan Baptist Church, located at Hardee Street and Cheek Road. Two black churches pastored by Dr. Harold J. Cobb, Sr., and Rev. Harold J. Cobb, Jr. The West Durham Church is already a Southern Baptist church. The Good Samaritan Church is a new church. He moved the adoption of the recommendation; seconded by Jerry Harper, Mount Hermon Church. Adoption was accepted.

Russell Wimmer, pastor, Immanuel Church, chairman of the Constitution Committee, referred the congregation to pages 32 and 33 of the "Book of Reports," for the listing of the five (5) changes recommended by the committee. Questions were answered and recommendation of the changes in the constitution to be voted on tomorrow evening.

Rev. Ernest Holt, pastor, Guess Road Baptist Church, introduced the speaker, Dr. Ronald Cumbie, pastor of the Yates Baptist Church.

Music message was rendered by the Sanctuary Choir of the Yates Church, led by Larry Dickens, Minister of Music, Yates Church.

Dr. Cumbie spoke on "Making Disciples." He stated there is so much about preaching that we do not know and volumes he had not read and was aware of what he had to give to us and to Him. Three issues face our denomination: (1) establishing an effective evangelism; (2) establishing more effective nurturing in the churches, and (3) establish financial underwriting of the boldness of our missions. (Tape of Dr. Cumbie's message is filed for your reference at the Yates Associational Office.)

Choral benediction was rendered by the Sanctuary Choir of the Yates Church.

An Associational Missions 1982 Video Tape was given after the benediction for those who had not seen it.

James West, pastor, Calvary Church, introduced the speaker, Dr. Olin Binkley, retired president, Southeastern Baptist Seminary. He spoke on "Maturing Disciples." He spoke on the people seeking greater knowledge of God, and the process of maturing disciples. The Books of the New Testament concerned with the vital process toward maturing is in the Letters to the Ephesians. He recommended that all read the entire Book of Ephesians. (Tape of Dr. Binkley's message is on file for your reference in the Yates Association Office).

The benediction and thanksgiving for lunch was given by Rev. Clay Warf.

Dr. Frank Zedick, Grace Church, made the Stewardship Award to the Mount Hermon Church per capita of $8.18 for resident member to missions of the Yates Association. The largest amount to the First Baptist Church of $10,376 to missions of the Yates Association.

Bob Weatherly, Mount Moriah Church, spoke on the 1982 "Here's Hope Emphasis," and noted there was a tremendous amount of work to be done for the Simultaneous Crusade of April 4-18, holding revivals in our churches and proclaiming Christ. He stated that he had gone to Caraway for training and was available to help the churches in their use of the Survival Kit for adults and new members as they prepare for the crusade.

Dorothy Hicks, Trinity Church, Associational W.M.U. Director, recognized Miss Nannie Mae Herndon of Lowe's Grove whose flag designed was selected to represent Yates Baptist Association at the State Convention in Greensboro in November. Hymn, "Rise Up O Men of God" was sung by the congregation.

Julian Motley, Gorman Church, introduced Rev. Donald H. Bowen, Pastor, Alexandria, Virginia, who spoke of "Ministering Disciples." He stressed that the deacon/minister are in the position to minister to the people. The three points necessary to get straight first were: the meaning of the terms--ministering disciples; interpretation of the task, and the significance of the tasks. We were to realize the task was given by the Son of God to witness, and we were to recognize ministering for the child of God, was not an option but a necessity; we must realize the opportunities for ministering not restricted but unlimited, and the obstacles are not without but within. (Tape of Rev. Bowen's message is on file in the Yates Office.)

Period of testimony was given before the benediction.

Following the benediction a video tape was shown on Associational Missions 1982 to hear Yates leaders tell about twenty-seven ministries and services.

Rev. Mike McKeown, Associate Minister, Immanuel Church, was the music leader for the evening, with Rev. Mike Threadgill, Minister of Music, Grey Stone Church, as pianist, and organist was Michael Hester, Ephesus Church.

REPORT OF THE ASSOCIATIONAL BOARD

The Associational Board is responsible to "act for the Association in the interim between sessions" and to make a full and complete report of its work at each annual meeting." In fulfilling its responsibility, the Board held four meetings during the interim and took action as follows:

February 10, 1981, a Board Meeting was held at First Church. The "State of the Association" message was delivered by Dr. Wade Armstrong. He stressed the goals reached the past year and those to strive for during the coming year. Organizational reports were heard.

The Constitution Committee recommended that the two pastors appointed by the Moderator to serve at large on the Executive Committee remain on the Executive Committee in an advisory capacity until formal action is presented and action taken at the Annual Meeting in October. This was agreed upon by general consensus.

The 1981 Revised Budget was presented by Don Christian, Finance Committee Chairman. The budget, essentially the same as presented at the Annual Meeting in October, had the following changes: Sec. I, 116 - Community Ministries increased to $800; Sec.II, 206 - Camp Caretaker increased to $3,600; Sec. II, 210 - Director's Travel increased to $4,000; Sec. Motion made by Don Christian that budget be adopted. Seconded. Motion carried.

Rev. Dennis Ball, a Southeastern Seminary student and an intern under the supervision of Dr. Armstrong, was introduced by Rev. Clay Warf, Mission Committee Chairman. It was explained that his work would be without charge and that the State Convention would provide $2,000 to help with the initial work and to help defray Mr. Ball's expenses.

A motion was made by Rev. Clay Warf that, "We begin steps to investigate the possibility of establishing a new work in the Bahama area." Seconded. Motion carried.

May 19, 1981, a Board Meeting was held at Rose of Sharon Church.

Fred Herndon, Chairman of the Baptist Home Feasibility Study Committee, gave an update of the committee's work. He made a motion that the Board authorize the Moderator to appoint additional persons to the committee. Seconded. Motion carried.

Rev. Gerald Goodwin reported for Rev. Clay Warf, Missions Committee Chairman, that the committee recommended employing a staff person for the summer for ten weeks to be funded by the State Baptist Convention and the Home Mission Board. The person would work in the area of new work. Rev. Gerald Goodwin made a motion to employ a summer staff member. Seconded. Motion carried.

Reports were heard form Mrs. W. A. Godwin, Treasurer, and Rev. Mac Bare, for the 1982 "Here's Hope" Crusade. Upon the recommendation of the Nominating Committee, the following were elected: Moderator, Rev. Gerald Goodwin; Clerk, John Deeds; Treasurer, Mrs. Mary Ellen Godwin; and Parliamentarian, Bruce Little.

Organizational reports were heard.

Mike Threadgill succeeded Rev. James Taylor as Director of Music for the Association. It was formally made into a motion by Rev. Mac Bare; seconded. Motion Carried.

June 29, 1981, a Board Meeting was held at Temple Church. Rev. Ron Benson, Summer Mission Worker, was introduced.

Rev. Julian Motley, reporting for Rev. Norman Gossett, Chairman of the Nominating Committee, presented the name of Travis Clements as Vice Moderator. The nominee was accepted.

The Moderator made the statement that, "We, the Executive Committee, accept the statement of Dr. Armstrong as follows: (We want to hear this as a statement of intent from Dr. Armstrong.)"

> "Evidently my leadership style is not compatible to this area. I am beginning to seek another place and ask that you pray that God's will be done and every effort will be made to relocate by December 31, 1981."

October 13, 1981, a Board Meeting was held at Durham Memorial Church. A video tape of the ministries offered by Yates Baptist Association was shown.

Dr. David Moore presented a proposal of the Yates Association to go with the Raleigh Association to have a "Metro Area Sunday School Enrollment/Training Clinic, April 16-24, 1983. Dr. Moore made the motion that the Yates Baptist Association join with the Raleigh Baptist Association in a "Metro Sunday School Enrollment Training Clinic" for the purpose of strengthening our Sunday School, and reaching people for Christ. Seconded. Passed unanimously.

Mrs. Dot Hicks gave a report for the W.M.U. Rev. Clay Warf reported for the Missions Committee. Rev. Norman Gossett, Chairman of the Nominating Committee, presented the name of Miss Nannie Mae Herndon for the Church Training Director. Unanimously accepted.

Mr. Fred Herndon, Chairman of the Baptist Home Feasibility Study Committee, announced that the committee had prepared a report to be distributed to the churches for study before the Annual Meeting. The Executive Committee unanimously endorsed the proposal of the Baptist Retirement Committee provided the money for the feasibility study ($2,500) is available.

Respectfully submitted,

Talmadge Lassiter, Moderator

REPORT OF THE DIRECTOR OF MISSIONS

The 1980-81 church year has been good. Progress is being made toward our 10-year "Decade of Destiny" goals.

BAPTISMS UP

The baptism goal for the first year of the decade was 500, and our churches reported 517. Although at the time of this writing all churches haven't reported, it appears that our baptisms for 1981 will surpass 1980. With evangelism voted as the number one priority of the '80's, progress is being made in this direction.

MISSION GIVING UP

In 1980 our churches gave $82,400 to Associational Missions and $774,600 to world missions.

At this writing it appears the figures will be higher.

Our 1981 Bold Missions Giving Goal included 25 churches giving to missions on a pure percentage basis of their budget income and 35 churches is the goal for 1982.

Some additional churches have already reported that they will be giving on a pure percentage basis in 1982.

(One church which has had difficulty giving to missions, has just begun on a pure percentage basis and their gifts to associational missions will amount to serveral hundreds of dollars in 1982).

FELLOWSHIP UP

Fellowship among the ministers and their wives was reflected during the year by the large number who attended the Sweetheart Banquet in February, the 95 who attended the "Pig Picking" in September, and the good "joshing" pastors give each other at their regular Tuesday morning breakfast.

To enhance fellowship among the pastors and wives, my wife and I have had most of the couples in our home for dinner, following with a time of good fellowship and getting acquainted. Some couples have gotten to know each other for the first time.

PASTOR TURN-OVER

There were twelve (12) churches who either became pastorless or called a pastor during the church year. Four (4) were pastorless at the close of the church year.

Statistics reflect that churches do better when pastors stay longer.

NEW CHURCHES COMING

On our goal of thirteen (13) new churches by 1990, six (6) are already in sight. One joined in 1980, two are now asking for membership, and three more are on the immediate drawing board.

Two seminary students were used in 1980-81, to survey and study the need for new work in the Association.

Four seminary students are requested from the Home Mission Board for 1981-82 church year to continue helping start new works.

NEW CHURCH PLAN

The Associational Board voted in February 1980, to appoint a special committee to study and recommend a comprehensive New Church Plan for the Association. After much study, research, and consultation, the committee is making a report at the annual session. The Plan seems to be comprehensive, safe, and progressive.

SUNDAY SCHOOL STRATEGIC

Bible study enrollment stands near the top in importance in the life of a church that makes a real effort to win lost people to Christ. Our Sunday School ASSIST Team is ready to help our churches deal effectively with their opportunities to enroll people.

PERSONAL EVANGELISM EMPHASIS

It has been my privilege to train several pastors in a personal evangelism program called, "Evangelism Explosion". One school of seven weeks was taught in the fall of 1980. Another school was held in the summer of 1981. This program is now being implemented in the churches by the pastors.

YOUTH PROGRAM PROGRESSING

Our youth leadership has involved hundreds of young people in youth rallies and retreats. Junior and senior high young people can realize they are not alone in their desire and efforts to permit Christ to assume first place in their lives.

SIMULTANEOUS REVIVALS

Twenty-nine (29) churches participated in the Simultaneous Revivals last spring and good results were reported. A fellowship-prayer breakfast for pastors, evangelists, and singers was held on five mornings. The churches participated in sumultaneous advertising by sending 87,000 tabloids to the homes through Durham daily papers.

CAMP PLANNING

Plans seem to be formulating to activate a committee voted by the Association in February 1980, to make a comprehensive study of camping in Yates Association. This committee is responsible to bring a long range projection of opportunities, responsibilities and needs.

LOOKING AHEAD

The 1982 "Here's Hope" Simultaneous Crusade, April 4-11, is a joint effort of all of the North Carolina Baptist Convention and the General (black) Baptist Convention.

A veteran in simultaneous revivals, Dr. Leonard Sanderson, Director of Evangelism for the Louisiana Baptist Convention, will be the director of Yates crusade.

A seriousness and enthusiasm with which our churches participate, not only in Yates Association but throughout the state, may reflect how seriously we take the Great Commission, how much we believe in the lostness of people without Christ, the priority we place on evangelism and perhaps how effective Southern Baptists' voice for the Saviour will be in future years.

The 1983 Metro Sunday School Enlargement, April 16-24, in cooperation with the Sunday School Board, the North Carolina Convention, and the Raleigh Association, will provide a most unusual opportunity for a church to have five (5) trained workers sent to them for a week to train and inspire their Sunday School Workers. This enrollment-training effort can mark the difference between a sluggish church and a growing church.

Somewhere I read statistics somewhat as follows: one (1) of three (3) lost persons enrolled in Sunday School will be won to Christ in a year's time. One of about 300 lost people not enrolled in Sunday School will be won to Christ in a year.

The 1984 World Missions Conference will be an opportunity for all of our churches to have live missionary speakers, get a personal touch of world missions, magnify the Great Commission, and "Call out the called" to full-time Christian service.

ASSOCIATIONAL LEADERSHIP GOOD

The officers the organizational heads and the committee chairmen worked diligently with their opportunities during the year.

Special thanks is given to Tal Lassiter who has been Moderator for two years. His Christian attitude and actions have been reflected in this office and in his work as Public Safety Director of Durham.

VIDEO REFLECTS YATES MISSIONS

a "first" was achieved when the Association had its first video tape made. It puts together in concise form about twenty-seven (27) ministries and services offered by the Association.

One comprehending and astute layperson remarked after seeing the tape, "I did not know the Association did all of these things. This is the first time I've seen them all put together." This tape is available for showing in the churches.

(A gift of $2,000 could enable the Association to complete its video tape equipment and to make its own video tapes of any ministry or meeting at any time.)

"TO GOD BE THE GLORY"

Many thanks to many persons who helped to make our ministry more pleasant and progressive during the year. To God be the Glory for every victory and opportunity.

Respectfully submitted,

D. Wade Armstrong,
Director of Missions

REPORT OF THE BROTHERHOOD

Brotherhood is a men and boys organization whose purpose is to make men and boys aware of missions, mission needs, mission opportunities and to encourage active involvement on the church level in various aspects of missions.

This year several men and boys have been active in West Virginia mission ventures I know there were at least 25 person involved in West Virginia during the summer months and there may have been more. The excitement of these mission trips has been tremendous. There have been other men involved in mission outreach in the Yates Association fields through the prison ministries, Laubach ministry and refugee family ministries.

Also your Director was privileged to teach the Association Missions study in Grace, Page Road and Cedar Fork churches in the spring.

The R.A. Boys have been active in missions and sports this year. They have had a really great Associational Track meet with a very good turnout of boys from various churches in the Association. One of our R.A.'s, Lynn Bates from Grey Stone, served on the State Convention R.A. Committee.

The Crusader Car Competition held in October each year is also a big event among R. A. boys. In each of these events, a mission project emphasis is a prerequisite to becoming eligible to participate and the boys thoroughly enjoy it.

Young boys need and enjoy the encouragement and leadership provided by men, thus R.A.'s become a fantastic opportunity for Baptist Men's units to sponsor.

I hope you will pray with me that more men and boys can be encouraged to become mission minded in 1982.

Respectfully submitted,

J. Edwin Couch, Director

REPORT OF THE CAMP COMMITTEE

The Camp Committee would like to thank the churches for their cooperation in the use of the camp.

We, the committee , would like to impress upon the churches in the association that the camp is for the use of all of the churches and would like to see a larger number of the churches take advantage of the camp facilities.

We, the camp committee, would like to invite constructive criticism in the use and operation of the camp.

During the year the committee has reviewed the camp rules in an effort to bring them nearer in line with the wishes of the people and to be able to operate a more orderly and efficient camp.

During the year storm windows and storm doors have been installed and the ceiling has been insulated on the caretaker's house. This should make the caretaker's house much more comfortable and fuel efficient.

During the year the Matthew T. Yates cabin, donated to the camp by the Yates heirs, has been completed, is now ready for inspection. It is ready for visitors and ready to be used for a spiritual inspiration. It is hoped that the cabin as a memorial to the missionary work will create a more realistic view of missions. The barbeque pit at the shelter has been rebuilt and is in first class shape for use. The caretaker has repainted the entrance gate, the directional signs, the post and the ballfield goals.

There are many improvements that need to be made at the camp. The first priority should be an effort to purchase more land to replace the land taken by the Falls of Neuse project.

Respectfully submitted,

George W. Ray, Chairman

REPORT OF THE EVANGELISM COMMITTEE

Under the leadership of the Evangelism Committee a Simultaneous Crusade was conducted by our association this year. Twenty-nine of the churches in our association participated in this joint evangelistic effort during the dates of April 26 through May 6, 1981. The theme of this crusade was "Reaching Our Community for Christ." Numerous planning meetings were held in preparation for this event and churches were grouped together for prayer. During the course of the crusade, several sharing meetings were held, and many churches reported great results from their individual meetings. Many lives were changed and there were a considerable number of professions of faith and baptisms recorded as a result of this joint effort.

In 1982 our association will once again participate in a Joint Evangelistic Crusade, which is co-sponsored by the Baptist State Convention and the General Baptist State Convention. The theme will be "Here's Hope." An interpretation meeting was held on April 7, 1981, at Greater St. Paul Baptist Church to suggest plans and basic thrusts for this Joint Crusade effort. The Simultaneous Revival date for the Yates Association is April 4-11, 1982. Every church in our Association is encouraged to plan a revival meeting during these suggested dates. Let us pray daily that every unsaved person in North Carolina will have the opportunity to hear the Gospel by the end of 1982.

Much planning is underway in our association now to help prepare our churches for this Joint Crusade effort. A Prayer Seminar, A People Search, and a Lay Evangelism School have been conducted thus far. Much more preparation and planning will take place before the actual crusade takes place in 1982.

Baptisms were up last year throughout our Baptist State Convention, and particularly in the Yates Association. There were 517 baptisms recorded in our association in 1980 compared to 397 in 1979. Praise God for this! While it is too early to tell about 1981, we all pray that our churches are recapturing the desire and commandment of the Lord to "feed my sheep." If so, we shall surely continue to see more persons led to receive Christ as Lord!

Respectfully submitted,

Carl K. Garner, Chairman

INTERFAITH WITNESS COMMITTEE

The Interfaith Witness Committee, after contacting the Home Mission Board and meeting with Dr. Ernest Upchurch, Church Extension Director of the N. C. State Convention from Raleigh, has come to the following conclusion. Unable to sponsor any particular project, seminar or special emphasis in the past three years, but spending the time re-evaluating the committee and its function as suggested by the Nominating Committee, it is the opinion of the chairman that this committee should continue to function and make a special effort to bring before the Yates Association the many problems and needs resulting from the lack of knowledge pertaining to the many and varied cults in our society today. Also, the need to understand and live with our brothers and sisters in Christ from other denominations and our Jewish friends is important.

The need for persons interested in becoming consultants in particular areas and helping our Association to become more aware of these needs is important. Dr. Upchurch and/or our Director of Missions will be happy to talk with anyone interested.

It was a pleasure having the opportunity to have this contact with the Home Mission Board and Dr. Upchurch. Also, to serve with the various members of the committee over the last three years. May God bless the new committee and its chairman and may they continue to function with the groundwork that has been laid.

Respectfully submitted,

Shirley B. Robertson, Chairman

REPORT OF LAUBACH

The Laubach program has had a very good year. With the showing of the film "The Pride of Jesse Hallum" which is a true story of a man who was taught to read by the use of the Laubach method, the requests for help in learning to read have increased greatly. We have had three workshops training tutors with 29 being certified. There will be another workshop on September 25 and 26 of this year. We presently have 35 tutors actively working with adult nonreaders and 3 teaching English to speakers of other languages.

During the year, the director was certified by the National Association for Literacy Advance as a supervising tutor trainer.

We are in a very unique situation in that we are the only organization in the area that is actively engaged in this ministry. The needs are great and we solicit your prayers and support during the coming year as we continue to further the work of His Kingdom through this ministry.

Respectfully submitted,

Mary Whaley,
Literacy Program Director

REPORT OF THE MISSIONS COMMITTEE

The Missions Committee has had a very busy year, with a number of meetings. We began our meetings by studying the responsibilities of the Missions Committee, as determined through the associational constitution and as suggested by Southern Baptist Convention guidelines. In keeping with what we found through this study, the major portion of our time was spent in three areas: (1) Considering the applications of two churches for membership in our association; (2) the starting of new work within the boundaries of our association; and (3) the development of several new areas of ministry through our association. I want to speak to these three things in a little more detail.

Two area black Baptist churches, the West Durham Church and the Good Samaritan Church, have applied for membership in our association. According to the constitution, any church applying for membership would first of all be required to be reviewed by the Missions Committee and, upon the recommenmendation and action by the messengers at the annual meeting, to come under watchcare for a one-year period. Our committee has met with both the pastors of these churches and has given careful consideration to these applications. We will be making a recommendation at the annual meeting.

A second important area in which we have worked this year concerns the starting of new churches. Through the work of a summer mission worker, Rev. Ron Benson of the Durham Memorial Baptist Church, we have sought to determine the feasibility of starting new work in the Bahama and Leesville Road areas, While at the same time we have sought to assist new work already begun in the south Chapel Hill area. From all indications there is a need for a new work to be begun in Bahama and on Leesville Road. We will be bringing recommendations in this regard at the annual meeting.

As a third area of our work we have considered new areas of ministy that are needed in our community which can be done through our association. These areas of ministry include public safety-prison chaplaincy ministry, mall chaplaincy ministry, ministry to ethnics, ministry to foreign language students and their families, and a youth evangelism-discipleship ministry. Along with providing three new work "starters" to work in south Chapel Hill, Leesville Road and Bahama, we see as priority needs the public safety-prison chaplaincy ministry and the mall chaplaincy ministry.

This committee continues to be active at the time of the writing of this report. There is a possibility of further specific recommendations from the committee at the time of the annual meeting. We seek your prayful support as we attempt to lead our association in missions.

Respectfully submitted,

M. Clay Warf, Chairman

REPORT OF THE MUSIC COUNCIL

The Associational Music Council has met periodically throughout the year to provide music for associational meetings, banquets and annual functions. In addition there were joint efforts with the Associational Youth Council to provide seasonal music and fellowship at Christmas for the youth. There was also a spring music rally for the youth.

The purpose of the music ministry in the Yates Baptist Association is first to glorify God in music. It is also to magnify the message of salvation in song. Music in the association should help promote interest in music in each individual church and serve as a true companion to the ministry of the preached Word.

Respectfully submitted,

Mike Threadgill, Director

REPORT OF THE ORDINATION COMMITTEE

REPORT OF THE RESOLUTIONS COMMITTEE

"RESOLVED: That the messengers, visitors and guests of the Yates Association in its Annual Meeting October 26th and 27th express genuine appreciation to the host churches, their pastors, staffs and congregation for the facilities and the splendid fellowship extended to all those in attendance. Further, that all of us express sincere gratitude to all the program personnel and the associational officers for their individual participation and contribution to the program theme, 'Churchmanship'."

REPORT OF THE SENIOR ADULTS

Senior Adults of the Yates Association have experienced another good year of growing in love for God and each other and having wonderful Christian fellowship. Ours is the youngest of the organizations of the association, but one of the most enthusiastic. Attendance has grown to over one hundred at our quarterly meetings. At this time in our lives it is exciting to make new friends and renew acquaintances and to meet with Christian friends from all churches of our association.

The programs for our quarterly meetings (with a covered dish luncheon) have been excellent. In November, Mel Luther, Minister of Music a First Baptist, led in a fun program where there was group participation as well as selected special groups. He closed with a devotional thought. In February, the Rev. and Mrs. Crate Jones of Angier Avenue led in a devotional program using some of the stories from his book "Out of the Crate." In May, the Senior Adult Choir of Calvary Baptist Church of Raleigh presented the musical "Count on Us." In August Mr. Paul Young, husband of a former Durham girl, Betty Ferrell, and professor at our Baptist school in Pheonix, Arizona, presented a movie and discussion of the formation of the Grand Canyon. He teaches geology and leads student expeditions down into the Canyon. This was most interesting as a group had just been out to the Grand Canyon.

Two trips were planned which were opened to Senior Adults for the association. One, led by Robert Goodwin of Bethesda Baptist, was made to Florida in February for a week taking in, among other things, the Black Hills Passion Play at Winter Haven and going out to the Keys with 47 participating. The other, led by Margaret and Floyd Rhodes of First Baptist, was a 16-day western trip to Yellow Stone, Grand Tetons, Grand Canyon, Salt Lake City, St. Louis and many other points of interest with 93 participating. These trips permit people to travel in groups that might not be able to go otherwise.

It is hoped that more churches in our association will participate in the activities of our Senior Adult group, particularly those churches who do not have activities for this fast growing group in our churches. The new year offers many challenges as plans are now being made by our State Director of Aging Ted Williams for a State-wide meeting in Greensboro in the spring and four retreats at Caraway as well as Convention-wide conferences at Ridgecrest and Glorieta.

Senior Adults, won't you join us at our quarterly meetings for great Christian fellowship?

Respectfully submitted,

Mrs. Floyd Rhodes, Jr.,
President

REPORT OF SINGLES OVER 50

"Singles Over 50" continues to grow as this group meets for Christian fellowship, fun and good food. This fellowship meets the first Saturday of each month, and is open to anyone over 50 years of age who has lost a mate by death or divorce, or who is unmarried; visitors and/or new members are always welcome. REPORT OF THE STUDENT WORK COMMITTEE

In the past year the Associational Student Work Committee worked on two major events. First, we organized and sponsored associational involvement in the High School Seniors Retreat led by the Campus Ministries division of the State Convention, February 27-March 1. The committee arranged transportation for the seniors as well as a $5.00 supplement in cost for each student. The results were that over 20 seniors from five churches participated--a dramatic increase from 0 (zero) the previous year.

The committee also sponsored a one day workshop on March 23 on how churches can minister to college students--especially those who have grown up in the church and gone to school. The workshop included a discussion with Bob Phillips of the UNC Baptist Student Union staff and a discussion with several Duke students on various related topics. Several churches took part and returned positive evaluations.

We have also made two inquiries of our churches as to how we can best assist their ministry and we received good, though limited, results. We plan to use this information to guide our planning for the coming year as we continue the programs we've begun and add any which will benefit ministry to college students.

REPORT OF THE SUNDAY SCHOOL

The Associational Sunday School Council, known as the Associational Sunday School Improvement Support Team (Assist), began its work by attending a "Back to Basics Faculty Institute" at Campbell University on January 16, 1981. The Team was taught how to teach the new BASIC SUNDAY SCHOOL books. Five BASIC workshops were held during 1981 in the Yates Association. The host churches were Durham Memorial, Ephesus, Guess Road, Parkwood and Temple. We trained 185 persons from our associational churches in the basics of Sunday School work, including studies for general officers and all age-group leaders.

The ASSIST faculty was trained on February 26 at First Baptist Church in Rocky Mount for our Vacation Bible School Clinics. The Yates Clinics were held at the Grey Stone Baptist Church on the evening of May 18 and morning of May 19, 1981. The clinics were attended by 133 persons from 29 churches.

The annual Pastor/Staff/Sunday School Director Workshop was held at the First Baptist Church on July 27, 1981. This workshop provided specific instruction to over 40 key leaders from 22 churches in basic Sunday School organization and teaching methods in all four age-group divisions.

On September 22, 1981, the Carrboro Baptist Church hosted the Curriculum Workshop which was designed for basic curriculum interpretation and teaching techniques using the October 1981 units for each age group. 61 persons were in attendance, representing 12 churches.

Those who served the association this year as trainers in the various divisions of Sunday School work were:

General Officers:
  Wofford Boyd, Ephesus
  David Moore, Parkwood

Adults:
  Russell Cawthon, Grey Stone
  Bill Brogden, Grey Stone
  Harold Craig, Temple

Youth:
  Pam Bass, Carrboro
  Wally Fowler, Grey Stone
  Judy King, Holloway
  Joyce McKay, Durham Memorial

  Peggy Craig, Temple
  LeaAnn Dunnagan, Angier Ave.
  Bonnie O'Briant, Faith
  Donna Owens, Trinity
  Janet Whitaker, Carrboro

Preschool:
  Irene Bagwell, First
  Darlene Harrill, Holloway St.
  Soundra Middour, Carrboro

If the ASSIST faculty can help you with your Sunday School work in the local churches, they invite you to call upon them. However, through participation of all the churches at the scheduled conferences, the team will be able to serve the association much more effectively.

Let us continue working together through our Sunday Schools to reach people for Christ, teach them His Word, and live the Christian faith in contemporary society.

Respectfully submitted,

David G. Moore, Director

REPORT OF TACMO

The associational Church Media Library Organization met four times during the year. The officers met in September for a planning session.

The first meeting was held on November 1, 1980 at the Durham County Public Library. Kay Taylor conducted a tour of the new library. Fifteen people representing eight churches were in attendance.

On February 7, 1981, the group met at Braggtown Baptist Church with Marie Corn. Ethel Crabtree led a discussion on the use of subject headings. Twelve people from seven churches were present.

The May 2, 1981 meeting was held at Grey Stone Baptist Church with Sue Freeman. The subject headings discussion was continued. Four churches were represented by six people.

The last meeting of the year was on August 1, 1981 at Ridgecrest Baptist Church with Ethel Crabtree. Everyone enjoyed seeing the beautiful new media library. Promotion ideas were shared and discussed by the twleve people in attendance from six churches. The existing officers were reelected for the 1981-82 year.

TACMO's goals for the new year include increasing attendance at the meetings, encouraging churches without libraries to begin one, and promoting the use of appropriate resources to equip Christians for witness and missions.

Respectfully submitted,

Clara J. Crabtree, President

REPORT OF WOMAN'S MISSIONARY UNION

Associational WMU began the 1980-81 year with continued emphasis on the theme Life Changing Commitments stressing that we answer, "Me, Lord?" as we serve in mission leadership positions.

Beginning October, 1980, emphasis was centered upon enlargement; and increase in churches having WMU organizations, starting new age-level organizations in churches with established WMU programs and increased membership in existing age-level organizations. Our Associational WMU saw an increase of 86 new members in the first month of the church year, started one new BYW, one new Mission Friends, one Acteens, reorganization of one GA and one Acteens, and have the potentials for starting several others. At Annual planning for the coming year the WMU Council set goals for reaching and establishing, where needed, new age-level organizations in churches that do not have all five age-levels of WMU work.

Last December the WMU's from the churches again were involved in the statewide Central Prison Ministry by providing homemade cookies and gave money to help furnish bedspreads and towels for the women's dorms. WMU helped provide staple goods for the Associational food pantry and made visits to Murdoch Center.

The Annual Meeting was a highlight of the year having an attendance of 300 members, leaders, officers, and guest representing forty-one of the forty-eight churches. Rachel James, Missionary and Nancy Curtis, Executive Director of WMU, N. C., were speakers for this event. They challenged us to take our lives and let them be used in carrying out the mission task of WMU to teach missions, support missions and to become involved in mission action and personal witnessing. The Baptist Women's Day of Prayer was attended by 91 women and men of the Yates Association and the General Baptist Convention. This was a very inspirational time of prayer and fellowship sponsored to promote missions among white and black Christians with the offering being sent to support mission efforts sponsored by each group.

Nine Associational officers attended WMU workshop at Tarboro and five attended WMU week at Ridgecrest to equip them to lead in training the local church WMU leaders at leadership conference on September 14, 1981. Through training and equipping WMU leaders we can promote the mission work of our association through WMU. The potential for growth, both spiritually and in membership is unlimited. Pray that we will seek to become pacesetters in missions education in North Carolina.

We, the Associational WMU council need your prayers and support by your attendance at Associational events if we are to become an effective mission organization. Pray as we answer, "ME, LORD?" that we will be willing to say, "Here am I, Send Me."

Respectfully submitted,

Dorothy Hicks, WMU Director

REPORT OF THE YOUTH COMMITTEE

The Lord has blessed us greatly in the Youth division this year. This has been a year of foundation building for the Youth Committee. Over the year we have tried to find the resources available to us here in the Association. There are many talented people and groups.

During the year we had several events, the most successful of which was a youth rally in March with Lamar Slay. Over twenty churches participated at Cresset Church, about 350 youth came. In April, we had a Jr. High Retreat, an event we hope to build over the years. Mt. Moriah hosted another youth rally in July. In August, Five Trailways buses were provided to transport youth to the Youth Evangelism Conference in Greensboro. An excellent time was had by all and there were many decisions made that evening.

In addition to the events the Association helped to send some high school seniors to the retreat for them last fall.

It is the hope of this committee that we can involve more churches in what we do. We feel a special need to help the smaller churches, but it seems they feel too small to become involved. Please, even if you have only one youth, allow us to be of help to your church.

To help in the decision making process and the carrying out of our plans we have started an Associational Youth Council. Each church is allowed equal representation (2 youth, 1 adult). It is our hope that this council will expand to include all the churches. David Pate, a member of Durham Memorial and a senior at Southern High School, is the president of this council for the coming year.

Allow us to help your church this year. If you have resources plug them into some of our programs so that all may benefit. We want to build up the church of Jesus Christ. Our work is to help you. Thank you for that opportunity.

Respectfully submitted,

Fulton Hartzog, Chairman

HISTORY OF MOUNT GILEAD BAPTIST CHURCH

Late in the year, 1824, eight members were granted letters from Mt. Carmel to begin an arm at Hackney's Cross Roads to be called Mt. Gilead.

The first meeting was held on February 9, 1824, with Elder William Farthing "assisting the brethren." At that time, eleven additional members were added by letters and "by experience" bringing the number of charter members to nineteen.

Allen Kirby was appointed first clerk with Isaac Kirby his assistant. They were to write the Rules of Decorum which were to be read at each business meeting. These meetings were held on Saturday before the fourth Sunday with preaching the next day.

In June the church was constituted, Isaac Kirby was ordained and called to be the first pastor. Allen Temple, Willie Kirby, and Mark Bynum were elected to serve as deacons.

The church was a member of the historic Sandy Creek Association. On October 23, 1824, membership had grown to 34.

Traditionally the church was located on land belonging to Joseph Hackney, a veteran of the Revolutionary War. The first mention of any building is found in minutes of 1830 when "plans were made to build a shed to the Meeting House." In January of 1837, "Brother Henry Merritt and Bro. George W. Purefoy attended services and the pastor being absent preached the first sermon in the new Meeting House." In January of 1877, it was voted to "plank up the church." This building was near the present location and was used until 1883 when the congregation moved into the present building.

The church was the only influence for good in the community and members were expected to abide by a strict moral code. They would be brought before church during the Saturday conference for profanity, immoral conduct, gossip, dancing, and many other charges. Drinking or selling ardent spirits was frowned upon and sure to bring a reprimand. Members would solve their differences, accept apologies, and all would end in "unison and love." Members were required to attend the services and could be excommunicated if they missed three meetings. At one time a vigilante committee was appointed to see absentees and collect assessments.

From minutes of August, 1829: "After preaching Sunday, communion table was spread, brother and sister partook of bread and wine. That evening Brother Kirby preached by candlelight and the members washed one anothers feet agreeable to a scriptual command."

Many protracted meetings were held. "The Lord blest His people, the church was revived, sinners converted and mourners convicted." Baptisms were held at Bynum Ferry, Haw River, Henley's Bridge. Later a pool was made below a spring on the church property.

First mention of salary for ministers was in October of 1849. "Bro. Lineberry was to receive $75.00 for 1850." In 1870 they called John Wilson for $80.00. They had difficulty collecting this sum and had to borrow to pay him in full.

First mention of Sunday School is found in minutes of April, 1848. "On motion of Bro. Williams this church agreed to form a sabbath school and also to have regular prayer meeting." Minutes of 1866: "It was agreed that we commence a sabbath school next Sunday." In 1885 the first superintendent is named, first staff is shown in 1887.

The only reference to the Civil War is made when two offerings amounting to $35.00 were taken for Army Colportage. October, 1862: "The Saturday business conference was not held in December due to regimental muster." There are no minutes for 1865.

Many blacks were members of the church, coming on profession of faith and being baptized. They were also brought before the church for immoral behavior. After the Civil War a meeting was called to help them build a Meeting House and constituting them into a church. In 1868 the blacks were granted letters to form the Haw River Baptist Church. (From the history of Haw River we learn that E. H. Cole and C. L. Hackney (slaves) were ordained in the Mt. Gilead Church by George W. Purefoy. The became the first pastors of the Haw River and Mt. Zion Churches and were leaders in beginning the New Hope Baptist Association).

In 1882 plans were made to build the present sanctuary which was completed August, 1883. On motion the following were invited to the first meeting to be held on the fifth Sunday in September: Columbus Durham to preach the sermon, C. T. Bailey (editor of the Biblical Recorder), John E. Ray (General Secretary), J. D. Broughton (Recording Secretary). "The new house of worship was completed the fourth day of September 1883 and was dedicated on the fifth Sunday of same month. The Rev. C. Durham preached the dedication sermon from Ephesians 5th Chapter and 27 Verse. A large congregation of anxious hearers being in attendance.

The W.M.U. was organized May, 1892 with 12 members. The object was "by prayer and contributions to aid in giving the gospel to the destitute and heathen lands."

Upon the retirement of R. R. Gordon in 1948, it was decided to call one of the students from Southeastern Seminary. This began a new day with preachevery Sunday. A parsonage was build in 1955.

Many improvement have been made in recent years including the addition of Sunday School rooms, baptistry restrooms, remodeling the main sanctuary and adding a choir loft. Stained glass windows were given as memorials.

In 1974 the educational building was completed with the note burning ceremony held in December of 1976.

The number of men who have been ordained by this church is unknown. Isaac Kirby is the only one named. From other sources we have the following: T. Y. Seymour, Richard Clark, Roy Morris and the two slaves mentioned above.

Keithen Tucker, graduate of Southeastern Seminary has been pastor for almost two years. It is hoped that under his leadership this church will continue to grow. The present membership is 288.

Mt. Gilead is most fortunate to have all of its records dating back to that first meeting, February 9, 1824.

HISTORY OF MOUNT MORIAH BAPTIST CHURCH

The Baptist Church of Christ at Mount Moriah, Orange County, North Carolina, which was constituted by Elders William Farthing and James Fairhill on the 4th day of March, 1823, in compliance to an appointment of the Flat River Association--so begins the history of Mt. Moriah Missionary Baptist Church.

Evidence has recently been found that the first services of the Church were conducted by a Methodist Circuit Rider Preacher who came through the area one or two times a year. The other services were conducted by laymen who were called Elders. The congregation met at the home of a member until the first building, consisting of one room was built in 1833. The two acres of land for the church were donated by Robert D. Patterson, but the deed for the property was not received until 1880.

The first constitution was adopted in April 1823. Every male member who failed to attend more than one conference was considered disorderly, and was dealt with as the church thought proper.

The first regular pastor, T. D. Armstrong, was called, December 5, 1832. As one reads the early records, he soon realized the Elders conducted as many trials to hold the members in line, as they held services to preach the gospel.

The budget 1833-1835 was $10.35. The 1980 budget which is the largest in the history of the church exceeds $77,000.

Mt. Moriah has been an intergrated church from its beginning. In 1855, the membership consisted of 35 white men, 43 white women, 24 black men, and 38 black women. In 1856, a black man, Tom Couch, was elected and ordained a deacon. As the black members increased, they asked for and received permission to organize a separate church. With this move the Mt. Sinai Baptist Church was organized in 1870.

A building program was begun in 1882 for the purpose of constructing a new place of worship. The contract was signed in 1902, and the second place of worship was completed June 1903, at the cost of $1,532.72.

Mt. Moriah has ordained and licensed five men to preach the gospel. They were Nash Cheek, Thomas Carroll, Charles E. Maddry, Garland Pendergraft, and Boyce Creamer. Michael Tripp has dedicated his life to full-time Christian service and will enter Bryan College this fall to prepare for this work.

The Mt. Zion Association was organized at Mt. Moriah, May 1870. The church remained in this Association until the Yates Association was organized in 1948.

The church began a third building fund, April 1954, under the leadership of Rev. Leo Bridges. The ground breaking ceremony for the building program was held January 24, 1960. The majority of the education building was erected with free labor and upon completion was debt free. The approximate cost was $37,000.

Rev. and Mrs. Billy Burton and family were the first to live in the church parsonage. It was built on land donated for that prupose by Mr. & Mrs. W. R. Dezern. L. L. Dowdy was the contractor, and the cost was $21,196.91.

The parsonage and education building was dedicated, June 28, 1954. The parsonage mortgage was burned, December 13, 1964.

The construction of the sanctuary began with the tearing down of the old building, October 5, 1964. The sanctuary was built by Charlie R. Parker at the cost of $98,746.00. The first service was held in the new building, October 13, 1965.

On homecoming, October 10, 1978, Rev. Billy Burton, Rev. Ben Berry, and Rev. Harold Burton conducted the Bond Burning service signifying that we were once again debt free. The sanctuary debt had been paid one year ahead of schedule.

1980-81 has been a time of much progress. A few of the highlights are: a tape ministry was begun for our homebound; a new sound system has been installed; two youth choral groups organized; a 1980 van purchased; the sanctuary recarpeted; and a new singles Sunday School Class started. The membership has increased beyond the 400 mark, making it necessary to elect additional deacons. 1980 was the first year that the deacons were elected from a list of all male members age 21 or older.

Constitution

Revised 1981

Article I. NAME

This body shall be known as the Yates Baptist Association of North Carolina.

Article II. PURPOSE

The purpose of this Association shall be to provide a convenient and orderly means for the extension of the ministry of the cooperating Baptist Churches in Durham County and adjacent territories which support the programs of the Baptist State Convention and the Southern Baptist Convention.

Article III. ARTICLES OF FAITH

The confession of faith of this Association shall be the "Baptist Faith and Message" with its five-point statement of the historic Baptist conception of the nature and function of confessions of faith in our religious and denominational life as adopted by the Southern Baptist Convention in 1963 at Kansas City.

(Five-Point Statement from "The Baptist Faith and Message")

(1) That they constitute a concensus of opinion of some Baptist body, large or small, for the general instruction and guidance of our own people and others concerning those articles of the Christian faith which are most surely held among us. They are not intended to add anything to the simple conditions of the salvation revealed in the New Testament, viz, repentance towards God and faith in Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord.

(2) That we do not regard them as complete statements of our faith, having any quality of finality of infallibility. As in the past so in the future Baptists should hold themselves free to revise their statements of faith as may seem to them wise and expedient at any time.

(3) That any group of Baptists, large or small, have the inherent right to draw up for themselves and publish to the world a confession of their faith whenever they may think it advisable to do so.

(4) That the sole authority for faith and practice among Baptists is the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments. Confessions are only guides in interpretation, having no authority over the conscience.

(5) That they are statements of religious convictions, drawn from the Scriptures, and are not to be used to hamper freedom of thought or investigation in other realms of life.

Article IV. MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. This Association in session shall be composed of duly elected messengers from cooperating Baptist churches in Durham County and adjacent territories and the regular elected offices of the Association and members of the Associational Board which are in agreement with the purpose as stated in Article II. When not in session this Association shall be comprised of its member churches which shall elect members to the Associational Board in Accordance to Article X.

Section 2. Each church shall be represented at the annual meeting of the Association and at any special meeting during the year by messengers who shall be duly certified in the following ratio:

(1) Three for the first hundred members or fraction thereof, and one for each additional hundred or fraction thereof, provided that the total number of messengers shall not exceed ten.

(2) All pastors of churches of the Association shall be recognized as messengers, in addition to those specified above.

Section 3. Only individuals who are baptized (immersed) believers and members of churches of this Association shall be seated as voting messengers at any Associational meeting.

Section 4. Churches seeking to seat messengers in the Association shall apply to the Missions Committee prior to the annual meeting of the Association, giving evidence of their faith and order and their agreement to be received under watchcare of the Association. Upon recommendation of the committee and the approval of the Association by a two-thirds majority of the members present and voting, the church or churches shall be received under the watchcare of the Association for a period of one year. It is understood that during the period of watchcare of the Association such churches will be accorded all the services of the Association and all its priviliges with the exception of the right to seat voting messengers and to voting representation on the Associational Board. THE MINISTRY OF THE YATES BAPTIST ASSOCIATION 1982

Garland A. Hendricks, October 25, 1982

The Constitution of our Association says, "The purpose of this Association shall be to provide a convenient and orderly means for the extension of the ministry of the cooperating Baptist churches. . ."

In his second letter to Timothy, Paul said, "God hath not given us the spirit of fear, but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind." (1:7).

We are told in I Corinthians 3:9, "We are laborers together with God. . ." This is true of members who work together in a local church. It is also true that a group of churches can work "together with God" to do worthwhile ministries on a broad scale.

Forty-nine member churches and one watchcare church are working together in Durham and two adjacent counties to advance God's Kingdom.

What was life like in this area when the Yates Association was formed thirty-four years ago?

Durham was widely known as a tobacco manufacturing center, Duke University and the University of North Carolina were recognized as outstanding centers of learning, but both were small. Agriculture was a major factor in our economy. A rural mindset permeated all that we did. We were entering the age of air travel. The downtown churches were the prestigious growth churches. People with the wildest imagination had never thought about anything like our present Research Triangle.

Now, everything has undergone radical change. Let's consider a few of these changes which will affect the future of our Association:

1. Worthwhile humanitarian causes such as civic and professional organizations command more and more of the time, talents, energy, and money of our people. They compete with the churches.
2. Anti-religious forces are generating hostility to religion and churches.
3. Non-Christian religions are winning converts in this area.
4. Our people, once independent of the outside world, are now interdependent with the whole world.
5. Communications media now keep everybody informed about what is happening throughout the world every hour on the hour.
6. Fewer and fewer people make the decisions which affect the lives of all of us.
7. The University of North Carolina, with 23,000 students this fall, is a symbol of how education is a reality for almost everyone.
8. The tempo of life has changed from that of the slow automobile to that of the jet airplane.
9. People have fled from the inner city and the far out rural community to the suburbs and the rural-urban fringe.
10. The paradox of American food surplus while millions of people in Asia and Africa starve to death creates a frightening agenda for international relations in the decades immediately ahead of us.

Where are we in 1982?

Since August 1, I have spent more than 350 hours on the job as your Interim Director of Missions. I have talked with many of our responsible leaders. Several impressions are clear to me.

Impression 1. Different opinions are expressed about ministries of the Association.

(1) Training for Sunday School and church growth is basic to all else. There is evidence of a real desire to revitalize our Sunday Schools, re-establish Church Training, strengthen the Baptist Women's work, and activate more Baptist men and boys.

(2) Evangelism must be emphasized. I believe that evangelism is the dynamics, the motivating power, and the sustaining strength of a church or an association of churches. But I find a strong opinion that some of our evangelistic practices are so "birth only" oriented that the churches have failed to nuture the new babes in Christ so that they become mature Christian adults. Too many church members do little more than cry when they are sad or frustrated, giggle iresponsibily when they are pleased, object to progress if it involves money or effort, attack any leader who proposes a new idea or program which might help. We are searching for a birth-growth evangelism which will produce mature adult Christians who can make wise decisions and let everyday life be their witness to a lost world.

(2) Many years ago we were famous for starting new churches. Then we stopped dead in our tracks. Now there is a new concern about planting new churches wherever there is evidence that they are needed. Joint sponsorship by the Association and a parent church, assisted by nearby churches appears to be an acceptable approach.

(4) I have discovered a strong desire on the part of our ministers for creative activities in the pastors' conference which will motivate and strengthen our leaders for new heights of achievement.

(5) The feasibility study regarding the establishment of care for the elderly has generated a cautious optimism on the part of many people. The optimism can become the dream which could produce one of our finest ministries, and the caution expressed by almost everyone could bring about a disciplined management to guarantee success of such a venture.

(6) There is broad approval of our camp ministry with a strong feeling that we should develop more facilities there, and then create a planned program of activities so that all of our churches might benefit.

(7) I get the impression that we have a good overall committee structure, but a very candid feeling that much of what we show on paper is now in limbo, and that we are doing very little. The word I hear is, "Let's get going."

Impression 2. How can the Association help the churches?

If it cannot help the churches for whom it exists, then we cannot justify the continuation of the Association. What are we to do?

(1) Train leaders for the churches.
(2) Provide resources from all of our Baptist agencies.
(3) Keep our churches informed about what is going on.
(4) Help each local church keep aware of its purpose and its direction and destination.
(5) Provide for pastors and staff workers meaningful fellowship and continuing education.
(6) Help all of the churches with a vital birth-growth kind of evangelism.

Impression 3. A competent Director of Missions is in a position to help the ministers, lay leaders and congregations. What should his priorities be?

(1) Interpret the Association to the churches.
(2) Visit the churches and know their leaders.
(3) Establish and maintain integrity for the Association.
(4) Encourage the ministers and churches.
(5) Be an authentic person for the churches to look to for help.
(6) Point the churches to available resources.
(7) Be a pastor to the ministers, helping them at points of morale and continuing education.

(8) Help the churches examine themselves, discover their resources, and plan for the future.
(9) Listen with compassion, react with integrity, and treat a confidence as a sacred trust.

Impression 4. Pastors and staff workers have special needs today.

(1) They need encouragement. A minister carries a heavy emotional load. Burn-out is real. Morale gets low. There must be a source for refreshment and renewal.
(2) We need unity of purpose and coordination of effort. We allow differences of opinion to draw us away from God's purpose and God's mission for the Association.
(3) We need a Director who has stature, is wise with a balanced combination of knowledge and common sense, and is supportive of every minister and every church.
(4) We need continuing education with competent teachers and discussion leaders.
(5) We need creative helps for our churches whose destiny is cast with radical socio-economic change.

Impression 5. What should we do about our camp?

(1) Create a plan for year-round activities, properly scheduled and coordinated, and designed to help all churches.
(2) Maintain competent management for care of properties, facilities, scheduling and activities.
(3) Begin immediately a long range plan for development by using the money we have in hand, then raise money as we go for further expansion.

Impression 6. What can each local church do to strengthen the Association?

(1) Provide key leaders for our programs and ministries.
(2) Provide financial support.
(3) Get the congregation to participate in associational activities.
(4) Study and try to understand what the Association is and does.

Impression 7. What priorities should the Association assume?

(1) Call a competent Director, then help him do the job.
(2) Establish integrity and keep everything open and above board all the time.
(3) Agree on a clear purpose for the Association, find a sense of direction, establish goals, and work together.
(4) Help each church practice a birth-growth evangelism which will call persons to Christ, then teach them how to live responsibly for Christ.
(5) Place a strong emphasis upon the proper kind of growth and development for each type of church—in the declining population areas of the inner city and far out rural community, in the fast growing suburbs and rural-urban fringe. Growth does not always mean becoming bigger but it does always mean becoming more mature and better.
(6) When we have a meeting for any prupose make it interesting and meaningful by securing competent leaders and structuring the program for maximum participation.
(7) Give serious attention at all times to pastor-deacon-staff-congregation relations, so that we may keep strife at a minimum and build everything on integrity and unity of purpose in our churches.

Impression 8. What social services ministries should we sponsor?

Obviously, we have no right to exist unless we can help churches meet viable needs of people in the area, especially spiritual needs, but also certain other needs. How are we to be redemptive through special services?

(1) Know what needs are being met by agencies of the city, county, state, federal and philanthropic agencies within the bounds of our Association. Then, decide how we can best coordinate our work with what is already being done through agencies which already exist.
(2) Decide what specific areas of need outside these areas we can best minister to as a group of churches working together under the Lordship of Christ and the leadership of The Holy Spirit.
(3) Accept and clarify objectives and decide how we will sponsor what we believe to be valid social service ministries.
(4) Select leadership, through committees or specially qualified persons, to carry out these ministries. It is my opinion that we should do as much of this as possible through volunteer committed lay people who have special gifts and who want to serve the Lord by using these talents in worthwhile ventures such as we can sponsor.

Impression 9. When a minister leaves a church, for whatever reason, what might the Association do to help the church find new leadership?

This is a super-sensitive matter in Baptist churches. The opinions which I hear expressed say to me: offer to help train a search committee; if they request help concerning persons, give information about available persons without prejudice for or against any one; offer to help teach the congregation what the proper relationship is between a church and its minister; and offer to help find a responsible interim leader. In all cases, the Association, through its Director, should strive to be helpful without meddling.

Impression 10. What should the Association do to help a minister relocate?

(1) Try to help before the fact where there are no problems.
(2) Listen and understand the concerns of the ministers.
(3) Always work within the bounds of integrity.
(4) When it is wise to do so, help the minister make contacts where there is opportunity.

If I am reading the mind and the mood of our leaders correctly, we are in a position to become one of the most dynamic, redemptive associations anywhere. If we are to strive for such a position, I suggest that we consider four requirements.

Requirement 1. A clear understanding about our purpose. We are in the process of doing that now. We must continue until we articulate what we believe God wants us to do, then create a way to do it.

Requirement 2. An honest appraisal of our working resources and how they can best be used. We have people with God-given talents and personalities for doing anything which is humanly possible. Look at them: educated, skilled, refined, financially secure, dedicated to the Lord. If we commit ourselves to be true "laborers together with God" and use all of these assets for the glory of God, there is no limit to what we can do.

Requirement 3. A Director of Missions and an office staff who have the right combination of brains, professional skills, understanding of God and churches, complete integrity, and a deep love and compassion for people. The present staff workers possess these qualifications. And our search committee is searching for such a director.

Requirement 4. A divine consciousness on the part of all of us that Christ is the head of the Association as He is the head of a local church; that the Holy Spirit is our ever-present guide and inspiration; and that whatever we sponsor is attuned to the purpose of God. We want to do God's will in developing and using our camp; in deciding what to do about a retirement facility; in social service ministries to juveniles, illiterates, criminals, alcoholics, drug addicts, singles and others who need the redemptive help of Christians. Evangelism which helps Christians mature after they are saved is a must. Wherever there is a need for a church we should plant one.

Just as an individual church experiences periods of growth and decline, disappointment and glorious success, pause and full speed ahead, an Association of churches goes through the same natural processes.

I believe the Yates Association is now on the threshold of a tremendous bursting forth into a new era of exciting ministry: forty-nine member churches and one watch-care church working together under the Lordship of Christ, and the leadership of The Holy Spirit to demonstrate to the world that "God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind".

For thirty-four years we have wasted too much of God's precious time and our talents and resources in internal strife over controversial issues—in the 1950's it was the King James Version of the Bible; in the 1960's it was baptism; more recently it has been theological outlook and leadership. It is past time for us to repent, take a realistic view of the socio-economic dynamics of the Research Triangle area, dedicate our minds, hearts, talents and money to the salvation of souls and the nurturing of spiritual babies into Christian manhood and womanhood. Let's get off our sidetracks of personal prejudices and onto the main line of God's purpose. He has a ministry for us to do.

REPORT OF THE ASSOCIATIONAL BOARD

The Associational Board consists of the General Officers, the Pastors and two lay persons from each church, and certain committee chairpersons. This Board is given the responsibility of acting on behalf of the Association in the interim between the annual sessions. While four dates are scheduled on the associational calendar, it is not essential that all these be held. This year we had three meetings: February 16 at Grey Stone, May 18 at Bethesda, and July 13 at Grace.

Several significant things were done in these meetings and the following is a partial report. (However, if you wish to know in more detail the happenings in these sessions, a complete record is kept on file in the Associational Office.)

(1) In each session some emphasis was placed on the Metro Area Enrollment Training Clinic to be held April 16-24, 1983. Approximately 22 churches have signed up to participate and more will be said during this Annual Meeting.

2. The resignation of our Director of Missions was presented and accepted in the February meeting effective March 1, 1982 with salary and benefits being continued through July 31. Dr. Armstrong is working with the West Virginia Convention.
3. The 1982 revised budget based on the pledges of the member churches was adopted.
4. An affirmative vote was given to a recommendation by the Executive Committee to sell the 4.61 acres on Garrett Road which is owned by the Association. An offer to purchase this property for $23,000 came from the Church of Christ of Durham-Chapel Hill and was contingent upon a favorable soil analysis report. However, the sale could not be completed because this favorable soil analysis was not forthcoming.
5. In a meeting of the Executive Committee following Dr. Armstrong's resignation a decision was made that the Moderator should appoint two Search Committees. One was for the purpose of securing an Interim Director of Missions and three persons, Travis Clements, Ernest Ferrell and Frank Zedick were appointed to serve on this committee in the May meeting. In the July meeting, this committee, with the unanimous support of the Executive Committee, presented the name of Dr. Garland Hendricks as an Interim. He was called without opposition.

   The second Search Committee to be appointed was for the purpose of seeking a successor to Dr. Armstrong. That committee was announced in the July meeting and they are presently working. The committee consists of Charles Harris-Chairman, Judy Burhans, Ronald Cumbie, Harold Craig, Judi Kelly, Ed Couch and James West.

6. In each Board Meeting updates were given on the progress of the Retirement Home Feasibility Study Committee. However, in the July 13, meeting two resolutions were presented and adopted and they are as follows:
   1. That the Yates Baptist Association develop a Baptist Retirement Home whenever the Association feels such development to be financially feasible, and accept with gratitude the generous gift of 8 acres of land adjacent to Chapel Hill Road and University Drive by the heirs of Myra McMannen Pickett and husband O.H. Pickett in honor of their parents and to be used as the site for a Baptist Retirement Village.
   2. That the Executive Committee be instructed to act as necessary to effect the gift from the Pickett heirs, and to formulate an agency of the Association to develop a retirement home program consistent with policies and guidelines of the Association, with its duties to include solicitation and receiving all such gifts as well as developing programs of financing, planning, constructing, and managing a retirement village.

Gerald C Goodwin, Moderator

REPORT OF THE SUNDAY SCHOOL

The 1981-82 Sunday School year was highlighted by four major events: Guide Book Study, VBS Clinic, Pastor-Staff-Sunday School Director Workshop, and Sunday School Leaderhip Night.

The newly released "How to Guide. . ." series of church study course books was taught in twelve different age group conferences in identical sessions on March 1 and 2, 1982, at Yates Baptist Church. 136 people representing 18 associational churches were trained in the 2½ hour sessions. Though most conferees had Sunday School leadership responsibilities, some others represented Church Training, Church Music, and the mission organizations as well. Janet Whitaker chaired the committee that planned and implemented this workshop.

Yates Association sponsored two VBS clinics in 1982. Both were at Faith Baptist Church, 7:00-9:00 p.m., April 19, and 9:30-11:30 a.m., April 20. Total attendance at both clinics was 76 with 16 churches represented. Darlene Harrill was the Associational VBS Director.

The annual Pastor-Staff-Sunday School Director Workshop was held at the Grey Stone Baptist Church on May 17, 1982. Following the evening meal, Rev. Horace Jackson, Pastor of the Sunset Baptist Church, Wilmington, N.C., challenged pastors, staff, and Sunday School Directors to take the leading roles in striving for Sunday School growth in their churches. The meeting was well attended with a good number of pastors and Sunday School Directors in attendance. Wally Fowler was in charge of the workshop.

On September 14, 1982, the Temple Baptist Church hosted the Sunday School Leadership Night for the Association. The training was designed to give basic curriculum interpretation and teaching techniques using the October 1982 units for each age group. This event was well attended by Sunday School workers from our churches. Harold Craig led in the planning and implementation of this event.

We are continuing plans for the Raleigh-Durham Sunday School Enrollment/Training Clinic to be held April 16-24, 1983. As of this report. 23 of our churches have committed to participate in this significant Sunday School growth adventure. This effort is one of ten metro area clinics to be held in the United States from 1983 through 1985. It is part of a serious effort to put meaning into the 8.5 by '85 emphasis of Bold Mission Thrust. The Raleigh-Durham Clinic is a cooperative effort between the Baptist Sunday School Board, the State Convention of North Carolina, and the Raleigh and Yates Associations.

We look forward to a great year of reaching people for Christ and teaching them His Word.

Your ASSIST faculty stands ready to help in the Sunday School work of our churches. If they can be of help, please call upon them.

I express appreciation to all of you for your support during my two years as Associational Sunday School Director. Hopefully, we have begun a journey into Sunday School growth that will continue long into the future.

David G. Moore, Director

REPORT OF CHURCH TRAINING

Church Training is the organization assigned the task of helping church members, new church members, and church leaders (also potential leaders) grow in their Christian discipleship. The Church Training program does not compete with other church programs, but when properly administered, enhances the total work of the church.

The Church Training Program has responsibility for teaching in five major content areas. These are: Christian Doctrine, Christian Ethics, Christian History, Church Polity and Organization, and skill development (in performing the function of the New Testament church)..

During this past year Church Training in the Association:

Nannie Mae Herndon, Director

REPORT OF WOMAN'S MISSIONARY UNION

The 1981-82 year began with continued emphasis on "Life-Changing Commitments" as we stressed the need for women, girls, and preschoolers to become involved in mission study, mission giving, mission action and personal witnessing.

Many of our churches have enlarged the W.M.U. programs of their church by starting new age-level organizations. There are some encouraging signs from those churches without W.M.U. programs. We encourage them to seek assistance from the Associationional Council if help is needed to train leaders. Congratulations to the Acteens from Cresset Church for their write-up in the September issue of Accent magazine for their Home Mission Study, Neon Rainbows.

The Associational W.M.U. Leadership Conference held, September 14, 1981, was attended by 100 leaders and officers from 31 churches. As we plan for training for the new year, pray that more leaders will be committed to train and lead in missions.

April 20, 1982 at the Annual W.M.U. meeting, Sara Ann Hobbs and Betty Gilreath challenged women in our Association to seek ways to become involved in missions. Approximately 250 women and guest attended, representing 40 churches. There are many opportunities for women to have careers in mission service.

Some of the areas for mission action involvement have been sharing in the Christmas ministry to the women in Central Prison. Also our churches help supply staple foods for the Associational food pantry. Some church groups have helped in the worship service at Murdoch Center, others adopted the A.C. Dillion School for boys, many are helping in ministry at rest homes, and fifth Sunday ministry for residents at Murdoch Center. Many more are involved in personal ministry. Mission action is a vital part of every organization of W.M.U.

1982-83 emphasis, "Life Changing Accountability", calls each of us as women to take to our commitment seriously and be faithful to each task we assume as we follow God's leadership. Pray that as we follow Christ's command in Matthew 28:19-20 to, "Go ye therefore and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit," we will seek places of service. May God richly bless each effort of every W.M.U. leader in our churches.

Respectfully submitted,
Dot Hicks, Director

REPORT OF THE BROTHERHOOD

The men and boys of our Association have been active this year. Some of our churches have begun new units and others have revitalized existing units of Baptist Men and Royal Ambassadors.

The Royal Ambassadors enjoyed another good year competing in the Associational R.A. Track Meet held at Southern High School. There was an excellent representation of our churches at this event. Our October Crusader Car Competition and Mission Fair always proves to be an exciting event. Both of these events have become annual events due to the tremendous interest and participation.

The Brotherhood annual planning meeting was well attended this past May and great plans were made for happenings in 1983 that would continue to encourage men and boys' involvement and growth.

Many of our Baptist Men put their faith to work this year through mission involvement in homeland and overseas mission projects, through prison ministries, lay witness evangelism, West Virginia construction projects, and several other areas opened to them by our Lord.

Through prayer, trust and claiming the promises of God much can happen in lives of men and boys and the churches they represent.

I hope all will prayerfully consider faithful stewardship of your own God-given talents during 1983.

Respectfully submitted,
J. Edwin Couch, Brotherhood Director
Bryce Bates, R.A. Director

REPORT OF LAUBACH

The Laubach Literacy Program continues to be very prominent in the Durham area. We are the only organization that is actively engaged in alleviating the literacy problem among adults. Three workshops were held last year training 19 persons to work as volunteers. We have 20 persons who are actively engaged in tutoring at the present time. A workshop is being planned for November and another in the spring. Also, we are planning a workshop with the Durham County Continuing Education Program for the spring semester. It is hoped that we will have a feature article in the Durham Morning Herald in the near future. We do solicit your prayers and support as we continue to further the work of His Kingdom through this ministry.

Respectfully submitted,
Mary Whaley, Director

REPORT OF THE CAMP COMMITTEE

Our camp has been used by a number of our churches during the year. Several have used the facilities for youth retreats, deacon retreats, marriage enrichment seminars and other similar programs.

The Camp Committee recognizes the need for some improvements to the camp buildings and grounds. Our plans are to bring a recommendation in the early part of next year for the necessary improvements to our camp which would make it more usable for all of our churches.

We trust that the improvements made will enhance the usefulness and will be an encouragement for others to use the facilities.

Respectfully submitted,
Ernest H. Ferrell, Chairman

REPORT OF THE COMMUNITY MINISTRIES COMMITTEE

The Community Ministries Committee has little to report in the area of ministering to community needs with the exception of the use of the food pantry by several pastors. We have done very little toward reaching needs. We are going to try to broaden our ministry this year, however.

We are seeking to expand our ministry in the areas of special needs, such as heat, lights, medicine, etc. . . in 1982-1983.

We also wish to stock your pantry with a better variety of foodstuffs. Thank you churches for replenishing the pantry. We encourage you to try and give us more canned meats. We are always short on this item.

Respectfully submitted,
Tobie Stone, Jr., Chairman

REPORT OF THE EVANGELISM COMMITTEE

Your Evangelism Committee led in conducting the Simultaneous Crusade last spring from April 4 - April 11. Thirty-seven churches participated in "Here's Hope" with these numerical results: 31,518 in attendance; 105 professions of faith; 30 baptized; 1127 rededications. Breakfast meetings were held during the Crusade at Grey Stone Church with the visiting evangelists, both music and preaching, sharing their faith. A luncheon was held at the First Baptist Church so that our laymen could share in some of the daytime worship opportunities.

Plans are now underway to have Dr. Waylon Moore visit our Association the week after Thanksgiving 1982. Dr. Moore has traveled the world over sharing what God has taught him. He is strong in the area of discipleship and personal relationships.

May we of the Yates Baptist Association obey the command of our Lord as individuals and as a group to GO - TEACH - BAPTIZE - and disciple until He comes back for His own.

Respectfully submitted,
Robert D. Weatherly, Chairman

REPORT OF TACMO

The Associational Church Media Library Organization met four times during the year. The officers met in September for a planning session.

The first meeting was held on November 7, 1981 at Grace Baptist Church with Eleanor Hobgood. The speaker was Linda Chandler, who discussed publishing with Broadman Press. She autographed copies of her books at the conclusion of the program. Fifteen people representing seven churches were in attendance.

On February 6, 1982 the meeting was at Park View Baptist Church with Audrey Harrell. Assembly line processing was discussed by Janie Clements. She demonstrated each step in processing a book. Eighteen people from ten churches were present.

The May 1, 1982 meeting was held at Durham Memorial Baptist Church with Shirley Brame. Ethel Crabtree explained how to classify books. Eight churches were represented by fourteen people.

The last meeting of the year was on August 7, 1982 at Bethesda Baptist Church with Eloys Lilly. The program topic was on suggestions for reorganizing a library. Nine people from six churches were present. The officers were re-elected to serve during the 1982-83 year.

TACMO's goals are to promote the use of appropriate resources to equip Christians for witness and mission, to encourage all of the churches to provide library services, and to continue building the collection in the Yates Association Library.

Respectfully submitted,
Clara J. Crabtree, President

The Association:

REPORT OF THE MUSIC COUNCIL

The Music Council began its work in late summer after a couple of years of inactivity. The Council began making plans for this fall and next year. The projects planned were the result of a mail survey from pastors and music persons in the churches of our Association.

The most pressing need for many of our churches was in the area of children's choirs workers training. The Council planned a workshop at Yates Baptist Church, September 27 and 28 for workers of children's choirs. The workshop was led by three State Approved Workers: Mr. Don Bearfield, Older Children, Mrs. Linda Newsom, Younger Children, and Miss Judy Ritchie, Preschool. The workshop was very well attended with 38 workers present.

An Associational Youth Rally was planned in conjunction with the Youth Council on October 2, 1982, at Westwood Baptist Church. The program was provided by a concert ministry group entitled, "His Ambassadors". It was a good experience for all of the youth in our Association.

Next year the plans made by the Music Council will be exciting and will involve many hundreds of people in Yates Baptist Association. The Council's plans include two big events: 1. Music School: This event will take place in the spring involving all of our churches in an Associational Music School. 2. Mass Choir Effort: This event will take place in the fall involving all our churches in a mass choir endeavor.

We are thankful for the opportunity to serve our Association and we ask for your prayers as we seek to implement the plans.

Respectfully submitted,
E. Hugh O'Shields, Director

REPORT OF THE ORDINATION COMMITTEE

The Ordination Committee of the Yates Baptist Association had the distinct privilege of meeting with and affirming for recommendation to the Gospel Ministry the following individuals:

	Ordaining Church	Date of Council
Thomas Furlow	Homestead Heights	November 22
Jim Cunneen	First Baptist	November 29
Mike McKeown	Immanuel	January 10

These brothers in Christ have exemplified a high degree of competency, integrity, and commitment to the varied areas to which they feel called. The Yates Association is blessed with these gifted men in ministry.

REPORT OF THE MISSIONS COMMITTEE

The Missions Committee has met on a number of occasions in the past year. Our work has been focused in three different areas which are somewhat indicative of the broad scope of our responsibility. One area of our work has concerned the starting of a new church. We had previously determined that a new church was needed in at least two areas within the boundaries of our association, the Leesville Road are and the Bahama area. We chose to focus our attention on the Leesville Road area because we had more detailed surveying already done in that area indicating the need of a new work, as well as the fact that we had a Southern Baptist family in that area eager to help get something started. Through the help of the Home Mission Board, Southeastern Seminary, and Rev. Carl Herweyer, who served as supervisor, we secured the services of seminary students, Gene and Vickie Angus, for the purpose of doing additional surveying and contacting and getting a home Bible study group formed in the area of Leesville Road. After working for ten weeks in that area, Gene and Vickie had helped us see clearly the need of a new work on Leesville Road, had run a successful backyard Bible study, and had begun a home Bible Study. By the end of the summer the first Sunday morning service was held in a vacant home on Leesville Road. The Durham Memorial Church has accepted primary sponsorship of this new work, and now we are in the process of seeking four secondary sponsors helping for a five-year period. We are recommending that through our associational budget our association as a whole can be one of these sponsors. We are already receiving some pastoral assistance from the State Convention Church Extension Department, and Gene Angus continues to serve this church on a part-time basis.

A second area of our work this year has focused on a new ministry, the Public Safety chaplaincy. Rev. Tom Jordan of Red Mountain Church has served as our part-time Public Safety chaplain. We have received weekly reports from Chaplain Jordan and are even more deeply convinced of the significance of this ministry. The ministry itself includes things like riding patrol with officers and talking about their experiences and needs, privately counseling officers and their families where there is a specific need, ministering to officers and families in times of crisis such as death or hospitalization, representing the Public Safety Department in notifying families when there has been a death. We continue to receive $1800 a year through the State Chaplaincy and Language Missions Department, and we are recommending that our association assume responsibility for the additional $600 needed simply to keep this ministry at the present level for the coming year.

Our third area of work has concerned the West Durham Baptist Church and the Good Samaritan Church, who have been under watchcare for the past year. It is the responsibility of the Missions Committee to make a recommendation concerning full membership for these two churches. We will be prepared to make that recommendation at the Annual Meeting.

This committee is already working on exciting plans for new ministries in the coming year. We encourage you to share our excitement and to get involved in the ministries that presently exist and that are being proposed in the coming year. Be in prayer for us that we might be a true instrument of the Lord in this exciting work.

Respectfully submitted,
M. Clay Warf, Chairman

MISSIONS COMMITTEE RECOMMENDATION AT ANNUAL MEETING

Last year on behalf of the Missions Committee I brought to you a recommendation that two black congregations, the West Durham Baptist Church and the Good Samaritan Church, be accepted under watchcare of our association. Now we have the additional responsibility of making a further recommendation concerning these churches and their request for membership in Yates Association. Our options are these:

(1) to recommend full membership
(2) to recommend an additional year of watchcare
(3) to recommend denial of membership

Throughout the year our committee has made an effort to monitor the involvement of these churches in our Association, as well as to assist them in this involvement. Recently we have met with the two pastors, Dr. Harold Cobb, Sr. of West Durham Church, and Rev. Harold Cobb, Jr. of Good Samaritan Church. Now we are prepared to bring this recommendation.

We recommend that the West Durham Baptist Church be accepted for full membership in the Yates Association. We recommend further that the Good Samaritan Church, being a very young church, be accepted for another year of watchcare. It is the feeling of the pastor and our committee, that the congregation could very well come into full membership now, but that another year of watchcare could be beneficial. Mr. Moderator, I so move this recommendation.

REPORT OF THE SENIOR ADULTS

Good years continue to come for Senior Adults of the Yates Association and 1981-82 was no exception. Attendance continues to be good and Christian fellowship excellent. The quarterly meetings give us an opportunity to meet senior adults from many churches in our association and to learn from each other as well as make new friends and renew acquaintances.

Meetings are on quarterly basis with a covered-dish luncheon and interesting programs. In November, Mrs. Margo McEachern of the Division of Aging of the N.C. Department of Human Resources inspired the group to use what we have or lose it, stressing the use of simple exercises and walking to improve health. In February, the Rev. Stanley Bergquist, pastor at Page Road, showed slides and spoke from personal experience on "China and The Great Wall." In May, we traveled to Butchart Gardens in Victoria, British Columbia by way of Floyd and Margaret Rhodes' sound and slide presentation. In August, Mrs. Margaret Gilmore, The Dulcimer Lady, and her husband, the Piddlin Parson, of Pinehurst gave a delightful program on playing and the construction of dulcimers. By the end of the meeting several of our senior adults were playing the dulcimer and one even bought one.

Travel seems to be an activity in which many senior adults are interested. During this associational year many trips were available and participated in. Some were trips to Florida, fall foliage trips to New England, many trips to the World's Fair in Knoxville, Tennessee, a trip to Yellowstone and other western points, and a trip to the Pennsylvania Amish Country and Washington, D.C.

It is hoped that senior adults from all the churches in the association will join us for information, inspiration, and Christian fellowship at our quarterly meetings.

Respectfully submitted,
Mrs. Floyd Rhodes, Jr., President

REPORT OF SINGLES OVER 50

Singles Over 50 enjoyed the following activities from October, 1981-March, 1982:
October—Halloween Party—Covered-dish supper—Grey Stone Church
November—Outing—Village Dinner Theatre
December—Christmas Party—Covered-dish supper—Angier Avenue Church
Christmas Project—Contribution to Durham Rescue Mission
January—Supper Meeting—K & W Cafeteria
February—Covered-dish supper—Trinity Church
March—Supper Meeting—K & W Cafeteria—Election of Officers for 1982-83

The Singles Over 50 continued their most enjoyable monthly meetings on the first Saturday of each month, after the election of a new slate of officers at the March meeting. This meeting, and the April meeting, were both held in the private dining room at the K & W Cafeteria in University Mall of Chapel Hill. Everyone dined in accordance with their own appetite, and the entire meetings were most enjoyable, with Spiritual, and entertaining participation of the group.

The May meeting was graciously held at Holloway Street Baptist Church with a covered-dish supper, needless to say, most enjoyable!

The June and July meetings were both held at K & W Cafeteria in University Mall of Chapel Hill, and all had a menu of choice, as well as desired quantity. The meeting, as usual, was most enjoyable! No complaints!

The August meeting was held at the home of Mary Coleman, with homemade ice cream, and homemade dessert galore. Everyone consumed an overabundance, and still more was taken back home. Wish you could have been there!

The September meeting was held at Trinity Baptist Church, co-sponsored by Lowe's Grove Baptist Church, with refreshments by the same. The meeting was reported to me as extraordinarily outstanding from all categories. Vice-President Inez Ferguson presided. I was absent.

Our October meeting will be a covered-dish supper hosted by Immanuel Baptist Church. Hope you'll all be there, with a good appetite!

Claiborne Ross, President

FOR WORLD MISSIONS

REPORT OF THE RESOLUTIONS COMMITTEE

October 26, 1982

Be it resolved, that the messengers assembled at the 34th Annual Session of the Yates Baptist Association express profound thanks to

Moderator Gerald Goodwin
Clerk John Deeds

and commend them for work well done as faithful servants;

Interim Director of Missions, Dr. Garland Hendricks Administrative Assistant, Faye Bassett
Secretary Altarie Norris

for "seeing us through" a difficult year;

that thanks be given to the committees for their work in putting together an inspiring association meeting; for the impression of the speakers, the song leaders, soloist, chairs and instrumentalists; that we thank the members of the University, First and Faith Baptist Churches who have contributed to the enjoyment of our meeting and a special thanks to the following churches who provided a delicious noon day meal: Calvary, Cheek Heights, Durham Memorial, Faith, Fieldcrest, First, Gorman, Grace, Holloway Street, Plainview, Red Mountain and Ridgecrest.

As we think of those who are now serving so well we are deeply grateful for the tender memory of those who were called into the presence of the Lord during this past year.

Be it further resolved that the Association go on record as supporting the Search Committee with prayers and encouragement; that members of our churches be encouraged to undergird the work of the Association, not only financially, but by attendance at the meetings, for which the association leaders plan so well, and that has been suggested by the theme of this meeting, we have a SPIRIT OF LOVE, HEALING and VISION with a convication that the Yates Baptist Association is strategically located in time and geography.

Respectfully submitted,
Rev. A.D. Frazier
Mrs. Hubert S. Mumford

REPORT OF THE RETIREMENT HOME FEASIBILITY STUDY COMMITTEE

The Feasibility Study Committee of a Yates Retirement Home has made diligent studies of spiritual, social and physical needs of older persons, has studies financial, management, and design considerations including land and floor planning on the eight-acre gift of Yates Village Land and is in process of determining the present and expected wishes of our older population regarding retirement homes.

We think this committee's recommendation will deserve greater study of interested persons than can be discussed in depth in an annual general meeting, and we are asking the Association to approve at this time a special membership meeting to consider and act on this recommendation as soon as it is completed, within a few months.

We also wish now to report verbally and with slides on some of our studies and will answer your questions as well as we can in our limited time.

Respectfully submitted,
Fred Herndon, Chairman

REPORT OF THE YOUTH COMMITTEE

The Youth Council met throughout this year and is beginning to take the reins of the Association's Youth Program. Each church is allowed up to two youth and one adult representative to be on this council. We are presently having about 5-8 churches participating. There is no reason why every church should not have a part. We meet regularly on the last Sunday of the month at 2:30, except December, June and July.

In November 81, the youth held a Rally at Bethesda Baptist Church. There was good attendance of about 300 from 10-15 churches. Mark McMasters, a mime artist, presented the gospel through his medium. Several youth participated in song, testimony and leadership.

April 3, there was another Youth Rally, this time at Westwood. Attendance was around 100 with 5-10 churches participating. The feature speaker was David French, a visiting evangelist.

Several made decisions for Christ at these rallies.

We rode together to the Youth Evangelism Conference, August 14, on Trailways buses provided free for our group by a member of Temple Church. A few under 200 took advantage of this opportunity.

We are trying new events in the coming year and utilizing some of the old. We joined the rest of the Association in having an off year this year but, we look forward to fuller participation this year. We offer the opportunity for big churches to lend a hand and for small churches, even those with only one youth, to do things they don't have the means, facilities or numbers to do.

Respectfully submitted,
Fulton Hartzog, Director

History of Rose of Sharon Baptist Church

Rose of Sharon Baptist Church, located in Durham County, about five miles northwest of Durham, N.C., was organized October 4, 1879. For many years there had been occasional preaching at "Hopkins Grove." In June 1877 Elder C. Durham, pastor of the Durham (now the First) Baptist Church got the people about the place together, fixed seats and began to preach once a month at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. This was continued until November. In April 1878, the Durham Baptist Church employed Elder J.H. Freeman to preach there once a month. In May a Sabbath School was organized by Elder C. Durham and brother Nash Cheek, a deacon of the Durham Church, was made Superintendent. In August a meeting of days was held and four were baptized into the fellowship of the Durham Church.

In December 1878, the Durham Baptist Church gave this mission station over to the Mission Board of the Mt. Zion Association. From this time up to the time of the organization of the church Elder Jesse Howell, Missionary of the Association, preached there once a month. Early in the spring of 1879, due to the untiring efforts of Simpson Browning and C. Durham, two acres of land were secured for a church building, and in the summer of the same year, through the efforts of Simpson Browning and R.M. Jones, the house of worship was built.

A presbytery composed of Elder Jesse Howell, J.H. Freeman, R.A. Patterson, and C. Durham met October 4, 1879, to organize a Baptist Church (Missionary). Elder C. Durham was chosen moderator and Elder R.A. Patterson, Clerk. After the reading of Scriptures and prayers, the presbytery examined the letters and the standing of those who desired to be organized into a New Testament Church and proceeded to organize the church. After reading and adopting a declaration of faith as published by a committee from the Mt. Zion Association, seventeen members were declared a Scriptural Church. The church then elected Elder Jesse Howell pastor, and Simpson Browning, R.M. Jones and William P. Newton deacons. The church agreed to pay Elder Howell fifty dollars to preach for them on the second Sunday in each month, and on Saturdays before. Then Brothers Browning and Newton were ordained by the presbytery to the office of deacon. Brother Jones was absent. By vote it was agreed that the church should be called "Rose of Sharon."

The following men have served the church as pastor: Elder Jesse Howell, R.A. Patterson, J.D. Newton, C.C. Newton, C.A. Woodson, G.J. Dowell, W.H. Edwards, J.F. McDuffie (who served two separate times as pastor), O.W. Triplett, J.F. Crisp (who also served twice as pastor). W.E. Warren, L.M. Hobbs, T.M. Green, Z.B. Teel, Sr., Paul G. Hester, A.W. Icard, O.L. Riggs, Ralph Knight, L.T. Bridgers, Sidney Denman, H.E. Cherry, Frank McGuire, O.H. Harrison, Jr., C.L. Kirkman, Nelson Chambers, Julius Lee, and our present Pastor, Charles E. Rutt. The longest pastorate was that of Rev. Z.B. Teel, Sr., who served for a period of 9½ years.

In April 1888 a Sunday School was begun with W.S. Newton as Superintendent and J.L. Scott, Sr., as Assistant. Of worthy mention is the service of Mr. Charlie Hester who, beginning in 1908, served as Sunday School Superintendent for 17 years, as well as that of Mr. J.L. Scott, Sr., who served for 53 years as Clerk for the church, beginning October 1883.

In September 1948 the church voted to withdraw from the Mt. Zion Association and to enter the then new Yates Baptist Association, and the following year (1949) with Sidney Denman as pastor began holding services of worship every Sunday morning.

In 1954 the Brotherhood was formed. The W.M.U., its sister organization, had been organized previously in the year 1928.

In 1955 the church voted to have a pastor to live on the field in a full-time capacity and in March of 1956 a parsonage was purchased. In April of that same year Rev. Frank McGuire became the first full-time pastor of the church. It was during this time, 1955, the church built a "church cabin" and voted to name this building "The Rose of Sharon Community Center." A name which was later (1966) changed to "Rose of Sharon Fellowship Hall."

In March 1962 the church voted to purchase approximately one acre of land from Bryant Scott for a future building site. On January 23, 1966, the church voted to adopt a Building Program not to exceed $40,000 and a Building Committee was elected to look after getting the plans. This action was taken because there was a need felt for an educational building. (The Building Committee was later changed to a Survey and Long Range Planning Committee and two ladies to help with this were added to the previous committee). During this same year a new organ and a new piano were purchased and the following year (1967) new pews were purchased. In March 1967 the church accepted the bid of Montague Construction Company to build a new Educational Building. A ground breaking ceremony was held on Sunday, March 19, 1967, for this building. The building was completed and a Dedication Service was held June 25, 1967. The Rev. C.L. Kirkman was pastor during this time. In November 1968 the church voted to purchase the Steelman Property which was adjacent to the church property. A committee was elected to study plans for renovation of a house located on the Steelman property, whereby it could be used as a parsonage, and the parsonage then owned by the church could be sold. In 1969 the first church parsonage was sold and the pastor, C.L. Kirkman, and his family moved into the newly renovated house which serves as the present parsonage.

In 1970 the church established its present Day Care Program as a ministry to the local community.

May 14, 1972, the church voted to build a new sanctuary including seven classrooms and a baptistry at an estimated cost of $85,000. L.A. Downey and Son was given the contract. A ground breaking ceremony was held June 18, 1972, and the building was completed the following year. The first service was held in the new building on Sunday, January 14, 1973, with the Rev. Nelson Chambers, pastor.

In October 1976 the church voted to call a full-time Director of Music and Youth and David Cooke was hired to fill this position. At his resignation, Rose Pleasants, was hired and at her resignation the present Director, Mark Hill, hired.

In March 1977 the church voted to accept the low bid of $81,815 from Trout-Riggs for the building of a fellowship hall and gym which would serve as a multi-purpose building. This building known as the "Christian Fellowship Center" was completed and ready for use in 1977. The following year, 1979, the old fellowship hall was renovated in order to provide 5 new classrooms.

In 1979 the church voted to add additional parking to the present facilities and in September of that year work was begun by the William Muirhead Construction Company to be completed by Homecoming Day the first Sunday in October. At this time the 100th Anniversary of the Rose of Sharon Baptist Church was observed.

In May, 1982 the church voted to purchase two musical instruments for the church sanctuary - a Baby Grand Piano and Rogers Organ. The piano has been purchased and is now in use with plans to have the organ by Homecoming Day, October 3, 1982.

Article II. PURPOSE

The purpose of this Association shall be to provide a convenient an orderly means for the extension of the ministry of the cooperating Baptis Churches in Durham County and adjacent territories which support th programs of the Baptist State Convention and the Southern Baptis Convention.

Article III. ARTICLES OF FAITH

The confession of faith of this Association shall be the "Baptist Fait and Message" with its five-point statement of the historic Baptis conception of the nature and function of confessions of faith in our religiou and denominational life as adopted by the Southern Baptist Convention i 1963 at Kansas City.

(Five-Point Statement from "The Baptist Faith and Message")

(1) That they consitutue a concensus of opinion of some Baptist bod large or small, for the general instruction and guidance of our own peopl and others concerning those articles of the Christian faith which are mos surely held among us. They are not intended to add anything to the simpl conditions of the salvation revealed in the New Testament, viz, repentanc towards God and faith in Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord.

Rev. A. D. Frazier of Page Road Church proposed to the Association two solutions:

(1) In an age which seems to de-emphasize the importance of persons and personalities through the increase of numbers for names and machines over people, we desire to focus on and to seek to do what the Holy Bible teaches regarding values, specifically, to admit to, and to honor each person as a person.
Therefore be it resolved that The Yates Baptist Association affirm and be on record that persons created in the image of God are equally lost, may equally be saved (redeemed) and should be treated equally as persons in the home, in the church, in the labor force, in the market place, and in politics.

(2) In an effort to help order our priorities, to identify and focus on the person of Jesus Christ above all else, and to elevate Him to the rightful place of supreme importance in our attitudes and actions; Therefore be it resolved that the Yates Baptist Association affirm, and be on record that The Holy Bible is The Written Word of God, further, that the Saviour Jesus Christ it presents is the only begotten Son of God and is The Living Word of God, and as such, takes precedence over translations, versions, discussion, and arguments regarding the words He is revealed through.

The two resolutions will go to the Resolutions Committee for study and ter presentation.

Hymn 59, "Love Divine, All Love Excelling," was sung.

Rev. Jerry Harper moved that the moderator either appoint a special mmittee or assign to the Program Committee the task for the feasibility of anging our order to a one-day session at one church. Seconded by Miss Nannie Mae Herndon. He felt it would place good stewardshi stewardship of natural resources, resources of money, fairness of speake in competition of a more renown personality. The motion carried.

The clinic, which as held April 16-23, 1983, was led by 47 guest directors, 148 age group pecialists, 50 clinicians, leaders from the Sunday School Board, and aders from our North Carolina Baptist State Convention.

During the clinic, a People Search Blitz took place on Sunday afternoon at resulted in 2,298 canvassers (within the Raleigh and Durham ssociations), 5,733 prospects for Bible Study, and a pre-enrollment of new unday School members which numbered 375.

This clinic was part of the Southern Baptist 8.5 by '85 Sunday School nlargement Campaigns.

In May, our association once again experienced another fine V.B.S. linic at First Baptist Church. Several members of our Sunday School SSIST TEAM served as clinic leaders preparing workers in our ssociational churches to teach preschoolers, children, youth, and adults in .B.S. ministry this summer. In addition, a session was provided for those nducting Backyard Bible Clubs in their church.

In September, 144 Sunday School leaders in our association epresenting 25 of our associational churches) came together at Cresset aptist Church for our annual Sunday School Leadership Training Night. his year, a study of the new "UNDERSTANDING TODAY's . . . RESCHOOLERS, CHILDREN, YOUTH AND ADULTS" was taught by veral members of our ASSIST TEAM. We were delighted with the results this training clinic designed to bring greater understanding to Sunday hool leaders of those they minister to each week.

1983 was a great year for Sunday School ministry in our association, but e know that in 1984, the best is yet to come!

The Music Council has had a good year. The members are to be ngratulated for their work. They carried out the planned projects for the ar with a great deal of enthusiasm. It is the vision of the Council that usic be a celebrative experience of worship and praise in all the churches the Yates Baptist Association. In an effort to enhance the celebrative pect of worship the Council planned and executed two major events: (1) sociation-wide music school, and (2) associational adult mass choir oduction of HARVEST.

Smith, lay leaders from Greensboro, shared slides and facts about the l person in volunteer missions. They also shared their testimonies of h they had followed God's plan in lay renewal ministries.

During the year associational W.M.U. officers attended worksho participated in studying WITNESSING WOMEN, led individual chur

REPORT OF THE MISSIONS COMMITTEE

Again this year the work of the Missions Committee has been focused in e different areas which are indicative of the broad scope of our onsibility. One area of our work has concerned the starting of a new rch. Last year we chose to focus our attention on the Leesville Road area this new work and we are pleased to report that the Lynn's Crossroad apel is alive and growing. Thanks to the people of Durham Memorial rch which serves as the primary sponsor and mother church, Lynn's ssroad is averaging 70 in attendance and in the process of purchasing 10 es of land with a house in which to worship. This congregation is ently in need of financial support from our churches in order that this ded property may be obtained.

A second area of our work this year has focused on a new ministry, an ciational-wide prison ministry. We are recommending at the annual ting that Mr. Boyce Kimball serve as director of this ministry which will in in the Guess Road Prison Unit. Beginning January 1984, the Guess d Unit will house primarily young men serving from 3 to 7 years who t to continue their education. A program has been designed through ham Tech and some other local institutions of learning for this purpose. have been asked to reach out to these young men by working with them ndividual Christian laymen and individual churches. The thrust of the gram is to have one or two of these inmates in our churches on a regular is to meet their physical and spiritually needs. Another part of our istry will be to design and staff with Christian laymen a pre-release gram that will benefit the inmates when they re-enter society. In 1984 we be receiving $1,800.00 for the support of this ministry through the state vention Chaplaincy and Language Missions Department. We are mmending that our association assume responsibility for the itional $600.00 needed to get the ministry underway.

Our third area of work has concerned the Good Samaritan Church which been under watchcare for the past two years. This young congregation a membership of over 100 and is ready to be considered for full nbership in our association. We will be making that recommendation at annual meeting.

We continue to be excited about the work of our committee. We encoura you to be involved in these exciting ministries in the coming year. Be prayer for us that we might truly be an instrument of the Lord in 198

REPORT OF THE SENIOR ADULTS

Senior Adults of the Yates Association testify to the importance fellowship in their lives as shown by an average attendance of about 100 the quarterly meetings of the group. Plans are being made to ensure th every church in our association be represented in this fellowship.

Programs continue to be excellent and meaningful. In November Hugh 'Shields and Herbert Gray brought an enjoyable musical program. The ev. Ray Rogers brought a wonderful testimony on “Ministry Through itnessing” at the February meeting. In May, the Rev. Fred Williams resented his perception of the Holy Land, through slides and narration, as related to the life of Christ. Hugh O'Shields and Herbert Gray emonstrated the spirit of cooperation that exists between the ministers of usic in the association as they presented a devotional-musical program at e August meeting.

Group travel by bus continues to be an enjoyable form of recreation. everal churches are sponsoring long and short trips which afford pportunities for senior adults, particularly singles, to see the United States nd Canada that would not be possible travelling alone. There are also side nefits of making new friends while seeing the country as well as safe avel in groups. Senior adults are aware of the need to make new friends at ery opportunity.

Many senior adults have attended conferences and retreats at Caraway nd Ridgecrest during the year. Also many attended the first N.C. State ally at Greensboro where the program was outstanding. This promises to an annual event.

We are still interested in bringing in many more of the senior adults in r association to enjoy the fellowship, fun, and food at our quarterly eetings the second Thursday of November, February, May, and August.

Respectfully submitted,
Mrs. Floyd Rhodes, Jr., President

REPORT OF THE SINGLES OVER 50

This group meets monthly on the first Saturday--sometimes at 4:30 a sometimes at 6:30 or 7:00 p.m.

During this year we have met at Angier Avenue Baptist Church and Grey Stone Baptist Church, at Holloway Street Baptist Church and Trini Baptist Church. On July 2, we enjoyed a picnic at Wrightwood Park, a recently we have met at K & W Cafeteria - University Mall and Ballentine's Cafeteria - Northgate Mall. Our attendance averages about to 65, occasionally up to 69 and 70.

When a member dies, it is our policy to contribute $10 to the Gide Society for Bibles to be purchased and used in memory of the person.

Earlier in the summer, we were extremely saddened at the death of one our organizers--Claiborne Carl Ross. Claiborne was a tremendous boost of the "Singles Over 50" and will be sorely missed for years to come.

Last December we unanimously decided not to exchange Christm gifts and instead to give the money and make a contribution to T Salvation Army. In early December we delivered $250 to The Salvati Army for its Christmas Stocking use. Needless to say, each of us receive genuine feeling of joy and blessing, and it is our hope that this will becor an annual Christmas time of joyous giving.

It is our prayer that we may reach more and more of this age group Singles.

REPORT OF THE STUDENT WORK COMMITTEE

Efforts have been made this year to regroup this committee and to bri some of the work into focus before our association. Two meetings were he throughout the year with the committee and an additional meeting w held with the associational Finance Committee by Velma Ferrell, Camp Minister at Duke; Joe Clontz, Campus Minister at UNC-Chapel Hill; a the chairman of the Student Work Committee. Following are excerpts of t work being done at both campuses:

1. UNC-Chapel Hill

   Baptist Campus Ministry at UNC-Chapel Hill experienced growth aga during the 1982-83 year.    Baptist Campus Ministry at UNC-Chapel Hill attempts to attra Christian and non-Christian students into a fellowship that encourag both commitment to the Christian faith as well as nurturing in t Christian faith with over 175 students involved.

DUKE

North Carolina Baptists, through Baptist Campus Ministry at Duke, are able to reach out to students on the Duke Campus in a variety of ways. The ministry provides the Baptist Student Union for in and out-of-state students who seek a Christian fellowship group, as well as an outreach to the broader campus through cooperation with other Christian groups on campus. In the 1982-83 school year, Duke BSU students attended regular Friday BSU supper forums. They also participated in a variety of smaller group activities: dorm Bible studies, a morning prayer breakfast prayer partners, nursing home ministry at Hillhaven on LaSalle Street, campus visitation, fundraising for missions, outreach teams to local churches, and one-time community outreach projects. The missions fundraising effort was so successful that, in addition to meeting the students' original goal of $1,200.00 for the N.C. Baptists Student Missions Budget, Duke BSU students raised an additional $450, which made it possible for Lowe's Grove Baptist Church to employ a student to do youth and other ministry in the church for the summer.

REPORT OF THE YOUTH COUNCIL

Though we had several events for the youth this past year, participation of the youth was down from previous years. The Yo Council met regularly, but rarely had more than 8-10 people. Neverthel we had several events during the year.

On October 2, Westwood Baptist Church hosted "His Ambassado international touring group and invited the association's youth participate. There were between 50 and 100 people there for an excell concert of songs and testimonies.

At 5:00 a.m., January 24, about 50 young people and adults Loehman's Plaza for Boone and a day of skiing at Ski French-Swiss. It v a hard trip up the mountain with Angier Avenue's bus. First Church's v ran along behind probably very frustrated.

Lamar Slay returned to Durham after 2 years to be the featured spea at a Youth Rally April 9, at Grey Stone Church. Leroy Rose (Faith Chur gave a testimony and Jeff Owens (Trinity Church) sang. More than from several churches attended.

The first associational youth picnic was attempted on May 28, at For Hills Park. About 50 from 5 churches came and had hamburgers and dogs. We had anticipated about 100, so we took the leftover food to Durham Rescue Mission. "Shine On," from Guess Road Church, gav good concert and those who did come had a good time.

Again this year Trailways buses were provided for the trip to Greensb and the Youth Evangelism Conference. Dr. Jimmy Draper spoke a "Truth" sang. It was a challenging message to walk with Christ.

Please continue to support the ministries that the Youth Council tries do. Many times the difference in a good program and a bad one is t attendance.

This is my last report as I am rotating off the Youth Advisory Committ this year. Fred Bramigk of Bethesda Church will be the new chairman the coming year. Lend your support to him. Thank you for your cooperati over the last 3 years. May our God and Father be praised in all that we and say.

HISTORY OF LOWE'S GROVE BAPTIST CHURCH

Lowe's Grove Baptist Church has been an active force in southern rham County for approximately 74 years. The congregation formed m two separate meeting groups of people. Highlighted are a few complishments and continued service to the Lord and community.

1890 - Sunday School organized at the home of the Edmund Lowe family on Alston Avenue approximately one mile south of the present church.

1907 - Sunday School organized in the abandoned High Point School, approximately a quarter of mile inside the Wake County line.

1909 - High Point Group organized into a church in April, with Rev. R. E. Atkins, as pastor. During the summer the two above groups met and agreed to combine congregations and on September 20, Lowe's Grove Baptist Church was formed.

1910 - R. H. Rigsbee donated a lot adjoining school for the erection of a church building. This building was built completely by members. The church was accepted in Mt. Zion Association in good standing.

1914 - Woman's Missionary Society and Sunbeam was organized. Mrs. J. L. Green was elected president.

1925 - Church and cemetary were moved to present location on the west side of Alston Avenue. The church was remodeled at this time.

1939 - Under leadership of Rev. J. A. Morgan church services were held each Sunday.

1948 - New brick church building was begun to replace the older frame stucco structure.

1949 - New "debt free" church valued at $75,000.00 was completed and dedicated.

1954 - Brick parsonage erected "debt free" valued at $18,000.00.

1958 - Educational annex added to the church "debt free" valued at $60,000.00.

1963 - Church fellowship building erected "debt free" valued at $40,000.00.

1966 - An exchange of property with neighbor, Northeast Baptist Church, was made. In exchange for the property of one acre of land on Alston Avenue, which is now a part of Lowe's Grove Church Cemetary, the church purchased 2 1/2 acres of land on Highway 55, north of Cornwallis Road, moved Northeast Church Cemetary to the present location, purchased 10,000 brick, and pledged to assist them with $50.00 a month toward their mortgage and their mortgage note was burned a few years later. Some additional gifts were made by individual members of Lowe's Grove Baptist Church to Northeast Baptist Church.

1970 - Parsonage remodeled "debt free" with an 800 square foot addition.

1974 - Agreement reached between the church and the Durham County Board of Education due to the construction and location of the new Lowe's Grove Junior High School. This agreem concerned adjoining property of the school and church.

1980 - Church in conference adopted Church Constitution.
1982 - Church chimes restored as a memorial gift.
1983 - Memorial Rose Garden dedicated.

The following has served as ministers: R. E. Atkins, J. M. Arne Thomas Green, Joe Currin, G. T. Mills, C. C. Smith, A. H. Porter, A. McCall, J. A. Morgan, J. L. Powers, Dr. Charles E. Maddry, J. H. Anders Dr. L. Elbert Wethington, Robert W. Dorr, Dr. Hugh Wamble, J. Fogleman, Aubrey Quakenbush, Robert Phillips, Vernon Sparrow, Rob Young, Dr. Carroll Trotter, and Robert L. Clegg.

The church is very proud of the fact that two of her members have g into the ministry: Rev. Charles A. Maddry, now deceased, and M Pamela Shipp Bass.

From humble beginnings, Lowe's Grove has grown into an active chu with 612 members, "debt free" property valued at over one million dolla and a yearly operation budget of over $133,000.00. This has been achie through the dedication, hard work and leadership of former ministers a members. The church continues to grow in strength and service under t leadership of the present minister, Rev. Robert L. Clegg.

HISTORY OF MOUNT CARMEL BAPTIST CHURCH

Mount Carmel Baptist Church was constituted in the year 1803 Pritchard's Meeting House, near Chapel Hill, North Carolina. The fi president of the United States, George Washington, had been dead a m four years, and the Louisiana Purchase had just doubled the size of t United States. In 1814, Matthew McCauley deeded a tract of land to chur trustees - Abner W. Clompton, William H. Merritt, and Thomas Weaver - exclusive use of "the said Baptist Church known by the name of Chris Church at Mount Carmel." The land and church was located on a h overlooking Morgan's Creek about two miles southwest of Chapel H situated beside a main plank road on which Lord Cornwallis traveled fr Hillsborough to Fayetteville during the days of the American Revoluti

One certain fact about this young church is that it served a far lar purpose in its community than churches do presently. All schooli political and public functions were held in the church, and it was a ma source of authority in matters of community order. Mount Carmel at th time was the only Baptist church serving Chapel Hill and the Universi located there.

Mount Carmel has belonged to four local Baptist church associatio during its long history: the Flat River Association until 1827, the San Creek Association until 1870, the Mount Zion Association until the 1950 and then the Yates Association.

Three times Mount Carmel members have extended an arm of Mou Carmel to form new churches. Mt. Gilead Baptist Church was founded 1823, Lystra Baptist Church in 1853, and University Baptist Church 1854. All three churches are still active.

Mount Carmel membership dropped during the hard years of Civil W but growth began again after the cessation of this conflict. The origin cation of the church was moved in 1873, after Elder George Purefoy onated the present property on which the church stands. After the crops ere laid by that year, a "working" was held. Old Mount Carmel was torn wn and hauled by wagons to a site just ten feet from the location of our esent structure. There it was re-assembled. Additions were made in 1903 nd 1931.

Mount Carmel progressed rapidly during the first half of the twentieth ntury. Saturday meetings with a "circuit" preacher gave way to regular unday meetings. In 1945 our first full-time pastor, Rev. C. E. Byrd, was lled. A parsonage fund was begun, and in 1948 this structure was ready r occupation. Sunday School, Training Union, W.M.U., and other phases the church's work flourished. By the late 1950's, it was apparent that the embership was outgrowing the frame structure, and in March 1959 the roundbreaking for our present brick sanctuary was held. This was mpleted in 1962, and on October 28, the first sermon was preached there. wo years later, the educational plant was finished. In 1978, renovations to r Fellowship Hall were completed; this new structure has added nmensely to the community life of the church.

In 1978, Mount Carmel celebrated her 175th year of existence. A picnic as held at the site of old Mount Carmel on the Cornwallis Trail; in July, 78 our homecoming was a special time of looking back on our long history nd the dedicated work of our forebearers at Mount Carmel.

Presently, under the leadership of Reverend Larry Wilson, we continue look back with reverence and gratitude for the strength and faith of ount Carmel's past, but even more do we look forward to the future, in the rayerful hope that Mount Carmel will continue to beckon those around her, nd those far away, to the name of Christ.

Constitution

Revised 1983

ARTICLE I. NAME

This body shall be known as the Yates Baptist Association of North Carolina.

ARTICLE II. PURPOSE

The purpose of this Association shall be to provide a convenient and orderly mean for the extension of the ministry of the cooperating Baptist churches in Durham Count and adjacent territories which support the programs of the Baptist State Convention an the Southern Baptist Convention.

ARTICLE III. ARTICLES OF FAITH

The confession of faith of this Association shall be the "Baptist Faith and Message with its five-point statement of the historic Baptist conception of the nature and fun tion of confessions of faith in our religious and denominational life as adopted by th Southern Baptist Convention in 1963 at Kansas City.

(Five-Point Statement from "The Baptist Faith and Message")

(1) That they constitute a concensus of opinion of some Baptist body, large or smal for the general instruction and guidance of our own people and others concerning thos articles of the Christian faith which are most surely held among us. They are not i tended to add anything to the simple conditions of the salvation revealed in the Ne Testament, viz, repentance towards God and faith in Jesus Christ as Savior and Lor

(2) That we do not regard them as complete statements of our faith, having any qual ty of finality of infallibility. As in the past, so in the future Baptists should hol themselves free to revise their statements of faith as may seem to them wise and exp dient at any time.

(3) That any group of Baptists, large or small, have the inherent right to draw up f themselves and publish to the world a confession of their faith whenever they may thin it advisable to do so.

(4) That the sole authority for faith and practice among Baptists is the Scriptures the Old and New Testaments. Confessions are only guides in interpretation, having authority over the conscience.

(5) That they are statements of religious convictions, drawn from the Scriptures, an are not to be used to hamper freedom of thought or investigation in other realms of lif

Bring Them In

Hark! 'tis the Shepherd's voice I hear,
Out in the desert dark and drear,
Calling the sheep who've gone astray,
Far from the Shepherd's fold away.

Refrain

Who'll go and help this Shepherd kind,
Help Him the Wand'ring ones to find?
Who'll bring the lost ones to the fold,
Where they'll be shelter'd from the cold?

Refrain

Out in the desert hear their cry,
Out on the mountains wild and high;
Hark! 'tis the Master speaks to thee,
"Go, find my sheep where'er they be."

Refrain

Refrain
Bring them in, bring them in,
Bring them in from the fields of sin;
Bring them in, bring them in,
Bring the wand'ring ones to Jesus.

Rev. Hugh O'Shields, who was in charge of the music for all sessions, announced a mini concert by Dietra Arrington of Temple Baptist. Her songs included: "The Lord is My Light," "My Tribute," "I Want Jesus to Walk with Me," "Ain't Got Time to Die."

Moderator Travis Clements called the session to order and thanked the Yates Baptist Church for hosting,this session.

The congregation then sang "Stir Thy Church, O God, Our Father."

Rev. Ronald Cumbie extended a welcome to everyone and an invitation to share in refreshments at the end of the meeting. He then led in prayer.

The moderator introduced Rev. Marvin Settle, director of missions, since this was the first Yates associational meeting he had attended, and shared portions of a letter from the Richmond Baptist Association praising Rev. Settle very highly.

Rev. Settle then asked all new pastors and staff members to come forward and introduce themselves. Those were: Thomas Noyes, associate pastor/minister to youth, Mount Hermon; Bryan Chestnutt, pastor, Lystra; Jane Harris, minister of Education, University Church, Chapel Hill; Benny Littlejohn, pastor, Guess Road; Ron Benson, staff evangelist, Bethesda; Dan Parker, associate pastor, Homestead Heights; Robert Wortham, director of religious education, Braggtown; Bo Little, youth director, Bethesda.

Rev. Ernest Ferrell, chairman of the Camp Committee, presented the report of this committee as shown on pages 22-23 of the "Book of Reports" with the following corrections:

Objective I — Cost of this item should be approximately $100,000 instead of $20,000 as printed.

The following paragraph should follow:

Coinciding with the installation of the swimming pool would be the erection of three or four shelters for picnics, day camp programs, etc. (These could be constructed by Baptist Men's groups.)

Cost: Approx. $20,000

Then pick up the report as printed, beginning with "Purpose."

Rev. Ferrell moved that this report be accepted with the above corrections. Motion seconded and carried.

Rev. Everette Smith, chairman of the Finance Committee, presented the proposed budget for 1985 as shown on pages 46-47 of the "Book of Reports." 2. Hope to begin construction of Yates Village

The Combined Youth Choir of the Yates Baptist Association presented "SHARE," a worship experience for choir and congregation, under the direction of Bob Cook and accompanied by Sarah Harvey. This was very well done.

At the time for miscellaneous business, Vice Moderator Kerr recognized the following representatives of church-supported institutions:

Ms. Ann Purcell of Meredith College
Leonard Gerald from Children's Home
Rev. Jerry Harper for Chowan Junior College

They all expressed thanks for the support these institutions receive through the Cooperative Program. Rev. Harper advised that Chowan ranks in the top 10 of the nation's junior colleges.

The vice moderator then recognized Rev. Settle, director of missions, who reviewed the digest of church letters. Rev. Settle also urged that participation in W.M.U. and other organizations be increased and moved that 1,000 be baptized by the end of 1986. Motion made to accept report, seconded and accepted.

Rev. Settle discussed the report of the Resolutions Committee, on page 33, instead of Mrs. Mumford. He reviewed the motion that was tabled at last year's meeting and advised that the above referenced report had been adopted by the Executive Committee and the Board in their respective meetings. Moved and seconded that this resolution be adopted.

Rev. Jerry Harper discussed the meaning of "issue-related" resolutions and requested that motion be defeated.

Rev. Clay Warf also spoke. He said he was not speaking just regarding the resolution by Mr. Frazier, but for any resolution. He said we do not need divisiveness in conventions; also, that resolutions will not do away with bringing something before a meeting. Rev. Warf then made a substitute motion -- that the resolution be amended as follows:

> That item (2) read:
> that the association go on record of not adopting any resolutions; and
> That item (3) read:
> that the Constitution Committee prepare an amendment to the Constitution that would prohibit the adoption of any resolutions in the future.

Rev. Jerry Harper asked if this amendment was accepted would it require an additional constitutional amendment to do away with the Resolutions Committee as there would be no other need for such a committee. It was pointed that the vote would take care of this. Moved and seconded that this amendment to the resolution be adopted. Vote carried.

The vice moderator then read the complete amended report as follows:

> WHEREAS, the Yates Baptist Association Resolutions Committee has witnessed the effect on issue-related resolutions at the Southern Baptist Convention and North Carolina Convention; and
> WHEREAS, these effects are usually negative; and
> WHEREAS, resolutions only speak for those messengers gathered at a meeting and do not necessarily represent or have any authority over the local church; and
> WHEREAS, we want our association to experience harmony and close fellowship in this meeting and future meetings;
> We recommend:
> (1) that the resolutions submitted by A.D. Frazier of Page Road Baptist Church, at the Yates Baptist Association Annual Meeting, October 25, 1983, not be reported out of committee; and
> (2) that the association go on record of not adopting any resolutions; and
> (3) that the Constitution Committee prepare an amendment to the Constitution that would prohibit the adoption of any resolutions in the future.

Motion to adopt report as amended was accepted.

Another item of miscellaneous business was the following motion from Rev. Jerry Harper.

"In light of the Biblical call to be good stewards of the resources God has entrusted to us, and in light of the call to live a simpler lifestyle, and in order to conserve the natural resources such as gasoline, electricity and air, and in order to use more wisely the resource of time, I move that our director of missions appoint a committee to study the feasibility of having a one-day annual session. This committee to survey other associations within and without our state and their report to be mailed out prior to its presentation to the association in a board meeting or to this body next year." Motion seconded and carried.

Mr. Fred Herndon, chairman, reviewed the report of the Yates Village as printed on pages 30-31 of the "Book of Reports," and announced a revision in the entry refund policy, which was an improvement over the original policy. He moved that the report be adopted with the supplementary information that was verbally given. Motion seconded and carried.

Rev. Carl Herweyer expressed appreciation to board members who had retired from committee and presented plaques to Sidney Booth, R.E. Daughtry, A.B. Stone and Frank Ward.

Mr. Eugene Warwick of the Home Mission Board, who recruits workers for mission work, was recognized for a short message.

Hymn, "Bring Them In" was sung by congregation.

Rev. Settle introduced Mr. Robert B. Watson, a representative from the Baptist State Convention, who spoke on "Reaching All People by Establishing New Churches."

Before Mr. Watson spoke, Rev. Settle presented a certificate from the Home Mission Board to Dr. Tommy Jordan on behalf of Red Mountain Church for establishing the Bahama Mission. He also asked all members present from the Red Mountain Church to come forward for introduction.

The Combined Senior Adult Choir sang "The Ninety and Nine" and "Ring the Bells of Heaven," directed by Tedford Reed.

Director Settle then introduced Dr. Paul Adkins who spoke on "Churches Reaching People Who Are Senior Adults."

Rev. Herweyer invited everyone to stay for the luncheon that had been prepared and gave directions for reaching the fellowship hall.

Dr. Jesse Croom of Carrboro Baptist gave the benediction and blessing and the meeting adjourned about 12 noon.

THIRD SESSION

The last session began with the choir of Hope Valley Church singing "The House of God," "When the Roll is Called Up Yonder," "God is My Shepherd," "Fresh Springs," "He Is Our Peace" and "They That Wait Upon the Lord," directed by Bruce Benton.

Other musicians for this session were Michael Dunnagan, minister of music; Judi Kelly, organist; Deborah Pierce, pianist.

Moderator Travis Clements called the meeting to order and thanked the Parkwood Church for hosting this session.

Bill Witt of the host church extended greetings and led in prayer.

The hymn, "Jesus Shall Reign Where'er the Sun," was sung.

Director Marvin Settle introduced Rev. Richard T. Davis, pastor of Park View, who was to bring the annual sermon.

Under the direction of Margie Story, the choir from Park View sang the anthem "God Comes in Love."

Rev. Davis' message was on "Greatness," or more appropriately on "Baptist Greatness."

The hymn, "Share His Love," was sung.

Director Settle presented an interesting slide presentation on "Churches Reaching All Peoples with the Good News."

The moderator presided over miscellaneous business items.

Lois King, clerk, reported that the total registration was 459.

Deborah McGuire brought greetings and appreciation from Meredith College.

There was no report from the Resolutions Committee.

The director of missions expressed thanks to this body, to all churches that participated in any manner, Hugh O'Shields of the Music Council, Floyd Rhodes for sharing his recording equipment and giving his time, the Committee for the Annual Meeting, to Faye and Altaree of the association office, George Coggin for use of car, to moderator and vice moderator for their fine relationship; and, lastly, thanked everyone for attending. He said he was astounded at the large number of registrations - much larger than he had experienced in Virginia. (See Expressions of Thanks.)

When the moderator asked if there was any other miscellaneous business, A.M. Hall, Jr., of Red Mountain Church, said he had just returned from a visit to Fort Caswell, where he did some work. He said they still need a lot of help since the storm. They are already $100,000 in debt from the storm damage, and can use both money and physical help.

Moderator Clements called on the director of missions to make the Lay Leader Award, the recipient of which has been selected by a secret committee. Rev. Settle announced that the award went to a couple this year -- Ruth and Ed Couch. Ed has served as director of Baptist Men since 1976, and other positions, and Ruth has served as director of W.M.U. as well as other positions. Ed was out of town, and Ruth accepted and expressed thanks for this recognition.

The hymn, "Tell the Good News," was sung and Rev. Aubrey Quakenbush closed the meeting with prayer about 9:00 p.m.

Lois King, Clerk

Expressions of Thanks

In lieu of expressing thanks and appreciation through resolutions, I take it a point of personal privilege as director of missions for the Yates Baptist Association, to express the thanks of this body to Yates Baptist Church, to Braggtown Baptist Church, and to Parkwood Baptist Church for hosting our annual meeting this year, for providing the great hospitality, providing all the comforts and conveniences that we have needed for this meeting this year.

I also wish to express our appreciation and thanks to the following churches: Braggtown, Carrboro, Ebenezer, Grey Stone, Guess Road, Immanuel, Mt. Hermon, Mt.

Moriah, Rose of Sharon, University, Watts Street, West Durham, and Westwood for the excellent food that we were able to share and partake of together, today, at the Bragtown Baptist Church; for the fast service and effective service that they provided in feeding 260 some people this afternoon in getting us in there and out in record time. It was great and it is really appreciated by all of us.

I would also like to express my own appreciation to Hugh O'Shields and the Music Council for the fine musical programs they put together for us this year - the youth musical last night, the senior adult choir, the choirs that have blessed us today - all of these were blessings to me, and I am sure they were a blessing to each and everyone of you.

Personally, I would like to say a word of thank you to Mr. Floyd Rhodes for sharing with us of his equipment tonight. I don't know how many of you realize that Floyd is at every board meeting and every other meeting that we need him to record the events of that particular meeting, and I want to express my personal appreciation to Floyd for all of his hard work in helping us. He has always been at all of our meetings at least an hour before hand because he knows that he's got a lot of work to do in setting up, and we are grateful for him for giving of his time in such a way as this.

I also want to express appreciation to the Annual Meeting Committee this year that put together this program of "Churches Reaching All Peoples." I hope that you have received some idea of the obligations, the opportunities that we have as Southern Baptists in this area, of the needs around us in terms of reaching all people in this area - all people in this Research Triangle Area.

Since May of this year, when I became your director of missions, I want to thank two lovely young ladies in our association office, Faye and Altaree, for their hard work in keeping me straight and telling me, "This isn't the way we do it here!", and all the other helps that they have given. Seriously, they have been very cooperative, very friendly, very helpful, and I couldn't think of two finer people to work with in all my life, than these two fine young ladies that we have in our association office. I am grateful to them, and I don't know what I would ever do if either one of them is ever sick and couldn't come in to work because they are my right hand in that office.

I also want to say a special word of appreciation to Mr. George Coggin and Coggin Pontiac for giving the director of missions an automobile to use in associational work. It's a wonderful car, wonderful opportunity to have such a benefit in working in a fine association like this. I express my appreciation to George Coggin.

To our moderator, our vice moderator and clerk, I say thank you. You all do a tremendous job, and you have, I think, been able to lead one of the finest meetings of this association. Of course, this is my first one, only you can say whether it was one of the finest ones or not, but I thought it was my finest one as your director of missions!

But also, I want to say to all of you that have gathered here tonight, "thank you." You have made this an enjoyable time for me. I am astounded at the size of the turnout that we had here for this annual meeting this year. I feel blessed. I feel very fortunate, and I feel indebted to each and everyone of you who came. Laymen, pastors, all of you -thank you and God bless each of you.

Report of the Sunday School

8.5 by '85, the Bold Mission Thrust of our Southern Baptist Convention, again was the major emphasis in our association. We again encouraged our churches to strengthen their Sunday School ministry with strong Bible study units, and evangelistic outreach/visitation.

In April people from across our association gathered together at the Hope Valley Baptist Church for our annual Vacation Bible School Clinic. This clinic was led by several members of our associational ASSISTeam and was designed to help local church V.B.S. leaders sharpen their teaching/reaching skills using this year's V.B.S. teaching material.

In September two training events were conducted. The first, at Temple Baptist Church, was a Curriculum Interpretation Workshop designed to help local Sunday School leadership know and understand the literature used by Southern Baptist churches in Sunday School. This workshop was led by members of the ASSISTeam.

The second event was a training session for all ASSISTeam members. Mr. Phil Stone from the North Carolina Baptist Convention Sunday School Department, was the guest leader. This session presented the upcoming program for 1984-85 in which ASSISTeam members will be actively involved.

Sunday School attendance and enrollment is again on the rise in our association. We pray that this trend will continue in the year ahead.

Wally Fowler, Director

Report of the Brotherhood

Men throughout the Yates Association are continuing to become involved in new nission-related activities. Tremendous support was shown in the form of volunteer abor and funding for the tornado victims in Eastern North Carolina in the spring. More hurches were involved in ministry outreach involving men in West Virginia, Pennsylvania, North and South Carolina and in Durham.

The Red Mountain Brotherhood men were instrumental in helping to form the ahama Mission in 1984. Others also helped the mission in various ways. Still others vere involved in renovation work at Fort Caswell. Men have been involved in prison ninistries, nursing home ministries, and local church ministries within the community.

New RA groups have been established and increased interest shown in participation in he RA Track Meet, Camp Caraway, and the Crusader Car Competition and Mission air.

To help train leadership, provide encouragement and help local churches learn how to each men and boys and involve them in effective missions, the associational Brotherood staff has added an additional person, Mr. Larry Clark of Yates Baptist Church. arry has assumed responsibility for the position of Baptist Men's President for Yates ssociation. Hopefully, one or maybe two more can be added to form a Brotherhood ouncil to be able to respond to your needs more readily.

On behalf of the Brotherhood staff we are looking forward to another good year in he service of our Lord in 1985.

Report of Woman's Missionary Union

Partnership has been the emphasis for this year. Activities giving opportunities to ray and to minister were held in the age level organizations.

GA's were given an opportunity to meet missionaries and learn how much prayer neans to them. Acteens and leaders, 37 from our association, traveled to Fort Worth to he National Acteens Conference. Baptist Women made homemade cookies to share in the ministry to Woman's Prison in Raleigh. Women have studied, prayed and given t missions so others can know the love Jesus gives freely to all who will accept.

Missions are ways girls and women can follow and serve God. The annual meetin was a highlight, giving opportunity to hear how important it is that we accept responsibility of helping carry the good news of Christ's love to the lost of our community an to minister to the hurts of people around us and be ready to even go as volunteer missionaries. Jesus said, "Go ye into all the world." Part of that world is all around us wit many needy people, both physically and spiritually. Pray each day that more wome will become aware of how they can through WMU be an effective witness.

A leadership conference for age level leaders was held on September 19, for trainin and encouraging church WMU leaders.

The year 1986 will be the 100th anniversary of North Carolina WMU. Plans are now being made that will involve associational and church WMU leaders, emphasizin WMU history, state, association and church. Are you a part of this history? Will yo commit yourself to serve Christ through Woman's Missionary Union? Pray for th WMU officers of your association.

The installation service for Rev. Marvin Settle was the high point in the association year. We were fortunate to have a combined choir and orchestra for the service. T council worked in conjunction with the Search Committee in planning this program

The Music Council has been deeply involved in the fall ministries. They have planne music for these ministries and promoted these events in their area churches. We are e cited about the work of the council this year and the help they have provided oth groups in the association.

The goal of sharing celebrative music still remains a priority in all the council plan Our plans for the coming year will enhance the goal of reaching every church in o association to help them improve the music used in the different churches.

We feel 1984 gave us new insights into the ministries to be planned by the council. new group of persons came to serve on the council which added new impetus to o plans.

Report of TACMO

The Associational Church Media Library Organization met four times during the year. The first meeting was held on November 5, 1983 at Braggtown Baptist Church. Mrs. Clara Crabtree discussed the use of audio-visual materials. Eleven people representing six churches were in attendance.

Report of Laubach

The literacy program experienced its busiest year during 1984. Illiteracy is of national concern and much publicity has led to more and more requests for tutors. During the past year, six workshops were held with 79 persons being trained as tutors. We presently have 41 persons actively tutoring and a waiting list of 45 to be tutored. A workshop is currently being held weekly at the County Library and a weekend workshop is planned for November. The director attended the North Carolina Literacy Conference held at Meredith College in June. She also trained 23 tutors for the Mt. Zion Association at a workshop sponsored by the Missions Department of the Baptist State Convention.

The July Curious Kaleidoscope program on WTVD featured the work being done in the area for illiteracy. With 18.4 percent of adults in Durham County 25 years and older having less that an eighth grade education, you can see that a tremendous job there is to do. If we are ever to reach these people for Christ, we first have to meet their need which is to know how to read so they can read His word.

Respectfully submitted,
Mary Whaley, Director

Report of the Director of Missions

As of this date, I have visited all 48 of our pastors and have gotten to know many of them pretty well. I have been fortunate to preach or worship in 26 of our 51 churches. I am beginning to know more and more of you by sight and many of you by name. If I have not called you by name, yet, continue to tell me your name until I learn it. You only have my name to learn, but I have to learn all of yours.

STRATEGY PLANNING

Recently (October 16), we had our first meeting of the Strategy Planning Committee for the association. This is an excellent committee, made up of some of the finest leaders in our association. It is a well balanced committee, representing almost every facet of association life.

We began our planning process by getting the committee to share their dreams for the association. It was an enlightening time of sharing, as we identified needs and concerns to meet in the years ahead.

We are in hopes of bringing the final report to you, no later than next fall.

CAMP

Your Camp Committee has worked extremely hard since May 1, trying to do something to improve the camp and make it meet your needs. Extensive cleanup and painting projects have been completed. Your Camp Committee (see report) has adopted three objectives in the way of development for the camp. As soon as the water and sewage systems problems have been solved, then I believe that you will see these proposals brought to reality.

PACT BLITZ

We have a number of churches in our association that are in a state of transition.

(1) The rural communities around the church have mushroomed into industrial or residential growth.
(2) Middle class neighborhood churches have seen their neighborhood decline economically.
(3) Predominately white neighborhoods have become increasingly black.
(4) Communities that once had only Durham natives, now consist of Yankees, ethnics, and other strangers.

What is a church to do? The sad thing that happens across this country, (not just in the Southern Baptist Convention, but in every denomination) pastors become scapegoats and are blamed for church decline or non-growth. As in most cases of scapegoating the pastor is not responsible for these community changes.

Every church needs to be aware of the changes taking place in their community. One way for your churches to be aware of these changes is to conduct a PACT Blitz.

PACT (Project Assistance for Churches in Transition) will affirm your church's strengths and give guidance to the church to build on its strengths to reach its community.

We have scheduled PACT Blitz for Yates Baptist Association on November 15-17, 1985.

Your church can be the beneficiary of an invaluable planning/guiding tool by enlisting in the program. Total cost to the church is $250.

Please let the association office know by January 10 of your intention to participate so that excellent PACT consultants can be secured for your church.

NEW CHURCHES

What a joy it has been to experience the birth of the Bahama Baptist Mission. The mission is currently in its infant stages and hopes to be settling in to a more permanent home soon.

Red Mountain Baptist Church has done a yeoman's job in getting the mission underway.

Several other sites for new churches have been identified. We plan to have two Praxis ams in Yates to start new churches next year. We need at least two sponsors for these ew mission endeavors. Several churches could come together to sponsor a new mission they like.

APPRECIATION

I want to express a sincere word of thanks and appreciation to Mrs. Faye Bassett and rs. Altaree Norris. These are two of the finest staff people any director of missions ould have.

We are indeed fortunate to have them. They have not only helped me make the transi-on to Durham and Yates smoothly, but they have been supportive in changes I wanted make.

You don't know how much that means to me. They are two of the greatest.

I am also appreciative of our moderator, Travis Clements, your Search Committee, nd the many committees I've worked with already.

We have some of the best pastors, staff, and laypeople here in our association as well. hey have been supportive and appreciative of what we're trying to do.

I am thankful for all.

SUMMARIZING

Let me summarize thusly. During the first Strategy Planning Committee meeting, one ember of the committee said, "Our people want us to do something, do anything, but o something. Our people need to see the association do something."

Well, here is a summary of what is in the works:

985 - (1) Strategy Planning Committee Report
  (2) Construction of swimming pool, picnic shelters, and water and sewage treatment at camp
  (3) Lay Witness Training
  (4) PACT Blitz
  (5) Starting two new churches
  (6) Calling a Church Planter Intern
  (7) Improvement of communication from association office
986 - (1) Implementation of Strategy Planning Committee Report
  (2) Continue construction and improvements at camp
  (3) Simultaneous evangelistic revivals
  (4) Starting more new churches
  (5) Begin organized day camping at camp
987 - (1) Further implementation of Strategy Planning Committee Report
  (2) Citywide crusade
  (3) Continued development of camp
  (4) Starting new churches
988 and beyond??? Let's plan together.

We are doing something. Now go back and tell your church. We have begun. One hurch cannot do it alone, but we can do it, "together."

What you have just read or heard may sound to you like a bunch of programs to keep s busy. "Programs" do not reach people for Jesus Christ. "People" reach people for esus Christ. We can do all of this programming, all of this planning, but we need to ave people touching people through the programs if we are to reach our area for Jesus hrist.

Your association office staff cannot do it all. We are so few in number. But, with your help, and your total commitment to see our city saved for Jesus Christ then there is nothing we can't do for Him.

Join your association staff as we seek to lead THE ASSOCIATION: CHURCHES REACHING ALL PEOPLES.

Marvin B. Settle, Jr., Director of Missions

Lay Leader Award

"Ed Couch has served Yates Baptist Association since October 1976, as the directo of Baptist Men's organization and has done a commendable job. He with his Baptis Men's Committee has consistently planned inspirational programs and events for Baptist Men and Royal Ambassadors. He stays abreast of Baptist Men and Royal Ambassador work, and he loves this particular form of ministry of Southern Baptists.

"I can personally say that Ed also served as a capable probing member of the Searc Committee for the Director of Missions. His questions during the search process and interview with me expressed for me his own deep Christian convictions, Christian spirit and willingness to see the Yates Baptist Association become all it can be in the year ahead.

"He along with Faye Bassett, the administrative assistant of the Yates Baptis Association office, spearheaded a fund-raising campaign within the Yates Baptis Association to provide disaster relief funds for those who suffered in the North Carolin tornadoes this year. Those efforts generated $17,562.20 plus contributions of clothes food, furniture, and appliances for those families struck by that tornado disaster.

"Mrs. Ruth Couch is the better half of the Couch family. Ruth Couch has served th Yates Baptist Association in prior years as the WMU director of the association. On continuing basis she has led in various associational study courses and generally replie in the affirmative when asked to do a study course in the Yates Baptist Association churches. She has given many hours to this preparation as well as in the teaching time itsel Ruth has also served on the the associational Calendar Committee, serving one year a chairman of the committee.

"Ruth currently serves as a member of the association's Missions Committee wher her contributions to that committee are practical, mission-sighted and bold. She ha agreed, on top of all of the other activities that she participates in, to participate in th associational Strategy Planning Committee for 1985. She will bring the same insigh and boldness to that committee that she has contributed to the association's Missio Committee.

"If these contributions weren't enough, both Ed and Ruth are active participatir members in their local church, Cedar Fork Baptist Church, and have a very fine Christian household."

This year's award goes to Ed and Ruth Couch.

Report of the Camp Committee

As a result of the renewed interest on the part of our association toward further development of the camp, the Camp Committee has sought to move toward accomplishing some goals you have stated. This year has been spent in some general cleaning and painting. There has been a real effort to clear the grounds of some unsightly debris. In addition we were able to purchase a used tractor for mowing purposes.

Now we would like to bring you up to date on the planning for future development. Please note the following objectives.

PROPOSAL FOR YATES BAPTIST ASSCOCIATION CAMP

1. OBJECTIVE I

Installation of a swimming pool in the open area north of caretaker's home. (This area was previously used to discard brush and trash.) The pool would include sufficient wading area for use by children. It would also include a diving board and sliding boards.

Cost: approx: $100,000

Coinciding with the installation of the swimming pool would be the erection of 3 or 4 shelters for picnics, day camp programs, etc. (These could be constructed by Baptist Men's groups.)

Cost: approx. - $20,000

PURPOSE

By constructing the swimming pool and shelters, the camp could begin to accommodate programs such as day camping, church picnics, youth pool fellowships, and an associational picnic. These activities would draw more people to the camp which would increase awareness of the camp.

2. OBJECTIVE II

Construction of a lodge which will be totally self-contained including sleeping accommodations for 30-50 people, kitchen and dining facilities, bathrooms and conference room. This lodge would be located approximately 100 yards north of the swimming pool with a wooded area as a buffer. Parking for this lodge would be north of the lodge to the northern boundary of the camp.

This lodge would be winterized and could be used year-round.

PURPOSE

Present lodge will not accommodate a large group of 30-50 people overnight in sleeping conditions. To meet the needs of our churches that must rent retreat facilities elsewhere, we recommend the construction of this winterized, larger lodge.

3. OBJECTIVE III

Conversion of the existing lodge into a dining hall and restroom facility. Additional cabins of rustic nature would be built in close proximity to this dining hall. This area would be designed for rustic camping. This facility would not be in use during the winter.

4-5 cabins sleeping 8-16 persons each, if built by Baptist Men.

PURPOSE

A camping setting is entirely different from a retreat setting. Children's and youth groups could be easily accommodated and accommodated at a lower cost in camping facilities, using rustic cabins. These cabins would only provide shelter.

CONCERNS

Two primary concerns affect the development of the camp.

1) Water and Sewage. We are in the process now of talking with County Health Department officials regarding requirement for water and sewage at the campground. This area of study will take a great deal of time and may even take six months or more by government officials. We will report to you as soon as all of the reports are in. No construction can be done involving water and sewer until reports and approvals are given.

2) Estimate of total cost of construction, right now is $240,000 ± (depending on water and sewer requirements, etc.). The Camp Committee will be studying funding proposals and will submit them to the Finance Committee for approval and ultimately to the assocation. We would encourage interested individuals to make contributions for any of these projects as they may feel led to do.

Ernest H. Ferrell, Chairman

Report of the Christian Life Committee

The Christian Life Committee was busy last year. Our primary task last year was the establishment of a one day-a-week pastoral counseling service in our association with he Life Enrichment Center of Raleigh.

Dr. Lyman Ferrell, a staff member of LEC, and husband of Velma Ferrell, our Duke Campus Minister, is serving as the counselor. The service is available on Mondays at Immanuel Baptist Church. To assist us with appointments Mrs. Nellie Ball is working as he center receptionist.

The first year, February through July 2, saw 85 appointments made. I am sure many more have been made since July. It has been meeting as very real need. Our hope is, in the future to increase the service to two days.

Our committee attempted to have a political forum with gubernatorial candidates and senatorial candidates. We discovered however, that Baptists are not considered to be or have a strong influence in politics thus there was no real interest on the part of the candidates for our proposed forum.

Another major task was to register opposition to Durham Cablevision's attempt to add pornography to your T.V. diet with the addition of the Playboy Channel. We are happy to announce this was a very successful effort. However, we would remind everyone that there will be more battles to come over this poison.

We are planning a conference/workshop for February 21, 1985 on "Parenting in the 80s." Please put this on your calendar now.

Thank you for your prayers and support as we continue to serve Christ by serving you.

Report of the Community Ministries Committee

Community Ministries broadly defined covers a wide range of crises which many o our friends face everyday. Your committee is seeking to zero in on some "reachable" goals for the coming year. We have had several very meaningful meetings, as we hav sought to define our tasks, and fine-tune our senses as well as try to hear the cries fo help all around us.

We are convinced that whether it is the giving of groceries from our pantry, helpin one to stay warm, or befriending those in prison, it must all be done in the name an spirit of our dear Lord.

Thank you for supporting our food-for-needy program. The pantry has blessed man during the past years. When your church is listed to help replenish the pantry, pleas give your share.

One family which I had the blessing of carrying these bags of groceries to, really blessed my heart. The mother is almost totally bedridden, and her husband's health is failing They are both in their seventies, with a teenage grandson to support. If you could hav seen the faces of these dear people, as we brought the bags in, you would have bee blessed beyond your imaginations.

I can still see that grandfather and hear him thanking God for Yates Baptist Association's caring. He was like a little child at Christmas, as he went through the bags, bringing item after item to the bedroom and saying, "Look, Mom, this is exactly what w need," or "this is my favorite food."

I think I also heard another voice saying, "In as much as you have done it to the lea of these my brethren, you have done it also unto me."

The Community Ministries programs of service are going to expand during the coming year. The prison ministry is one area which is very exciting and promising. Pray fo Rev. Boyce Kimball as he seeks to meet needs in that area.

Report of the Deacon Committee

The Deacon Committee had two profitable meetings - May 15 and July 12 - toward planning for a Deacon Ministry Workshop, "Co-Laborers in Ministry," will be the theme of this associational-wide deacon workshop. This significant meeting is planned for Tuesday, March 19, 1985, at Calvary Church, and will be for all deacons, active and inactive, and even those who aspire toward being a deacon or deaconess. Tentative plans are as follows:

Group Meeting - 7:00-7:30 p.m.
  Hymn/Welcome/Prayer
  Testimonies on Deacons and Stewardship; Deaconess and Ministry
  Inspirational Message - Rev. Crate Jones
Conference Meetings - 7:30-8:15 p.m.; 8:15-9:00 p.m.
  Personal Witnessing - Dr. Delos Miles
  Personal Hospitality Ministry - Chaplain Elizabeth Wood
  Personal Family Ministry - Dr. Burrel Lucas

Excitement is growing about this workshop. We have over 500 active deacons in our association. So you see the large attendance that we are anticipating. Pastors, staff and deacons, this time of learning and sharing is for you.

James E. West. Chairman

Report of the Evangelism Committee

The Evangelism Committee has met on several occasions since the arrival of our director of missions and has engaged in planning for several important future events.

In the short-term, a conference is planned for November 2-3, 1984, on "Unleashing he Church." The Rev. Frank Tillapaugh of Bear Valley Baptist Church of Denver, Colorado will lead this conference which focuses on helping lay people discover gifts and channels for ministry outside the walls of the church. By engaging in a variety of ministries which confront the needs of the secular world, the unleashed church can carry out effective, authentic, evangelism and discipleship. The conference will focus on the Biblical basis for the unleashed church, and how to unleash the church for ministry.

The committee also is making plans for serious and beneficial lay witness training emphases in 1985. We urge pastors to be aware of this training and plan to bring three lay people to participate. This is primarily preparation for the "Good News, America --God Loves You" nationwide simultaneous revivals in 1986. We urge pastors and churches to be aware of both these evangelistic emphases in their long-range planning.

Report of the Missions Committee

In last year's Missions Committee Report we proudly shared concerning the starting f new work on Leesville Road, the Lynns Crossroad Mission. Since that report this mission has acquired 10 acres of prime land and a house which they are using for worship. Do continue to be in prayer concerning this growing new work.

Most of our effort in the past year has focused on beginning new work in the Bahama area. Through the cooperation of the Home Mission Board, Baptist State Conventio of North Carolina, and Southeastern Seminary, we had two praxis workers during th summer months. Both students at Southeastern Seminary, Ricky Hayes and Chri Fuller, did extensive surveying in the Bahama area and by the end of the summer ha started a home Bible Study. These student workers were aided greatly by the pastor an people of Red Mountain Baptist Church. As the summer concluded, again through th work of the students and the people of Red Mountain, the Bahama Mission was meetin each Sunday in the gymnasium of the Little River School and constituted with eigh members and an average attendance of 25. Presently Rev. Ken Price is serving as pasto at the mission, and Sunday evening services have been added. Your prayerful support i needed as we continue with this exciting mission opportunity.

A portion of our time at the conclusion of this year has been spent in preparation fo a PACT Blitz to be held in our association in cooperation with the Raleigh Baptis Association in November of 1985. PACT stands for Project: Assistance to Churches i Transition and will be offered to all of our churches in transitional areas who desir planning and preparation for their future ministry. This opportunity is made availabl to us through the Home Mission Board and the Baptist State Convention.

Our committee continues to oversee the work of Rev. Tom Jordan in the Public Safety Chaplaincy Program. This continues to be a vital and growing ministry. The priso and jail chaplaincy which we began last year is now under the direction of the Community Ministries Committee.

I have had the opportunity of chairing this committee some four or five years. It ha been a real blessing to me, and I trust that you will continue to be in prayer that God wi use the Missions Committee in a great way in the years to come.

Report of the Radio & Television Committee

(Report of the Acts Board of Durham)

The work of the ACTS Board of Durham thus far has been that of preparation and laying ground work for a future ministry through local cable TV. The board met on numerous occasions in the last year. At this point, 15 churches have given serious commitment to the work of sponsoring a local ACTS affiliate in Durham Cablevision. We have determined that the cost of a broadcast station of any power level is beyond our means at this time. The alternative of cable TV requires an investment of only 10-20 thousand dollars. In addition, each ACTS Board member church must contribute 10 cents per month. We urge all uninvolved churches to become a part of the ACTS Board.

Our most pressing challenge is to obtain a channel from Durham Cablevision. The availability is small and the demand great. Meeting with Cablevision officials has thus far yielded few results; but, we intend to continue until God grants a successful conclusion to our efforts. The ongoing work to acquire a channel will be greatly aided by a recent survey conducted in a number of our churches. It will help demonstrate the serious need for quality programming, such as ACTS will provide.

Those involved believe this ministry to be one which can pay tremendous dividends in the years ahead. In our media-oriented culture, we must convey the gospel by means of television, yet do this with integrity. ACTS offers the perfect vehicle to accomplish this goal.

Mac Bare, Chairman

(Report of the Baptist TelNet Committee)

As a result of the feasibility study the BTN Feasibility Committee was asked to make, we wish to make the following recommendation to Yates Baptist Association.

Whereas our committee held two awareness meetings to inform churches of our association about BTN,

Whereas our committee surveyed the churches in the association and received responses from 41%,

Whereas based on the above and our own personal study we wish to make the following recommendation.

We, the BTN Feasibility Committee, recommend as the funds become available the association should purchase the necessary equipment to receive the BTN signal and to make these programs available to the churches in our association by way of video tape.

Report of the Senior Adults

The Senior Adult group of the Yates Association has had another great year. Attendance at the quarterly meetings with a hundred or more present has indicated the desire of senior adults to be together in good fellowship. As days and years go by the need to be together increases and friendships grow.

The programs during this year have been interesting and stimulating. In November the meeting was at Gorman and we had the pleasure of hearing the Gorman Senior Adult group present the new musical for adults, "He's My Father," under the direction of Herbert Gray. It was inspiring to have Dr. Harry E. Byrd, our missionary home on furlough, give a report on the work in Guatemala and to acquaint us with the political situation in this country, at our meeting at Edgemont in February. Mrs. Ann Johnson, executive director of the Durham Coordinating Council for Senior Citizens, spoke and showed slides on the opportunities for help available through the Council at the May meeting at Angier Avenue. At Carrboro in August it was delightful to have Mrs. Betty Eagle give a concert of familiar songs. She inspired all of us to use our talents for others.

Travel still plays an important part in the lives of senior adults many of whom have not had this opportunity before. Some of the places visited have been Niagara Falls, Toronto, Nova Scotia and the Maritime Provinces, Nashville, Mobile, Natchez and New Orleans. Several groups went to Europe and witnessed the Oberammergau Passion Play, this year being the 350th anniversary of the play.

Conferences and retreats at Caraway and Ridgecrest continue to attract many senior adults. Also a group attended an adult conference in Gatlinburg, Tennessee.

Do you enjoy being with others in wonderful Christian fellowship? Then there is a place for you at the Yates Senior Adult quarterly meetings in November, February, May and August as we share a covered-dish luncheon. Won't you join us?

Report of the Singles 30-50

Singles 30-50 of the Yates Baptist Association had a great year in 1983-84. Some 45 ersons representing at least 20 association churches participated in our gatherings hich were held the second Saturday of each month. Officers of the group responded to ivitations from two churches to inform their membership of the purpose of Singles 0-50. Our goal is to provide social opportunities for Christian singles ages 30-50 in an tmosphere that promotes Christian values. Included in our monthly activities were a hristmas drama, a visit to the North Carolina Zoological Park and a trip to Snow amp for an outdoor drama. During the year, group members shared their joys as well s their sorrows - the joy of a marriage of a member and the sorrow of several bereaved embers. Our group greatly appreciated the efforts of the association in helping Yates hurch publicize the Singles Seminar held at the church in February. A special thanks to nna Abel, secretary, and Richard Billings, program chairman, and all those "unnam-d" people who contributed so much. As the number of single adults increases in the ates Association, the need will continue for an active support group for Christian ingles. We look forward to another great year.

Report of the Singles Over 50

The first Saturday of each month is a time that Singles Over 50 look forward to. For early 10 years those who have never married, or are single because of death, divorce or eparation meet for a good time of fellowship and inspiration. We welcome new embers to our organization. During the past year we have lost one member because of eath and another, the president, Inez Ferguson, left because of marriage.

Meeting places vary between a cafeteria and the churches. When meeting at a afeteria, it is at 4:30 so the group can get away before the Saturday night trade arrives. eetings at the churches are covered dish, or the church hosting supplies refreshments. he program chairmen have kept the group well entertained and informed. At the ecember meeting we were honored with a mini-concert by the talented blind singer, etty Eagle. The July meeting was also an outstanding one as we welcomed our director f missions, Marvin Settle and his family. Mr. Settle challenged us in a very wonderful ay. At the same meeting, Mr. and Mrs. John Laverty shared their talents with intruental and vocal selections.

We have ministered to others through giving Gideon Bibles and money to the Salva-on Army and Rescue Mission. The secretary is careful to send get well cards and sym-athy cards as the needs arise.

We look forward to a 10th anniversary meeting, March of 1985.

Report of the Student Work Committee

Yates Baptist Association is unique in that two major universities, the University of orth Carolina at Chapel Hill and Duke University, are located within its geographical oundaries. The associaton supports Baptist Student Unions on both of these campuses, through both its budget and the Student Work Committee. In return BSU students ar involved in outreach ministries within the association. Outreach teams lead yout meetings and retreats, worship services, and special programs on campus ministry. Th Carolina BSU has a 50-voice choir which is available for worship and concerts, and th Duke BSU has an ongoing nursing home ministry in Durham.

Funding is a must within the association to keep strong ongoing activities for thes students. We are most grateful for both the foresight and the insight of the associationa Finance Committee in providing necessary funds for such activities. The committee ha placed in its 1984 budget amounts of $3,100 for UNC and $1,300 for Duke for the Student Affairs Committee and its activities. Our thanks to those on the committee wh have given time and work for providing opportunities for our youth.

Report of Yates Village, Inc.

In May 1983 the Yates Baptist Association in a board meeting appointed nine truste of Yates Village, Inc. and approved guidelines for organization and annual reporting

The trustees have qualified Yates Village for IRS tax exempt donations, adopte development programs emphasizing spiritual relationships of occupants to their loca church, health care programs as need justifies, long-term financial solvency of th home, and quality of design and construction to maintain value and desirability of th physical plant.

Land use and site plans, apartment building designs, cost of entrance and progra maintenance, and initial health care space, are established. Long-term financial stabilit is planned, and a development financing program begun.

The development fund raising program was started last spring, shows promise of providing most of the necessary funds. The trustees and committee were not able to complete most of the soliciting in the short time period, but from a hundred contacts an replies gained donation commitments for about $120,000. Also, one individual notifie the board that he has incorporated in his will to provide about $150,000 for operationa needs. There are encouraging indications of other donations.

The trustees feel that item number 2 of Statment of Intention from the receipt of th original eight acres, "It is understood and agreed that in the event that a substantia beginning is not made on the Retirement Village by June 1, 1984 that it will be returne to the grantors' donors in the same manner in which it has been received.", has bee met with the fund raising program conducted, curbing, guttering, water, and sewe added to the sight and applications being accepted.

Residency information is available to interested persons, copies are sent to all membe churches, and additional copies are at the Yates Association office. Application an contract forms have been requested by approximately 30 persons in the past month Comments indicated general acceptance and appreciation of the program, location plans and prices. There is reluctance to commit to plans before any construction is done It is anticipated that applications for occupancy will increase substantially when construction begins.

The trustees are providing incentives to encourage early commitment, as in refun policy and initial prices. When sufficient qualified applicants indicate their choice o Yates Village with deposit payments, construction of homes soon will begin. The earlies occupancy may be the middle of next summer.

The trustees greatly appreciate the careful review of their work by the association, and the financial support and encouragement of many local Baptists.

All Baptists can help this program by:

(1) advising elderly people who may soon need Yates Village
(2) encouraging donations for development funds, for tax exempt benefits and for help to people who need these services and cannot now afford them
(3) helping develop spiritual and recreational enrichment programs for the occupants.

Then Yates Baptist Association will be helping some of our very deserving friends with a type of care through Christian ministry that many need.

Respectfully submitted,
Fred Herndon, Chairman

Report of the Youth Council

Due to some indecision in leadership of this committee until late spring there were only two events this year. In May we went to the Youth Evangelism Conference and in September we held a youth rally.

Once again transportation was provided and enough kids to fill five buses met at Guess Road Church to go to Winston-Salem and the Youth Evangelism Conference. However, only two buses showed up due to a foul-up by the bus company. The churches that had buses and vans pitched in together and moved the youth on to the conference. A little adversity, a little character built.

First Church hosted the youth rally in September attended by youth from some 20 churches. Bob and Esther Burroughs led "Walking the Talk." Youth of the association participated in a choir, reading scripture and one solo. The youth were challenged to realize their gifts and give them to the Lord. Many responded.

Please consider participating and encouraging the youth of your church to come to future events.

Respectfully submitted,
Fulton Hartzog, Chairman

Report of the Auditor

We have examined the statement of assets, liabilities and fund balances arising from cash transactions of Yates Baptist Association as of December 31, 1983 and 1982, and the related statement of revenues collected and expenditures paid for the years then ended. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and, accordingly, included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

As described in Note No. 1, the association's policy is to prepare its financial statements on the basis of cash receipts and disbursements; consequently, certain revenues and the related assets are recognized when received rather than when earned, and certain expenses are recognized when paid rather than when the obligation is incurred. Accordingly, the accompanying financial statements are not intended to present financial position and results of operations in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly the assets, liabilities and fund balances arising from cash transactions of Yates Baptist Association as of December 31, 1983 and 1982, and the revenues collected and expenditures paid during the years then ended, on the basis of accounting described in Note No. 1, which basis has been applied in a manner consistent with that of the preceding year.

History of Farrington Road Baptist Church

The church was organized August 23, 1979. It was named New Hope Baptist Church. The church called Rev. Jimmy L. Nickelston as pastor.

The first service was held on October 7, 1979 at Colonial Preschool Building, on Legion Road in Chapel Hill, North Carolina. The church began with forty-eight (48) charter members.

New Hope Baptist Church received help from sister churches in the form of hymn books, chairs, and furniture.

The first budget totaled $32,555.00.

In May 1980 New Hope Baptist Church began the study of Journey Into Lifestyle Evangelism and Ministry. This led up to a Renewal Weekend, October 17-19, 1980.

On September 28, 1980 the church adopted a constitution and bylaws.

In August 1981 New Hope Baptist Church acquired the deed to seven (7) acres of land on Farrington Road. This land was donated to the church by Mrs. Cleora Hudson.

In October 1981 the name of the church was changed from New Hope Baptist Church to Farrington Road Baptist Church.

The church experienced two moves during 1982. On September 19, 1982, Farrington Road Church members moved to Coggin Plaza on the Chapel Hill Boulevard, and in November 1982 the church moved to the Channel 28 building on Highway 54.

Construction began on a new building in September 1983. The building was occupied on Sunday, June 17, 1984.

Farrington Road Bpatist Church held a Service of Dedication on Sunday, October 21, 1984.

History of West Durham Baptist Church

In the autumn of 1892 in a one-room box house on Ferrell Street, Durham, North Carolina, the West Durham Baptist Church was organized. The Rev. W.H. Stanfield was the organizer and first pastor. Under the pastorate of Rev. Stanfield, a small new building was erected about 20 feet by 30 feet in dimension.

It is significant that after the pastorate of Rev. Thompson who served the church for about 12 months, Rev. Stanfield the organizer, became the minister and served the church for a few years. The exact number of years of his second pastorate is unknown, but a number of candidates were baptized and added to the church. A part of the Stanfield family still holds membership in the West Durham Baptist Church.

It was under the pastor, the Rev. Simmons, that an annex was built to the church and the membership was increased.

Succeeding Rev. Simmons came the Rev. J.T. Peace. During his pastorate the church enjoyed prosperity and grew spiritually as well as financially. The last annex was built to the church building located on Ferrell Street, and during this time many members were added to the church.

The successor of Rev. Peace was Rev. Scott. This minister served the church faithfully until his death. Rev. Johnson became the first pastor to be called by death while serving as minister of the church. During the shepherding of Rev. Johnson the church purchased the lot on Thaxton Avenue where the church was later built and served as the place of worship for 46 years. Very little had been done to liquidate the debt on the newly purchased lot, however, when Rev. Johnson became ill, but the lot was in the possession of the church at his death.

The Rev. T.A. Grady became the next pastor. Rev. Grady developed the members along the lines of organization as well as along other lines. The indetedness on the land purchased was greatly reduced.

At the close of the pastorate of Rev. Grady, the Rev. Thomas Carr Graham, was called as minister. His pastorate was from March 1921 - July 1964, a period of 43 years. With the cooperation of the church officers, Rev. Graham immediately formulated plans to finish paying for the land purchased on Thaxton Avenue and to outline a building program for the anticipated new church. In presenting this program to the people, the pastor stressed the importance of true Christian stewardship. He emphasized that the church must be financed only by freewill offerings and tithes in accordance with Biblical teachings rather than by selling, contests, raffles or other artificial means. The church sanctuary located on Thaxton Avenue was completed in August 1924, and the finances had been raised and paid out, with a membership of less than 200 people.

Through the faithful and progressive leadership of Rev. T.C. Graham, the church ade steady progress. In the early part of 1939, he suggested and recommended that a uilding be erected for the church school, and through the faithful cooperation of the fficers and the congregation an Educational Building was completed in the fall of the ame year (1939). The West Durham Baptist Church became the first black congrega- on in Durham to build an Educational Building, which provided for religious educa- on and wholesome recreation. A few years later the first pipe organ was installed in the ain sanctuary.

In 1947, under the inspiration and leadership of Rev. Graham, a brick-veneering pro- ect was undertaken and completed.

After the death of Dr. T.C. Graham, Rev. Frederick D. Terry became pastor for six ears. Great improvement in organization and spiritual growth took place under Rev. r. Frederick Terry. The present building was built under his leadership. However, Rev. erry left one year after the great project of building the church had been finished.

In 1972 Rev. Dr. Harold J. Cobb was called as pastor. Many things have happened r the betterment of the church. The membership has increased along with the Sunday chool. The church parking lot was paved and a day-care center was started under Rev. obb's leadership. He has reorganized the missionary program into mission districts, nd has formed the Youth Commission. The church mortgage was paid off under the adership of the present pastor. We thank God for the vision of the pastor and the dedi- ated membership that undertook this great task. To God be the glory.

ARTICLE I. NAME

ARTICLE II. PURPOSE

The purpose of this Association shall be to provide a convenient and orderly mean for the extension of the ministry of the cooperating Baptist churches in Durham Count and portions of Chatham and Orange counties which support the programs of the Baptist State Convention and the Southern Baptist Convention.

The confession of faith of this Association shall be the "Baptist Faith and Message' with its five-point statement of the historic Baptist conception of the nature and function of confessions of faith in our religious and denominational life as adopted by th Southern Baptist Convention in 1963 at Kansas City.

(Five-Point Statement from "The Baptist Faith and Message")

(1) That they constitute a concensus of opinion of some Baptist body, large or smal for the general instruction and guidance of our own people and others concerning thos articles of the Christian faith which are most surely held among us. They are not intended to add anything to the simple conditions of the salvation revealed in the Ne Testament, viz, repentance towards God and faith in Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord

(2) That we do not regard them as complete statements of our faith, having any qual ty of finality of infallibility. As in the past, so in the future Baptists should ho themselves free to revise their statements of faith as may seem to them wise and exp dient at any time.

(3) That any group of Baptists, large or small, have the inherent right to draw up f themselves and publish to the world a confession of their faith whenever they may thin it advisable to do so.

(4) That the sole authority for faith and practice among Baptists is the Scriptures o the Old and New Testaments. Confessions are only guides in interpretation, having n authority over the conscience.

During miscellaneous business, Rev. Fred Williams of Cedar Fork presented a plan for building the new office. If $200,000 is borrowed to be paid back over a 20-year period, the interest would amount to $280,000 making a total amount of $480,000 or, for each $1.00 borrowed equals $2.40 to be paid back. Over a three-year period @10 1/2% we would pay $71,000 with $61,000 going to the bank and only $10,000 toward the building. He suggested the following incentives for reducing the amount to be borrowed.

He challenged the deacons and pastors to present programs to their churches. He is going to challenge his deacons to give at least $1,000 to the association toward the building; and think personally what you can give to the association up front. To show his personal commitment to this idea he presented his personal check to DOM Settle.

Rev. Settle accepted the challenge and announced that he and his wife would give $1,000 to this project over the next year.

In recognition of the churches in the association that have grown 10% or more in the last five years, Rev. Settle presented certificates to the following: Cedar Fork - 10%; Westwood - 12%; Calvary - 13%; Mt. Moriah - 16%; Faith - 21%; Hope Valley - 22%; Mt. Gilead - 25%; Red Mountain - 34%; Ridgecrest - 51%; and Homestead Heights 94%.

This indicated that 10 churches out of 53 showed growth. Any church interested in knowing more about how to accomplish growth should attend the Church Growth Conference that will be held on November 25, at First Baptist Church. Truman Brown from the Sunday School Board will be leading this conference, as well as others in different areas. There will be two sessions - during the day for pastors and that night for laypersons.

Rev. Settle presented the three special awards to the following:

LAY LEADER - Floyd Rhodes of First Baptist Church for many years of providing invaluable service in taping all board meetings of the association as well as the annual session.

MINISTER OF THE YEAR - Everette Smith. Rev. Smith has been pastor Lakewood Baptist Church for 18 years and has served the association many capacities. Also, he is the creator of the unique and humorous adve tisements of his church that appear in the newspapers, plus he was an initiat of the ministers' breakfast that continues to meet weekly.

CHURCH OF THE YEAR - Mount Hermon Baptist Church. Mount Herm contributes the highest percentage of any of the churches to the associatio and even though they are in a building program they have not cut any of the offerings to missions. This church also achieved some "firsts" this year wi increases in church enrollment, Sunday School and baptisms. The pastor ar others in the church are actively involved in the association.

A plaque of appreciation was presented to Travis Clements who has served moderator for the last two years. Rev. Settle said it was an honor for Mr. Clements to b selected to this position and Mr. Clements has served well.

Report of the Sunday School

The 1984-85 Sunday School year was one of evaluation, goal setting, planning and raining.

Following a training session for all ASSISTeam members, led by Mr. Phil Stone of he NCBC Sunday School Department, we set about the task of evaluating the needs of our churches. We sought such information as: the types of curriculums presently being used, whether weekly worker meetings were being conducted, whether churches have a graded Sunday School, whether churches set enrollment goals, how can the ASSISTeam help the local church, etc.

From the information gathered we were able to establish goals and means to attain hese goals. Over the next three years the ASSISTeam is planning to provide, in addition o the association-wide conferences, personalized training to meet specific needs in a specific church. This particular method of training will enable the ASSISTeam to be more effective.

In addition to our planning sessions the ASSISTeam encouraged our churches to set enrollment goals and to have their pastor attend the January Ministers' Conference. Rev. Bobby Bodehamer, pastor of Grace Baptist Church in Gastonia, spoke to the group on the subject, "The Pastor's Role in Sunday School Growth."

Also, in May, Yates Baptist Church hosted an "Effective Workershop." The workshop was designed to help churches start weekly workers meetings and tell how to enlist new workers.

In May, Holloway Street Baptist Church hosted our annual VBS Clinic. Mrs. Darlene Harrill was the Associational VBS Director.

In July several of the members of the ASSISTeam attended Sunday School Week Ridgecrest. We were able to attend this conference thanks in part to the First Bapti Church for the use of their cottage.

Plans are finalized for a September 24, Special Sunday School Workshop for chu ches who have ministries to or are planning ministries to the mentally retarded, colle students, singles and cradle roll. The conference will be held at Grace Baptist Churc 7:00-9:30 p.m.

An October 8 conference led by the NCBSC Sunday School Department is plann for First Baptist Church, 7:00-9:30 p.m. The title of the conference is "Teaching Reach & Win." The ASSISTeam hopes you will encourage your Sunday School leade ship to attend.

Your ASSISTeam can only stand ready to help you. Will you please take the initiati and call on us for help?

Report of the Brotherhood

The year 1985 has been a good one for Baptist Men and Royal Ambassadors in our association. Men have continued to become actively involved in missions within Yates Baptist Association, the state and beyond. Some new groups have started and some existing strengthened.

Our R.A. Camp participation has increased during the summer months. The R.A. Track Meet and Crusader Car Competition continue to be exciting events for the boys.

In the July 1985 Association Board meeting, a joint Brotherhood/Community Ministries association project was approved. It involves renovation of Agape Corners, a home on Liberty Street housing a ministry to troubled children from the Few Gardens project area. Baptist Men are volunteering their time and talents in this project - a great homeland community Christian witness opportunity for men, women and boys.

The year 1986 looks ever more exciting with mission opportunities and growth in Brotherhood. We are looking for a 10 percent growth during 1986. We intend to support and encourage this growth through prayer, increased training for leaders, increased associational leadership contact with individual churches, Agape Corners project, and special, meaningful events for men and boys.

Report of Woman's Missionary Union

"By Love Compelled" has been the emphasis for this year. "Our love should not be just words and talk; it must be true love, which shows itself in action." (I John 3:18 TEV)

Members of Woman's Missionary Union of the Yates Baptist Association have been compelled by Christ's love this year to seek wider areas of ministry, witnessing and prayer.

They received training in ministry, witnessing and leadership at our leadership conference on September 21 led by our associational officers after receiving training themselves at Caraway Conference Center and Ridgecrest Baptist Conference Center in August.

In October a group of our Baptist Young Women attended BYW Conference at Ridgecrest Baptist Conference Center. We have three newly formed BYW organizations in our association.

Our G.A.'s held a "Mock Camp Out" at Grey Stone in October. On June 27, we had our first G.A. Day Camp at Northgate Park with 72 attending. Special guests shared with the girls ways of ministering to the deaf.

Our Baptist Women were busy baking dozens of homemade cookies in December to show our love for the women living at Woman's Prison in Raleigh. We continue to share in meeting the needs of those in our community through assisting the local soup kitchen, the Durham Rescue Mission, our associational food pantry, Murdoch Center and Durham Mental Health.

This year two of our acteens have served on the State Acteens Advisory Panel. This is an honor as only six are chosen statewide. Congratulations to Sarah Eckel from Cresset and Cathy Isaacs from Grace.

We had over 300 in attendance at our annual meeting at Angier Avenue in April. Re and Mrs. James P. Kirk, retired missionaries to Brazil, challenged us “By Love Con pelled - to Go Around the World” through our prayers, witness and our offerings. Sa Ann Hobbs, Director of the Division of Missions, Baptist State Convention, share with us plans for our Centennial Celebration of W.M.U. of North Carolina and th Southern Baptist Convention in 1986. The climax was our evening speaker - Miss Alm Hunt, retired Executive Secretary of the W.M.U. of the S.B.C., who shared with u “By Love Compelled to be a Witness.”

Our women had a wonderful opportunity to visit the Yates Baptist Association Cam on May 18, and share in a morning of Bible study, prayer, testimonies, music and fe lowship at our “Living in His Love” prayer retreat. Miss Virginia Highfill, retired mi sionary to Japan, challenged us to “Live in His Love Through Witnessing.”

Woman's Missionary Union is the largest woman's group specifically committed t missions in the world. In 1986 we will celebrate the fact that God in His providence ha called us together and made us a part of a tremendous organization that teaches mi sions, engages in mission action and personal witnessing, supports missions and unde girds the work of the church and the denomination. If your church doesn't have an a tive W.M.U. won't you let us assist you in organizing one during 1986? It only takes concerned pastor and one dedicated woman to begin a W.M.U. in your church. there's already a W.M.U. in your church, are you an active member? If not, won't yo help us reach our growth goal by becoming an active member and also enroll your chi dren in our youth organizations.

CHOICES! - By Lew T. King

The Council has worked hard to prepare for a good experience for the annual meeting. It will be our privilege to have the composer, Mr. Lew T. King, here to direct the musical. We anticipate having well over 100 voices singing, full orchestra and drama in the presentation.

Our Council has worked hard this past year, and we are grateful for the opportunity to serve.

Report of Laubach

Illiteracy is coming more and more to the forefront as we live in such a highly technological society. With our super highways, monitors in airline terminals, the computer age, and more and more forms to fill out, it is becoming more important for everyone to read on a higher level. We have held five workshops this year and trained 54 volunteers to work with those persons who are handicapped because of their inability to read. We plan to hold at least five workshops during the coming year. The director attended the North Carolina Literacy Conference at Laurinburg in May and will attend the fall State Baptist Conference at Caraway.

Pray for us as we continue to reach out in this endeavor that we may also reach them for Christ.

Report of the Camp Committee

The primary concerns regarding water and sewer requirements mentioned by Ernes Ferrell in his report a year ago have continued to demand the attention of the Cam Committee during the past year. Studies of the camp property by a representative of th County Health Department have revealed that less than one acre of the total property i suitable for installation of a septic tank. Investigation of alternative methods of meetin sewer requirements indicates that such methods would be very costly and would requir the sacrifice of a considerable amount of our most desirable land which is badly neede for other purposes.

We have also been forced to recognize that our water supply may not be adequate t support the kind of development approved by you last year. At present our several well are being cleaned out so that a determination can be made with respect to the adequac of the water supply and the further development of the camp.

In the meanwhile, the Camp Committee is trying to do everything possible to mair tain the camp and to maximize the resources we already have in such a way as to serv the association to the fullest extent possible.

Currently we are in the process of registering the camp property with the North Carc lina Wildlife Resources Commission. The purpose of registration is to improve contrc and to prevent unauthorized use of our property by users of adjacent property which i under the supervision of the Commission.

We encourage your use of the camp and will welcome your comments and sugge: tions for improvement.

Report of the Christian Life Committee

The work of our one-day-a-week counseling service continues to provide a muc needed service. Currently we are averaging 20-25 kept appointments per month. Thes services are provided on a sliding scale so everyone who would have the need fc counseling can have it.

We are concerned with one of the recommendations of the Strategy Planning (Prior ty 3:5B). For our counseling service to be self-supporting would mean everyone woul be charged set fees in the range of $50-$75 per hour. Many who need counseling cannc afford these prices. Our dream is that we will continue to have a vision of ministry an not become just another service agency.

We have continued to keep an eye on the pornography situation in our area. Agair major breakthroughs can be reported. Two drive-in theatres previously showing onl X-rated movies have changed and are showing other type movies.

We held a conference on Parenting in the '80's. We had an excellent staff but you response was worse than lousy. Other conferences, as mandated by the Strategy Plann ing, are in the making for the coming year.

As we close out this year we welcome a new chairperson, the Reverend Dennis Hil pastor of Immanuel Baptist Church. It has been my joy to serve you for the past thre years. Please pray for Dennis and the work of the committee.

Report of the Community Ministries Committee

The work of the Community Ministries Committee this past year has been directed oward two tasks: expanding the prison ministry and involving churches in the renovaion of Agape Corners.

Under the direction of Rev. Boyce Kimball, the Yates Baptist Association has begun a rison ministry to the inmates at the Guess Road Prison Camp. On the last Wednesday f each month, about 25-35 prisoners meet together with Rev. Kimball in a time of Bible tudy, sharing of testimonies, singing and fellowship. With about 140 men incarcerated t the Guess Road Prison, we realize that sooner or later each of these men will be re-eased - but how will they come out??? Will they leave as a better person or worse than hen they entered?? This is the concern that each of our churches must have. We need ore churches in our association that will help support this ministry by sharing with hese men once a month.

The other task that the Community Ministries Committee has undertaken this year is elping a local ministry called Agape Corners. Located at 1402 Holloway Street, Agape orners is a large home where underprivileged youth and troubled women are being inistered to in the name of Jesus by Ms. Louise Rouderbush. The Community inistries Committee has joined with the Associational Brotherhood Council to help ncourage our churches to become involved in renovating the home.

Chaplain Elizabeth Wood of Durham County General Hospital spoke on the orth Carolina, spoke on the Deacon's Role in Personal Ministry in Family Crisis.

Rev. Crate Jones (Angier Avenue) brought an inspiring devotion and Bob Atwater Mount Carmel) and Rosa Hampton (Yates) brought inspiring testimonies of deacon inistry.

Twenty-eight churches (177 persons) were present for this Deacon Ministry orkshop. It is the hope of the Deacon Committee that we will be able to schedule an nnual Deacon Workshop for our association.

Report of the Evangelism Committee

Our major efforts this past year have been centered on getting things ready for th simultaneous crusades set for March 1986. This emphasis was kicked off with a peopl search/scripture distribution on October 20, 1985, with 21 churches participating in thi effort.

Next March (1986) churches will participate in simultaneous revivals. To date 31 churches have signed up to participate in this simultaneous effort.

In the period between the people search and the revivals, participating churches ar expected to cultivate their prospects from the people search to a point where decision for Christ and church membership will be made during the simultaneous revivals.

History indicates that when we as a denomination engaged in such simultaneou revival endeavors, Christ was glorified in the great increase of professions of faith. I would be great if our association would have 750 baptisms in 1986 as a direct result o our simultaneous efforts.

Pray for an outpouring of the Holy Spirit during our weeks ahead.

Report of the Missions Committee

The Missions Committee has focused its ministry in several areas. First, we have continued to offer our assistance to the Leesville Road Mission and the Bahama Mission Both missions are growing and have constituted as churches. We are grateful to th sponsoring churches, Durham Memorial and Red Mountain, respectively.

Second the PACT (Project Assistance for Churches in Transition) Blitz wa somewhat successful. Because only three churches participated, the PACT studies ar being done as long term PACT studies instead of the PACT Blitz format. PACT i geared to help churches in transitional areas and is jointly sponsored by Yates Association, the Baptist State Convention, and the Home Mission Board. The following churches are participating: Edgemont, Lakewood, and Grace.

Third, the New Jerusalem Baptist Church, (a black congregation), will be voted upo to come under watchcare of our association. Let us welcome Rev. John L. Caldwell pastor, and this fine congregation as they become supportive of our Yates Baptist Association and related ministries.

The Bahama Baptist Church will be voted upon to come under watchcare of Yate Baptist Association. Let us also welcome this fine congregation and their pastor, Rev Ken Price, into our fellowship.

Fourth, two PRAXIS teams were assigned to our association this summer. Rick an Cooky Kuter ministered in the American Village area, and Fred and Sherry Hilde ministered in the Umstead Road (Willowhaven) area.

Fifth, a World Missions Conference is scheduled in our association on Septembe 20-27, 1987. Yates Association churches are urged to participate. There will be two sessions: one session for half of participating churches on Sunday-Wednesday and th other half will participate on Wednesday-Sunday.

Sixth, the Missions Committee is continuing to develop Action Plans for 1986-90 t enable our association to more effectively minister in our area.

Seventh, the committee is investigating the most appropriate use of the Garrett Road property.

The Baptist State Convention has agreed to remove the reverter clause ($11,000) from he Garrett Road Property Land Aid gift is the association will give $11,000 to Bahama Mission over the next four years. We have programmed this into our long range budget oals.

The Missions Committee expresses its appreciation to our director of missions, Yates Baptist Association, staff members, and laypersons for the support and assistance that ou have provided for our committee during 1984-85.

Recommendations:

(1) That New Jerusalem Baptist Church come under watchcare of the Yates Baptist Association for a period of at least one year.

(2) That Bahama Baptist Church come under watchcare of the Yates Baptist Association for a period of at least one year.

(3) That Leesville Road Baptist Church be released from watchcare and become a full member of Yates Baptist Association.

Report of the Ordinations Committee

In the course of the past year, the Ordinations Committee of Yates Baptist Association, at the request of the ordaining church, examined the faith and practice of the following men and recommended their ordination to the gospel ministry.

Candidate	Ordaining Church	Date of Council
Ken Price	Park View	January 24, 1985
Robert Talley	Temple	March 24, 1985
Gray Little	Bethesda	April 25, 1985
Philip Bruce	Guess Road	July 22, 1985
Christopher Harrison	Fieldcrest	August 16, 1985
Barry Dodson	Plainview	September 30, 1985

Ordination has been a subject much debated in recent days. The Ordinations Committee urges each Christian to study the Scriptures personally about this issue so that a decision can be made under the leadership of the Holy Spirit instead of the spirit of the imes in which we live or the deadening spirit of the traditions of men.

Since each Southern Baptist Church is autonomous and can choose to ordain a person in its own right, the prevailing philosophy of the committee chairman has been to eek to make plain to the ordaining church just what the belief structure of their candidate is so that they might be able to ordain him in all good conscience.

It was a pleasure to meet with these men and hear how God has been working in their lives. May our wonderful Lord, Jesus Christ, continue to guide them in the days to come!!

Fred M. Williams III, Chairman

Report of the Senior Adults

Senior Adults of the Yates Baptist Association had another great year. Attendanc reached a new high of 150 at one of the four meetings of the year with an average of 10 at the other three. Representatives from several churches not previously attending wer noted. It is the hope of the group that all churches of the association will be enlisted

It was good to have senior adults focused at the annual meeting of the association i October by the inspirational address by Dr. Paul Adkins of the Home Mission Board We want also to thank our Director of Missions Marvin Settle for his interest and support of senior adults in our association.

Fellowship still plays an important role in our activities. As we grow older there is need for making friends and holding on to those made in the past and the senior adul group contributes to this by Christian fellowship.

Varied programs have contributed to the interest of the group and also to the attendance. In November, the Grace Church Senior Adult Handbell Choir brought a be concert and commentary on how bells are played. Mr. Ernie Mills also talked on th work of the Durham Rescue Mission. In February, Floyd and Margaret Rhode presented a slide show on the "Oberammergau Passion Play." In May, Mrs. France Cook of the N.C. Baptist Foundation, gave an informative talk on wills and the man laws connected with establishing trusts. In August, the Rev. Benny Littlejohn and Mik McGhee, the music director at Guess Road, brought a musical program and a dev tional on senior adults taking care of their physical bodies as well as spiritual well being Senior adults continue to travel in the United States and Canada and a group als went to Alaska. Attendance at conferences and retreats at Ridgecrest, Caraway, an Gatlinburg also attracted many during the year.

There is still a great interest in involving senior adults from all churches in the association in our quarterly covered-dish luncheons on the second Thursday of Novembe February, May and August. Senior Adults, please join us.

Report of the Singles Over 50

A meeting to be remembered by the Singles Over 50 was the 10th Anniversary Celebration on March 2, at the Holloway Street Baptist Church. Following a bountiful covered-dish supper the group heard a tape of the organizational meeting. Mrs. Maxine Morgan, formerly of First Church and now residing in Franklin, was the speaker of the night. Mrs. Morgan had been enlisted as a consultant at the time of the organization of the group, so it was fitting that she return.

Meetings have been at the K & W in Chapel Hill, the Western Sizzlin, Picadilly, and several churches. At the December meeting, in lieu of exchanging any gifts, money was given to the Rescue Mission. The group also gave to the Salvation Army and hunger relief in Africa. Memorial gifts of Gideon Bibles were sent on behalf of deceased members.

Excellent programs have been arranged by Darlene Harrill and Ed Kissiah, including the presence of "Minnie Pearl," alias Georgia Baker.

We would like to have singles from more churches to enjoy the great Christian fellowship we experience each month.

Report of the Student Work Committee

The Student Work Committee is charged with responsibility in assisting Baptist student ministries within our association and with assisting churches in ministering to students. With two major universities in our area, this is an especially important area of ministry for Yates Association. We participate in campus ministry through our support of Baptist Student Unions on the Duke and Carolina campuses. These groups provide an ongoing witness and ministry to Baptist, non-Baptist and international students. A number of our churches also make a special effort to serve students through Sunday School classes, providing transportation to services and other forms of outreach. In return, our churches benefit from the enthusiasm and energy students bring with them. Our committee's goals for the coming year are:

(1) To recommend continuing financial and prayer support for Baptist Student Unions at Duke and Carolina,
(2) To increase awareness among churches of opportunities for ministry to and with students,
(3) To provide training opportunities for churches seeking to establish a ministry to college students, and
(4) To investigate possibilities for beginning a ministry to students at Durham Technical Institute. In regard to this last goal, we would appreciate it if churches would forward names of their members who are attending Durham Technical Institute and who may be willing to help establish a ministry there.

I thank the committee for its time, work and interest in this area of ministry.

Report of the Youth Advisory Committee

Due to changes in leadership and committee members on the Youth Advisory Committee, fewer activities took place this past year.

This year, the State Convention offered "Super Summer '85" to our youth. "Supe Summer '85" was a combination of evangelism and discipleship training, sharing music, fun and fellowship that took place from July 10-13, 1985. Training classes fo both youth and youth workers were held at Wake Forest University, July 10-12. On Friday evening, July 12, over 6,000 Southern Baptist youth gathered for an evangelisti crusade held at the Greensboro Coliseum. Linda Dove and Gabriel provided the music Mark Price shared his testimony and Barry St. Clair brought a challenging message. A in years past, Mr. Murray from Temple Baptist Church provided chartered buses fo our youth in the association to attend the crusade. Nine churches took advantage of thi service and brought a total of over 140 youth. Other youth from our association who attended the three-day training sessions joined us in Greensboro.

On September 30, a Back-to-School Skate was provided at Wheels Skating Rink. Th only admission charge was the September 29 church bulletin from their respective churches. Fourteen churches participated with over 130 youth attending.

We look forward to an exciting and rewarding new year in the youth ministries of ou association. Please continue to support your young people as many seek to minister t their lives.

Dear Trustee:

In behalf of the Yates Baptist Association, let me express appreciation to you for your participation as a Yates Village Trustee. You brought helpful insights, hard work, and sincere dedication to the task of developing a senior adult retirement community.

We are all disappointed that we were not able to bring this dream to fruition.

At the called association meeting on May 9, 1985, a substitute motion was presented and passed without any dissenting vote. (A copy of that substitute motion is enclosed.)

As you can see from the substitute motion, the Yates Village Trustees remain in tact until the corporation is fully dissolved by the normal legal processes, and the Yates Village Corporation is responsible for the sale of the property, payment of debts, etc.

Thank you for your participation in Yates Village. I personally appreciate each and every one of you and highly respect you for your talent and hard work you put into this effort.

My door stands open if you would like to come by or call to discuss this motion or Yates Village.

Thank you for all you have done.

Sincerely yours,

Report of the Director of Missions

"A New Day, A New Opportunity, A New Vision"

Anthony Campolo has written a book entitled It's Friday, but Sunday's Comin'. He compares the doom and gloom that surrounded the early Christian church on that fateful Friday when Jesus died on the cross, with the doom and gloom meted out in today's world. Yet, he also points out that amid the doom and gloom of Friday, that Sunday's coming, that glorious day of hope, that glorious day of promises kept, that glorious day of triumph, that glorious day of Jesus' resurrection. That glorious Sunday of renewed joy and excitement can be ours on our Sunday following that gloomy Friday. It is a new day!

The children of Israel rejoiced that God heard their pleas for help and delivered them from the land of Egypt. They had a new opportunity! It was an opportunity to march gloriously into a land promised them, flowing with milk and honey. Yet, because of their lack of vision, because of their selfishness, because of their lack of faith, because of their lack of trust, because of their fears they were forced to walk aimlessly for 40 years in a wilderness, never to enter that promised land.

Only their descendents were allowed to taste that milk and honey.

Peter went up on the housetop to pray. He became hungry and desired something to eat; he fell into a trance and saw the heaven opened, and something descending, like a great sheet, let down by four corners upon the earth. In it were all kinds of animals and reptiles, and birds of the air. And there came a voice to him, "Rise Peter; kill and eat." But Peter said, "No, Lord; for I have never eaten anything that is common or unclean." This, the Bible tells us, happened three times. Peter was perplexed by what the vision meant, but after his visit with Cornelius . . . Peter opened his mouth and said: "Truly, I perceive that God shows no partiality, but in every nation anyone who fears him and does what is right is acceptable to him" . . . the Holy Spirit fell on all who heard the Word.

Peter had a vision for those to whom the Gospel had to be taken. And the course of Christianity was changed.

We, too, have a vision not only to whom the Gospel must be carried, but a vision of methods, approaches, and technology. We have a new vision.

God has given us, the members of the churches of the Yates Baptist Association, A New Day, A New Opportunity, and A New Vision.

Last May this association adopted a bold plan of direction for our association for the next five years. A copy of that plan follows this report.

God has given us a new day. He gives us a new day, every 24 hours. We can look at each day as a Sunday. I prefer to look at each day as a Sunday. God has given us a new day. What will we do with it?

God has given us a new opportunity. Instead of making us wander in the wildernes God has brought to us, a land flowing with milk and honey. The economy is booming Every community is growing. A spiritual awakening is beginning to take place acros our land.

God has given us a new vision. Southern Baptists are a unique and diverse people. W are rich, we are poor. We are young, we are old. We are white, we are black. We ar from the South and we are from the North. And believe it or not, we are even differen on some theological issues. We are still Southern Baptists because of our love for missions, our love for evangelism, and our love for the Bible.

God has given us a new day, a new opportunity, a new vision for this association a found in the Strategy Plan by that title. That plan includes four priorities: Reach People; Develop Believers; Strengthen Missions; and Strengthen Ministers.

If you adopt all of the proposals of the various committees at this annual meeting, w will be well on our way towards bringing to reality 15 of our 49 goals.

Jeremiah 29:11 says, "For I know the plans I have for you, says the Lord, plans fo welfare, and not for evil, to give you a future and a hope."

The Bible, God's Word, reflects God's plan for our world. From Genesis, and th creation of the world, through the prophets, through the birth, death, and resurrectio of His Son, and through the Acts of the Apostles, God has had a plan for us. If ou plans coincide with God's plans, or better yet if our plans are God's plans, He will prosper us and we will fare well.

Our 37-year history is a strong foundation upon which we can build our future Someone has said, "The Past is Prologue." And surely it is. Our past, our 37-yea history at Yates Baptist Association, is only an introduction to our future.

But we must plan for our future. Our rapid growth in recent years has awakened us t vast needs that challenge and tax our resources. Our primary economy has change from mill and tobacco to education and high technology. Our churches, which onc were in rural confines are now in the midst of urban sprawl. Our once thriving churche of the inner city are now facing urban community change.

Our association's strategy plan encourages us to catch today's vision for our association; make the most of our opportunities; and use this new day for all that God woul have it to be.

Oh, I know that change is difficult. I know that change hurts. I know change cause tension - I have seen it in some of our churches in the last 17 months. But one, wise ol sage once said, "You don't get water from the bottom of the well, without a little tension in the rope."

Webster's dictionary defines plan as a "detailed program of action that often stresse imagination scope and vision." Put the emphasis of that definition on program . . . action . . . scope . . . and vision and you have the heart of our strategy planning report

The are obviously some new and some major things to consider. First of all we mus consider if it is the Lord's will as we progress. Secondly, money, time, prayer and effo will be required for implementation. Our history, our heritage proves that we ar capable of doing whatever God leads us to do. Such will be our future.

The association is Missions with a Personal Touch. Our mission effort certainly has New Day, A New Opportunity, and A New Vision.

That is our future, for where there is no vision, the people perish (Prov. 29:18)

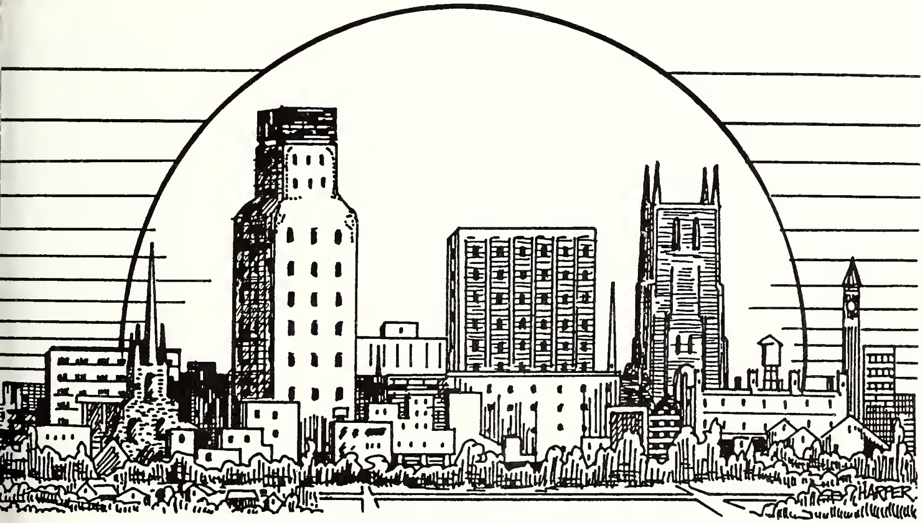
A New Day, A New Opportunity & A New Vision



A five year plan of the Yates Baptist Association

A New Day, A New Opportunity & A New Vision

We stand at the verge of a new day. Gradually, but certainly we are beginning t realize what the future holds for our triangle area. We are becoming home for an i creasingly diverse and rapidly growing population. Our economic and cultural diversi continues to attract business and industry and stimulates still more growth. These gro ing businesses and industries offer jobs for all who seek them.

From Lake Jordan, northern Chatham County to Carrboro and Chapel Hill, throug eastern Orange County, to Rougemont and Lake Michie, through Treyburn and Fal Lake, to the airport through the Research Triangle Park to the Wake County line, w are changing and growing all over, almost at once.

As water and sewer become more and more available throughout the area, even fast growth is possible and probable.

Yates Baptists are a part of this growth, and we have a new opportunity to shape an influence our area's future. But there are many difficult challenges ahead of us, mar tough questions to be answered:

Will our churches be concerned enough to reach out beyond themselves to touch liv of those without purpose and direction?

Will our churches be more sensitive to the needs of special groups of people aroun them whose lives have been mangled by the effects of sin?

Will we together be more willing to risk and venture out on mission and ministry f Christ's sake?

Will our churches be willing to risk the changing of programs and program structure and cultural attitudes, yet maintaining the central, unchanging gospel message in ord to reach people of different cultures and lifestyles?

Will our churches be willing to be all things to all people so that by all means we mig win some?

Will our churches be willing to use church facilities for ministry programs c weekdays in addition to Sunday and Wednesday nights and move our faith beyond t walls of a church building?

A New Day, A New Opportunity, A New Vision can be ours if we can say "yes" t these questions.

Priority: Programs, Property - or People.

The Baptist Association: A Family of Churches

radley is director, Associational Administration Department, Home Mission Board)

One of the most beautiful descriptions of a Baptist association is "a family of churhes."

Families share a common heritage - whether by birth, marriage or adoption. Regardess of how family members may differ in other ways, they share something in common ecause they are kinfolks. That's fundamental to an association. It is formed by Baptist hurches which recognize they are spiritually kin.

That doesn't mean that every one in a family is just alike. A healthy family is not eveloped by a cloning process. No human group progresses in any dimension of life hrough conformity and compliance. A healthy family enhances personhood and inividuality and provides an environment conducive to continuous maturing. Likewise, a ealthy association-family encourages an appreciation for the uniqueness of the churhes that make it up.

In a family, persons don't get their worth from their size (adults are not "worth" nore than kids because they are bigger), their economic impact (the main bread winner not "worth" more than the infant whose economic impact is all expense), their inelligence, their physical abilities or any other such thing. No, that very notion in a famiy is repulsive. In a family, everyone is invaluable - all are worth more to one another han could possibly be counted.

Likewise, this is true in an association. Churches are not "worth" more or less based pon their size, their wealth, their contribution to the associational budget, their uildings and the like. Just as in a family, here also that notion is repulsive. In a healthy ssociation, every church is invaluable - all are worth more to one another than could ossibly be counted.

In a healthy family, everyone cares for one another. Oh, sure they will have occaonal fusses and fights, but that's within the protective framework of mutual care. Vhile the kids will fight, in a family they learn to fight fair. But when anyone in a family urts - whether it's because of a broken arm, a headache, a lost dog, "hurt feelings" or hatever - a healthy family provides care and support just because that's what is needed.

Families do things together - they work together, play together, eat together, pray ogether - and families of churches do things together, too. There is a special joy in the hristian life when the family of churches expresses its spiritual kinship through its life nd work together.

A Theology of Associational Missions

The first "associational meeting" recorded in scripture is contained in Acts 15 and describes how Paul led the area churches together into a conference that enables the churches to expand their understanding of their mission. In several instances the area churches cooperated, through Paul, to accomplish something they could not achieve on thei own. They expressed their mission concern by sending both material and personal assistance. Paul, in turn, sent our missionaries on behalf of the churches. He received an disbursed funds from the churches to relieve famine and suffering and to finance missionary journeys. Their cooperative efforts at evangelizing, ministering and establishin new congregations set the precedent for what we do today. Baptist churches in England back in the mid-1600s, formed the first formal association of churches for the purpos of mutual care. This concept of caring for each other is the bedrock of associations today.

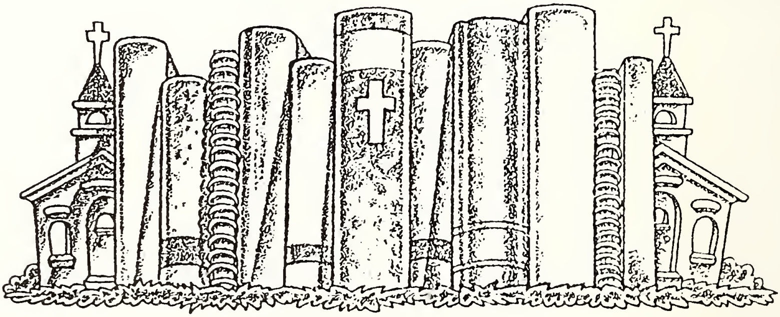
In addition to our concerns for each other, we bring a concern for those outside th church fellowship. Historically these twin concerns of most associations are mutual car and missions. This has been the case for Yates Baptist Association.

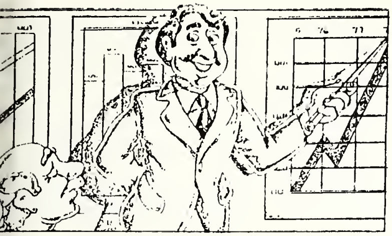
Throughout the history of Baptist associations we have existed between the tension of interdependence and autonomy of the local churches. Dr. James L. Sullivan ha remarked, "all Baptist churches are independent, it's just that some are cooperating."

In whatever the churches attempt in response to their understanding of God's mission, the association exists to help them. We are a network of relationships throug which assistance may be given and received by the churches to accomplish their mission We are an association of churches, in fellowship, on mission, each in our own setting

Like other associations, the Yates Baptist Association has evolved into a base out o which an areawide mission strategy is dreamed and implemented. In addition to thi function the association is an extension of the cooperative activities of the churches work.

By its very nature the association is a missionary endeavor, committed to helping eac church fulfill its mission.





A Brief History
Strategy Planning Committee Report

The Yates Baptist Association, at the request of the director of missions, appointed a trategy Planning Committee on September 4, 1984. (The names of the members of this ommittee are found elsewhere in this report.)

As you can see from the list of names the committee was comprised of people from all alks of life, different age groups, different lengths of service in the association, differnt theological persuasions, etc.

This committee of 25 persons was divided into seven subcommittees, including: Area rowth, Church Growth, Organizations & Ministries, Social Systems, Associational dministration, Religious Groups, Camp.

These subcommittees did extensive studies talking to, listening to, and reading from esources available in our area. In some instances, census data, field trips, surveys, and ap studies were done.

Even though this committee was very diverse it was still in one accord in the directions ur association needs to take in the next five years.

We tried to keep the purpose of the association in mind as we developed our vision.

The Purpose: The purpose of this Association shall be to provide a convenient and rderly means for the extension of the ministry to the cooperating Baptist churches in urham County and adjacent territories which support the programs of the Baptist tate Convention and the Southern Baptist Convention."

With studies completed, we tried to determine some order in which to place these udies. So we adopted and adapted the S.B.C. Convention theme for the next five years give us some order in which to project our vision: The theme: "Reach People, evelop Believers, Strengthen Missions, and Strengthen Ministers" was adopted as our ission statement.

With this mission statement in mind, we submit them as four priorities with goals and bjectives under each.

At the Key Leadership Conference in May at Ridgecrest, each organizational repreentative and committee chairman present was assigned responsibility for carrying out oals and objectives and developing action plans to carry out the goals and objectives.

This then is the Strategy Plan presented for 1986-1990.

Priority One: Reach People

The responsibility of growing and reaching new people for Christ is made clear in the ew Testament. Yates Baptists have traditionally pledged their faithfulness to being esponsible stewards both to the task and of our resources.

Our research indicates that 53.5 percent of the population of our area does not affilite with any Christian church, even when defined in broad terms. In 1985 this epresented in number is 87,303 and by 1990, 92,502 that are effectively unchurched. A air assumption is that most of these do not know Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior.

Reaching this large group requires some bold efforts and plans. Churches need to fe the responsibility for the unchurched populations in their communities. Individu members need to feel responsible for their neighbors and colleagues. Each of us mu become personally involved if we are ever to impact our area.

One way of measuring how effectively we have been penetrating the community is t examine the baptisms reported by our churches. We have averaged 483 baptisms pe year for the last 10 years. Putting that figure in perspective means, our churches ave aged less than 10 baptisms per church per year while our area is growing at a rate of 5 persons per day.

These statistics indicate our need to begin agressively reaching new people. It is an e fort that will require a major commitment on the part of Yates Baptists.

Objectives:

(1) Lead churches to develop evangelism strategies to reach the lost of our area.

Goal:

Increase baptisms by 10 percent per year for the next five years.

(2) Lead churches to reclaim inactive members.

Goals:

(a) Reclaim 10 percent of inactive members per year for the next five year

(b) Continue to offer deacon training that will assist in this reclamation effort.

(c) Encourage the creation of new program units in each church to reclai the inactive members.

(3) Lead churches to reach the lost and people outside of church circles through Mi sion Ministries (new and expanded terminology for Christian Social Ministries, t include: Inter-Faith Witness, Black Church Relations, Church Weekday Mini tries, Baptist Centers, and Students.

Goal:

(a) Develop Mission Ministries in at least five churches by 1990.

(4) Lead churches to do individual church studies to determine if what they are doi is cultural and traditional as opposed to Biblical so as to reach more people of di ferent cultural and traditional backgrounds.

Goals:

(a) Lead churches in changing communities to do PACT (Project Assistan to Churches in Transition) studies (at least one church per year).

(b) Lead churches (every church in the next five years) to do a Long Ran Planning Study.

Priority Two: Develop Believers

The Great Commission's primary command is to make disciples. It is becoming i creasingly evident that many church members are not firmly rooted and grounded i their faith. This lack of development leaves church members susceptible to proselytizi by other religious groups and religious cults.

In addition more and more newcomers to our area are not from Southern Bapti backgrounds, and many are not even from the South. Upon joining a Southern Bapti church these newcomers are unsure of the beliefs and practices of their new church fam ly. The lack of orientation into one's new faith, their new church and its poli sometimes proves to be disruptive in the life of the church.

Strong programs of training need to be implemented by churches to help new Chri tians be sure of their beliefs and able to give a ready answer when their faith is ch lenged.

New members from other religious backgrounds need some orientation in Southern Baptist missions and polity as well as church doctrine.

All new church members need some sort of introduction into the life of their church before being expected to participate fully in its mission and ministries.

All church members need to be trained to reach others by personal witnessing and evangelism. All church members need to become disciplers.

Objectives:

(1) Lead churches to develop church training/discipleship programs for all church members.

Goal:

(a) Every church offering new member training by 1990.

(b) Every church offering some form of training in doctrine, missions, and polity by 1990.

(c) Overall 10 percent increase in Church Training enrollment and attendance each year until 1990.

(2) Lead churches to train church leaders in the use of MasterLife and Continuing Witness Training (CWT).

Goals:

(a) To have 50 percent of our churches involved in MasterLife or CWT by 1990.

(3) Lead churches to increase enrollment and attendance in church program organizations.

Goals:

(a) to have a 10 percent per year increase in enrollment and attendance in Sunday School, Church Training, Church Music, Brotherhood, Woman's Missionary Union.

(4) The Association should develop programs and identify target groups for outreach and ministry.

Goals:

(a) Develop and encourage outreach and ministry to:

(1) Singles
(2) Ph.D.'s
(3) Math & Science students
(4) preschoolers
(5) children
(6) adults
(7) other target groups

(5) The Association employ an individual to give guidance (especially to declining churches and churches in transition and to smaller churches) in development of and training for various church programs.

Goal:

(a) Employ this individual by 1987 in order to make more of this recommended training available to smaller churches and churches with particular program development needs. (See footnote under Strengthen Missions.)

(6) The Association sponsor forums on other religious groups in our area.

Goal:

(a) The Christian Life Committee sponsor an annual forum on other religious faiths.

Priority Three: Strengthen Missions

When we think of missions we think of Foreign Missions, Home Missions, State Missions, Associational Missions - our corporate effort at doing "missions."

Sometimes, however, we think of missions in terms of starting new churches.

At other times, we think of missions in terms of special projects such as the West Virginia Project, Togo Project, nursing home programs, feeding the needy, etc.

All of these are missions and much more.

In a report prepared for us by Ernest C. Upchurch dated March 1983, informatio was shared with us indicating that we need to start 14 new churches by 1990 wit memberships that would grow to approximately 350 and in addition, we should sta seven new black churches with membership of approximately 300 each.

Information shared with us by developers, planning commission offices, etc., indicat that those figures may be much too conservative. One subdivision alone is projected t have 3,200 new living units in it with a net potential population in excess of 12,000 persons. And this one subdivision is scheduled to be completed in three years. What kind o impact will Southern Baptists make on a community like that?

Missions is also helping churches in certain areas to develop weekday ministry programs to meet the needs of their community. Missions is providing a cup of cold wate in Jesus' name. We need to affirm organizations such as Contact, Durham Congregations in Action and Urban Ministries Center. Yet, we need to do more than meet socia needs. We need to meet spiritual needs as well.

Administratively we are trying to do more and more from our association office fo missions. However, Yates Baptist Church is planning a family life center which is to b built at the site behind the office. Our office may have to be vacated for parking spac for the church. We need to look at the possibility of building an office building in th near future as well as upgrading equipment.

It is also felt that many people know about Foreign Missions and Home Missions bu we need to do a better information/communication job with respect to associatio work, so that all will realize missions is right here as well as in other places.

. . . The Camp, as part of our overall associational missions strategy: We see th camp playing a vital role. The missions cabin at the camp, and the association's ownership of the camp may be the first introduction to associational missions for many people. We affirm the Camp Committee's proposals adopted in the annual meeting, 198

. . . We do feel that for overall efficiency and for improvement of certain ministrie our Constitution and Bylaws should be revised. Recommended changes are als presented.

Objectives:

(1) Lead our churches to see the need for new churches in our association.

Goals:

(a) Start two new churches each year from 1986-1990.

(b) Start 10 Home Fellowship Bible Studies that may/may not become churches.

    (c) Study and present a report for new and innovative ways of funding new church starts by end of 1986.

(2) Lead our churches in special need areas to develop weekday ministries to meet the needs of those around the church.
  Goals:
    (a) Call a Director of Mission Ministries to assist churches in developing weekday ministry programs by 1987.*
    (b) Encourage churches to do studies to evaluate changes in the community and how best to meet the needs of the community.

(3) Lead our churches to organize in preparations for natural disasters or emergencies.
  Goal:
    (a) Develop a Disaster Relief Plan for the association by 1988.

(4) Lead our churches to increase their giving to the association in order to fund more projects and mission activities.
  Goals:
    (a) Set four percent of undesignated gifts as the goal for churches to reach in their contributions to the association.
    (b) Encourage churches to try to increase their percentage of giving by ½ percent per year until they reach four percent.

(5) Lead our association's committees and organizations to plan wisely the use of funds in order to free up funds for new and innovative programs. Cost efficiency should become the watchword.
  Goals:
    (a) Move toward a volunteer chaplaincy program as presented by the Baptist State Convention for PSO and Jail Chaplaincy.
    (b) Move toward having the Life Enrichment Center become self-supporting and the association funding only for counseling of ministers who need counseling but cannot afford to pay.
    (c) Reduce the association's contribution going to new church starts by one-fourth per year instead of making up the decrease of the Baptist State Convention.
    (d) Continue zero-based budgeting for all programs of the association.
    (e) Base the association budget process upon priorities set for each year.

(6) Strengthen the ministry of the Camp.
  Goals:
    (a) Adopt a name for the camp by 1987.
    (b) Develop a philosophy of ministry or missions statement for the camp by 1986.
    (c) Implementing by 1988 the Camp Committee proposals adopted in the annual meeting of 1984.
    (d) If the proposals of the Camp Committee adopted in the 1984 annual meeting cannot be implemented, it is recommended that the camp be relocated.

(7) Strengthen communication and information about associational missions.
  Goals:
    (a) Observe annually Associational Emphasis Week (May).
    (b) Form a public relations committee to develop appropriate information/communication vehicles including use of mass media.

(c) Install Baptist Telecommunications Network in our association by 1989

(d) Continue efforts to try to get ACTS Network in our area.

(8) Encourage the development of special ministries.

Goals:

(a) Begin an active ministry with teens, such as a teen center located withi the association.

(b) Begin chaplain-type ministry for the shopping malls.

(c) Begin some type of ministry to the Math & Science School.

(d) Encourage greater participation in the prison ministry.

(e) Encourage the development of special ministries of creative sorts where needs arise.

(9) Develop an association office complex that would enhance our mission capabilities.

Goals:

(a) Buy or build an association office complex by 1988.

(b) Purchase an office computer by 1986.

(c) Continue to upgrade office equipment and furnishings on an annual basis

*Because it is felt that a Minister of Education and a Director of Missions and Ministrie is needed for the association, it is recommended that we try to find one individual wh could give equal time to both areas of need.

Priority Four: Strengthen Ministers

One of the major reasons Baptist churches organized themselves together into associations was their need for mutual support and encouragement. That need remains today

Scripture indicates that those outside Christ will recognize His followers by their lov for one another. This kind of love is the basis for what we call fellowship.

While the "quality and quantity of fellowship" is a rather difficult thing to measure statistically, it is obvious to outsiders whether or not we support and encourage on another in the kingdom work. Most folks around us do not think provincially. The think of Baptists in our area collectively. Our tendency, however, is to view surroundin communities and their inhabitants as "ours" or "theirs."

We must realize that the reaching of Durham, Chapel Hill, Carrboro, norther Chatham and eastern Orange counties requires an effort beyond what we, or just on church, can muster. It takes an effort in which the whole is greater than the sum of th parts. We must come to see ourselves as a part of a team in which each player is vital an yet cannot function without the other members. This sort of attitude fosters fellowship

Which we sense that each church or ministry is a piece of the body of Christ in ou area and plays a certain role in the work of the Kingdom which no one else can duplicat there will be less energies expended needlessly and more energy directed toward fillin Christ's mandate that we love one another.

Fellowship . . . an elusive, intangible characteristic without which we are less tha who and what God requires of His people.

Objectives:

(1) Promote unity and fellowship among the ministers of the association.

Goals:

(a) Organize a ministerial care council to assist ministers with crises, staff relationships, etc. by 1986.

(b) Facilitate support groups for pastors, staff and wives.
(c) Conduct orientation sessions for new ministers.
(d) Promote pulpit exchanges between churches.
(e) Improve programming of the Ministers' Conference.
(f) Encourage greater participation in the weekly ministers' fellowship breakfast.

In Conclusion . . . .

The scriptures tell us, "Where there is no vision, the people perish . . ." (Proverbs 9:18). Our forefathers had vision. Whether you go back to your forefathers who began our church or you go all the way back through Biblical times, men rose up who had a ision. When that vision came from God and people responded, then God blessed them.

Your Strategy Planning Committee has been trying to get a vision of what God would ave us do in this area. This vision is reflected in this five-year plan which you have just read.

The sheer vastness of numbers of people moving to Durham and vicinity gives us a remendous challenge. The possibilities of ministries are endless. What we have set our ights on, at this time, are four priorities.

Surely there are other tasks we need to be about. This document however, outlines for s a temporary direction to capture the vision and move forward.

Upon adoption of this report, you will be kept advised as to how we progress all along he way. It will take a lot of work, but we can do it if we see ourselves as a family of hurches trying to do together what one family member by himself/herself cannot do.

Today we have a new day, a new opportunity, and a new vision.

Report of the Christian Social Ministries Intern

The Christian Social Ministries Internship runs from June 1985 through May 1986. requires 20 hours of work each week on a flexible schedule and provides eight cred hours at Southeastern Seminary plus a stipend from the Home Mission Board wort $275 a month.

The object of this summer's work was to investigate the viability of a church-bas senior adult day care. Such a ministry has good potential for outreach and service, ar the need for this ministry will continue to grow. However, the findings of this summer study speak against recommending the operation of a full-time (40-60 hours a week) d care at this time. Below are the reasons for this conclusion, followed by an evaluation the study itself, and then recommendations for alternative ministries to the elderly.

A. Negative indicators.

1. Durham already has a senior adult day care, the Community Life Progra (CLP), run by the Coordinating Council for Senior Citizens (CCSC) in the bas ment of Duke Memorial United Methodist Church. The history of that operati was described by the director of the CCSC as an "eleven year struggle for e istence." Hillhaven of Chapel Hill also provides day care for its nursing hom

2. Most prospects show interest in part-time care, not full-time. They reque occasional fellowship and stimulation more than constant supervision.

Those aged persons who need constant care need it because they are more severly impaired. Their needs go beyond what a church can most likely offer.

3. For the day care to be cost-efficient and self sustaining would require approximately 20 participants contributing $60 a week. Funds are available from the Department of Social Services on an individual contract basis, but our prospects would be in competition with those of the CLP for limited funds.

B. Evaluation of community response to proposed senior adult day care.

1. Number of phone calls in response to mode of advertising.

13 responded to posters in community
0 responded to posters in churches
5 responded to ad in "T.V. World" magazine-insert in the Durham Morning Herald
3 responded to classified ad in Durham Advertiser
0 responded to ad in Spectator
2 responded to T.V. public service announcements
1 responded to radio public service announcement
24 calls

2. Interpretation of responses.

Less than one-third of these responses qualify as active prospects. At least half requested only occasional or part-time care. The intended ministry target, the working couple with an aging parent at home, represents approximately 25 percent of the respondents. Less than half were concerned about an older person for whom they were responsible but who still lived independently. Those people were looking for a place of fellowship, of community and activity for that older person in danger of withdrawal.

No situation of any respondent was quite identical to that of any other. The survey bears out the thought that individual differences grow more distinct with age.

The level of response was too low to show any geographic dominance.

The numbers are not as important an indicator as the content of the responses. Although the figures indicate a level of interest too low to justify investment in a full-scale day care, these numbers do not exhaust the level of interest. If the campaign to solicit interest were maintained, from one to three responses could be expected each week for at least two months.

The survey uncovered one factor common to all responses, and that is heterogeneity. The strongest need is for an increased variety of options of care for the elderly. Flexibility in hours of operation, in pay schedules, in locations, and in program orientation are required by the peculiarities of the individuals. Surprisingly, cost was not a major concern for perhaps 70 percent of the respondents. Not so surprisingly, racial prejudice was a limitation for a large majority of the respondents.

C. Recommendations: Alternatives to senior adult day care.

The operation of a full-scale day care could not be undertaken unless underwritten initially by a benevolent party. Optimally, such an operation could support itself after the first year. Realistically, it might take five or ten years and a continual search for support. Justification for the duplication of a ministry already in existence appeals to the increasing numbers of older citizens and to the racial and class distinctions of those who do not feel at home in the community served by the CLP.

The need for a variety of options to meet the particular needs of individuals suggests the development of similar but different operations. A good approach would be for a church to undertake a related project on a reduced, more specific scale. Watts Street Church is headed in the right direction in its plans to offer respite care, limiting the operation to just a few hours a week and to a specific ministry target.

Another approach would be to expand the programs for seniors that already exist in the church. The best program will be one that originates from the need of the seniors themselves.

Some suggestions for a broader ministry to seniors:

1. Health care
    --promote annual check-up weeks or weekly blood pressure checks.
    --promote a series of lectures on aging-related topics.
    --work with hospitals on discharge planning.
    --offer information about services to the elderly.
    --conduct an exercise program.
    --sponsor hikes, outdoor events, athletic competition.
    --offer low-cost lunches at church or provide drivers for Meals on Wheels.
    --secure volunteers to help with grocery shopping or transportation.
2. Legal, financial, security needs.
    --make legal guidance readily available through retired lawyers.
    --assist in estate or retirement planning.
    --form citizens' crime watch patrols.
    --use volunteers to make improvements in home security.
3. Fellowship and ministry needs.
    Bring older persons into (more!) active participation in the congregation by --leading in worship activities.
    --teaching study or hobby groups.
    --providing visitation, library, or tape ministry to the homebound.
    Shut-ins themselves can be used in ministry by writing letters, telephoning, sewing, intercessing in prayer, and clipping prayer concerns in the newspaper.

This list is limited only by imagination and motivation. If you would like a more explicit list of ideas or would like to pursue and idea for ministry to older persons, call the associational office for an appointment with Mary. I'd like to share the excitement.

Report of the Audit Committee

The Audit Committee of the Yates Baptist Association met August 23, 1985 at Shoney's Restaurant, Hillandale Road, at 7:15 a.m. The Reverend Marvin Settle met with the committee.

Following breakfast, the committee reviewed the report of an audit that was conducted by Bailey, Self, Harris, and Company.

We found that their report of the audit to be consistent with the bylaws of the association, and that all funds collected and dispersed have been properly accounted for. In that context, we recommend the report of the auditors be accepted by the association.

Yates Baptist Association
Durham, North Carolina

We have examined the statement of assets, liabilities and fund balances arising from cash transactions of YATES BAPTIST ASSOCIATION as of December 31, 1984 and 1983, and the related statement of revenues collected and expenditures paid for the years then ended. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and, accordingly, included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

As described in Note #1, the association's policy is to prepare its financial statements on the basis of cash receipts and disbursements; consequently, certain revenues and the related assets are recognized when received rather than when earned, and certain expenses are recognized when paid rather than when the obligation is incurred. Accordingly, the accompanying financial statements are not intended to present financial position and results of operations in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly the assets, liabilities and fund balances arising from cash transactions of YATES BAPTIST ASSOCIATION as of December 31, 1984 and 1983, and the revenues collected and expenditures paid during the years then ended, on the basis of accounting described in Note #1, which basis has been applied in a manner consistent with that of the preceding year.

Joint Recommendation from the Finance Committee and the Missions Committee

The Missions Committee and Finance Committee recommend that the association observe Association Emphasis Week annually beginning with the Monday following the third Sunday through the fourth Sunday in May. (On denominational calendar.) It is also recommended that a special Association Emphasis Week Offering be collected during that week and that in 1986 the goal be as follows:

1986 ASSOCIATIONAL EMPHASIS WEEK OFFERING

Agape Corners	$5,000.00
1987 Prison Ministry	$2,500.00
1987 PSO Chaplaincy	$2,500.00
	$10,000.00

All gifts received over $10,000 will be divided equally between Life Enrichment Center and inner city ministries until LEC receives $3,000.00 for its 1987 budget. All funds above $16,000.00 will go to inner city ministries.

Respectfully submitted,

Finance Committee
Charles H. Harris, Chairman
Missions Committee

History of University Baptist Church

Compulsory attendance at chapel and Sunday services was a way of life for all students at the University of North Carolina from its founding through the first half of the nineteenth century. The students, no matter what their denominational persuasions, had no choice but to attend the University's services. Under pressure from more than one denomination, the Board of Trustees at the University early in 1850, decided to allow students to choose the church they wished to attend. The problem for Baptist students was the absence of a Baptist church closer than Mount Carmel, located a few miles south of Chapel Hill, then a village of about 300 persons. In 1854 Mount Carmel Baptist Church approved the organization of a branch church, and six months later - Septembe 15, 1854 - the Chapel Hill Baptist Church was officially separated from the Mount Carmel Baptist Church. The church held preaching services and received new members, both whites and blacks, by baptism and by transfer of letter. The first rolls of the churc showed a total of 38 persons, 28 white members and 10 black members.

From the beginning, members of the Chapel Hill Church desired a home for worshi services and the need was answered by the Reverend William Henry Merritt, a mil owner and operator of a sizeable plantation. Besides giving a plot of ground, Elder Merritt also provided $1,200 in his will which paid about one-third of the cost of the firs church building, erected on the corner of Church and West Franklin Street (it late became the Masonic Temple). Completed in May 1854, the church was constructed o brick and measured 60 by 35 feet, with a square tower at the front.

The period of the Civil War and the Reconstruction aftermath registered many difficulties for the church. Early in the war, membership rose to a peak of about 200, the declined to about 100 when black members withdrew to form their own church i September 1865. Services were irregular during the war and for many years thereafter

At various periods lasting from a few months to as much as two years there were no regular pastors and services were conducted only occasionally with the lowest point of the church's existence coming in 1897.

As the twentieth century approached, the church began a slow recovery, growing in membership, obtaining outstanding pastors, reaching a sounder financial footing, and building the present church edifice which was first occupied in October 1923. When the church held a week of services in September 1954, to commemorate its 100th birthday, the members present could look back on times of both trouble and accomplishment. The congregation acknowledged with gratitude the help that came from the North Carolina Baptist Convention and the Southern Baptist Home Mission Board, especially during the first part of the century. In particular, financial aid helped to pay pastors' salaries, purchase the church site, and to build the present structure.

Most of all the Chapel Hill Baptist Church - now the University Baptist Church - was and is people. Especially there have been the students and faculty from the University who were part of the church from the first days until now. These, along with the permanent residents of Chapel Hill, have been closely involved with the church mission. Among the many leaders were Pastor George W. Purefoy who was credited with preaching the first sermon in 1854. Rev. Brantley James Hackney was the first elected pastor, and the first church clerk was Deacon P.H. McDade. Other pastors of note included Dr. Charles W. Maddrey, later secretary of the Baptist State Convention, Olin T. Binkley, Gaylord P. Albaugh, and D. Kelly Barnett, all of whom subsequently became professors at theological seminaries. Dr. Henry Turlington, a former seminary professor and now with his wife serving under the Foreign Mission Board in the Philippines, pastored the church with distinction during the sixties and seventies. Many young men, after their student days at the University became leaders in North Carolina; among these are the familiar names of Charles B. Aycock, J.Y. Joyner, and Edwin A. Alderman.

Of lay leaders, Chapel Hill Baptist Church has had an abundance. The flame lit in 1854 has flared brightly or flickered and smoldered, but it has never entirely disappeared; and today, in 1985, it burns steadily and strongly with every indication that the University Baptist Church in Chapel Hill will round out its second span of one hundred years in 2054.

History of Watts Street Baptist Church

Watts Street Baptist Church was constituted March 4, 1923, with 156 members, following a preliminary meeting January 14, at which it was decided to organize a church to serve the Watts Street School area. The Reverend Howard L. Weeks was called as the first pastor in September 1923. He served until September 1925. Dr. C. Sylvester Green, then a teacher in Durham High School, was ordained to the ministry and called to the pastorate in January 1926. He served until July 1932. The Reverend J.T. Riddick, a former pastor of Temple Baptist Church, became pastor in October 1932 and served until his death in December 1938. Dr. Owen F. Herring was pastor June 1939 - Septembe 1946. He was succeeded by the Reverend Warren Carr, who served until Septembe 1964. The Reverend Robert McClernon became pastor in July 1965.

Church property was doubled with purchases both in 1947 and 1959. Educationa facilities were expanded in 1953.

The congregation has weathered many crises, including the threat of receivership during the depression, condemnation upon having set apart for gospel ministry the firs woman ordained by a Southern Baptist congregation, and efforts to expel it from the Yates Baptist Association for its membership policy, which acknowledges the validity o the baptism practiced by all Christian churches.

The church is a member congregation in both the Southern Baptist Convention an the American Baptist Churches, USA, having sought affiliation with the latte denomination in 1967.

The congregation has freely acknowledged responsibility to reach out in Jesus' nam to poor and troubled people in Durham and Durham County. Recreational programs a Damar Court and Cornwallis Road housing projects, Contact, Host Homes, Fellowshi House (for women alcoholics), a group home for the mentally retarded, Hassle House the Shelter for Homeless Women, Threshold (for the chronically emotionally ill); Meal on Wheels: each of these either was established by Watts Street Baptist Church, or ha this congregation as an initial instigator or participant.

The church is one of seven individual Baptist congregations to hold membership i the North Carolina Council of Churches, and was the second to do so. It is also member of Durham Congregations in Action.
